

WEATHER BEACON:

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Atop an office building here is an electric beacon which indicates the weather forecasts by flashing colored lights. After many days of temperatures near 110 degrees, the beacon Monday night flipped its lid—or switches.

It began flashing in quick succession the signs for fair weather, cloudy skies, rain and snow.

Martin Kauffman, the man who sets the control dials, observed in dismay:

"The thing must be suffering from heat stroke"

West Prince Liberal Assoc.
Annual Meeting At S'side

The annual meeting of the West Prince Liberal Association was held on Tuesday afternoon in the town hall with the president, Percy Adams of Ellerslie presiding.

It was a large and enthusiastic meeting, attended by many of the prominent men of the party including the Hon. Alex Matheson, Provincial Leader, Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, the Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries, Hon. W. E. Darby, Attorney General, Senator George Barbour, Hon. Dougald MacKinnon. Splendid and inspiring addresses were delivered by these main speakers all indicating loyalty to and faith in the principles of the Liberal Party and its Provincial and Federal Leaders.

A resolution was passed congratulating the Prime Minister on his victory in the last Federal election and pledging loyalty in the future. Another resolution passed expressed confidence in the leadership of the Provincial Leader, Hon. Alex Matheson. The resolution also expressed confidence that the party would be confirmed in office after the next election.

A resolution was passed expressing confidence in the federal representative J. Watson MacNaught, Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries and congratulating him on the number of public buildings secured for Prince County and for the extensive repairs to the number of wharves throughout the county.

A resolution was passed to the Hon. Forrest Phillips thanking for the improvements he had caused to be made in the public roads. A resolution was passed complimenting Hon. Walter E. Darby on the splendid manner in which he has administered the various departments under his control.

A resolution was passed confirming the faith of the association in the First Prince candidates Fred C. Ramsay and Prosper Arsenault and assuring them of continued support.

A resolution was passed concern-

Hatfield-Stevens Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the North Bedouque United Church Manse on July when Rev. J. K. Campbell united in marriage Geraldine Elizabeth Hatfield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gallant, Freetown, and Fredrick Lionel Stevens, son of Mrs. Walter Pachell of Saint John, N.B.

The couple were attended by Miss Roma Perry as bridesmaid and Mr. Vernon Paynter, groomsmen.

The bride was attired in a suit of grey, with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

The bridesmaid wore grey with red accessories and corsage of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue sheer dress with white accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a grey dress with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where the rooms were decorated with cut flowers, pink and white streamers and wedding bells. Supper was served to the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom, the table being centred with a bowl of red roses. A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Gallant, stepfather of the bride, and responded to by the groom. The bride and groom were served by Mrs. Vernon Paynter, sister of the bride.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Walter Patchell, Saint John, N.B., mother of the groom, Mr. Jenson Hatfield, Springhill, N.S., grandfather of the bride, and Mrs. E. Brown of Springhill.

The groom's gift to the bride was a matched set of travelling bags. Later the bride and groom left for Saint John and Moncton, from where they will leave by plane for Winnipeg, then to Portage La Prairie, Man., where the groom is stationed with the RCAF. A.B.

East Prince W.I.
Hold Convention

The District Convention of East Prince was held in Hamilton Hall on June 24. Eight Institutes answered roll call with a total of 79 members and 7 visitors present.

Indian River was the entertaining Institute with Mrs. L. G. Ramsay as president and Mrs. Keith Mann as secretary. Miss Donald MacDonald gave the address of welcome which was responded to by Mrs. Sydney MacCougan of Malpeque. Baltic had charge of fun and nonsense which caused much merriment.

Miss Robin, supervisor, was present and gave an interesting talk and demonstration on nutrition. A sing-song followed, led by Miss Donald MacDonald, with Mrs. Hubert Gillis on the organ. Mrs. W. J. Harrington of Spring Valley then read an interesting educational paper. Mrs. Fred Tuplin then spoke on the art of painting and explained the difference in oil, pastel and water colors, and displayed some of her own drawings.

Clermont will be the entertaining Institute for next year with Mrs. Edson Rayner, president; Mrs. Cecil Mill, vice-president; and Mrs. William Mill, secretary.

Sea View Institute then had a panel discussion of "A Typical Farm Kitchen." Mrs. Earl MacKay was chairman and others taking part were Mrs. W. C. Donald, Mrs. Leland Campbell, Mrs. Douglas Woodside and Mrs. Lester Duggan. Refreshments were served by the members of the Indian River and Clermont Institutes.

The evening session opened by singing "O Canada." The Hamilton school children then sang a chorus which was loudly encored.

Mrs. Michael Doyle, provincial president, was present. She spoke of the A.C.W.W. meeting in Toronto last August and she also told of the central office located in London, England, and that Miss Lena MacLure is representing P. E.I. at the present time.

Following the adoption of the resolution, Miss Robin spoke of the music and drama festivals. Mrs. Thomas Humphrey then gave a monologue which was thoroughly enjoyed.

A sale of candy and polar bars was held during which time instrumental music was played by Messrs. James Bearisto and Ed Matthews.

Mr. William Cairns then told of his trip to Great Britain and the Continent. His talk was most interesting as he told of farming in England and France. The collection was then received, which, along with the proceeds from the sale of candy and polar bars, is to be donated to Prince County Hospital.

A vote of thanks to all participants and special thank-you to Mr. Cairns was moved by Mrs.

Justin McLellan and seconded by Miss Grace Easter.
