Sunday Nite Movie

A BILL PHILLIPS Production of a MARTIN SCORSESE Film

JODIE FOSTER ALBERT BROOKS as Tom
 HARVEY KEITEL LEONARD HARRIS

COLOR Shows at 7 and 9 p.m. 112 MINS.

This week's movie is Taxi Driver starring Robert Dinero, keeping up with UPEI Movie Club's attempt to bring major motion pictures to the campus.

Taxi Driver was in the theatres no more than 18 months ago and was nominated for three Academy awards. The New York Times said, and I quote, "If Taxi Driver is any indication, Robert Dinero is destined to be right at the top with such greats as Dustin Hoffman, Al Pacino and Sylvester Stallone, the big stars of Hollywood's new age. The extremely beautiful Cybill Shepherd and the very talented child star Jodie Foster also co-star in one movie you won't easily forget.

Now the basic plot: take a mentally deranged Vietnam veteran, mix it with a fanatical obsession to rid New York City of pimps, drug addicts and phony politicians, and you get Taxi Driver. Robert Deniro plays a taxi driver who has been through a lot but the worst is yet to come; Taxi Driver:

"You talking to me?"
 "You talking to me?"
 "Are you talking to me?"
 "I'm the only one here."
