Enjoyable Program At nekeh Lodge

Alpha Rebekah Lodge, No. 10, met in regular form on Tuesday, the Noble Grand Mrs. Noble Gass presiding, when a large attendance of members welcomed the Deputy Grand Master Mr. Wiley Gorvette, Amherst, N.S. who addressed them briefly stressing the principles of the Order, Friendship, Love and Truth, and the motto "Do Unto Others As Ye Would That They Should Do Unto You."

At the close of the business meeting, a short programme was presented, consisting of a reading by Marguerite Goff, then "The Fashion Revue" featuring the styles of the 1910-20's as modeled by about fifteen of the members, with continuity by Helen MacEachern, P.N.G., commentator Agnes Dickson, P.N.G. This was a wonderful display of costumes, which drew rounds of applause.

Following a parcel post sale was held with genial Past Grand Master John A. MacNair as auctioneer, assisted by Bro. Alfred Prizel, when a most satisfactory amount was realized for the Lodge's work of benevolence.

A delicious lunch was served by the committee under the sponsorship of Mrs. Sarah Gillespie P.N.G. and a social hour enjoyed.

Montague C. W. L. Cardigan C. W. L. Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Montague sub-division of the Catholic Women's League was held at the home of Mrs. Judge DesRoches on Sunday Nov. 7. Thirteen members answered roll call and in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Fraser, the minutes were taken by Mrs. Levi Power. The treasurer's report showed a considerable balance on hand and that all bills were paid, and upon motion it was agreed to buy a new mat for the vestibule of the church.

Under correspondence a letter from Mrs. Basil MacDonald was read asking for close co-operation in all C.W.L. work. The subject of a bazaar table to be held at the next chicken supper was raised but was left over for the next monthly meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Jerome Power.

The lunch committee for that meeting will be Mrs. Gerald Landry, Mrs. Jerome Power and Mrs. Hynes. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

"The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League, Cardigan sub-division, was held in the side chapel on Sunday, Nov. 14, with the president Mrs. Richard Quinn in the chair.

The meeting was opened by a prayer led by the Rev. Father O'Hanley. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Andrew MacLean, and adopted. Business from the minutes and other business matters was discussed. All members present agreed with Father O'Hanley that the League should have a special communion day each month. The first Saturday of each month was decided upon to be the special day.

Weekly card parties are held regularly in all sections of the parish and will continue throughout the winter months.

The meeting adjourned, after an interesting talk by Father O'Hanley on the important part played by the altar boys.
