NOVEMBER 2, 1881.

Exports for October.

DURING October, Queen's and King's Courts made the following exports:

Table with columns for Potatoes, Oats, Eggs, Fish (preserved), Fish (fresh), Sheep and Cattle, and Miscellaneous. Includes sub-headers for Colonial and Foreign.

The Dog Act.

THE Act passed last Session, providing that dogs be clogged or muzzled, has not been put in force. We learn that a few days ago Mr. Holman, of Charlottetown...

Canadian North-West Land Corporation.

THIS is the name of a new Syndicate, of which the Hon. Alex. McKenzie, late premier of Canada, is a prominent member.

TORONTO, Oct. 13.—The direction of the stream of emigration towards the Canadian Northwest has resulted in the formation of a company entitled the Canadian North-West Land Corporation...

It is rumored that the Hon. Alex. McKenzie is the "prime mover in this scheme." It is presumed that nothing further will be heard from the ex-premier in the shape of denunciations of "land monopolies."

The Duty of the Hour.

To gain as much as possible by the labor of the year, and to prepare for the coming winter—this is the duty of the hour; and our people are, with praiseworthy assiduity, doing it.

Jerusalem and the Jews.

COMMENTING on the orders of the Sultan to commence at once the clearing of the ground on Mount Moriah and the rebuilding of Solomon's Temple...

THE Egg Trade.—This year has been a very remarkable one for eggs. The St. Thomas dealers say they never remember prices ruling as high in the summer months as during the present season...

GARFIELD thought it as much the duty of all good men to protect and defend the reputation of worthy public servants, as to detect public rascals.

The Exhibition Commissioner's Decision.

To the Editor of the Examiner. SIR,—I should have written to you ere this regarding the manner in which the owner of the horse "Blackfoot" abused the judges of horses at the Provincial Exhibition...

Now, sir, let me give you a brief outline of the case. Feeling that I did not get justice in Halifax, I entered my horse here, fully aware that where his qualities as a stallion for raising colts for carriage purposes were well known, I would be successful...

Before concluding I may state, Mr. Editor, that I will match an "All Right" two-year old against "Blackfoot" for a race of half-mile heats, to harness, best three in five, for fifty dollars a side.

IN our latest statement respecting the Railway, we made no mention whatever of the N. P. The editor of the Pioneer evidently thinks we should have done so; for he charges us with having done so. We apologize to the Pioneer for the oversight, and beg to state that in our opinion the N. P. and the Governments energetic Canadian Pacific Railway policy have much to do with the present "boom" in the locomotive shops.

Housebreaking.

BARFACED ROBBERY IN A GROCERY STORE.—THE GOODS RECOVERED.

A CASE of housebreaking, which has not a parallel in this Province, occurred in this city this morning, when the grocery store of Mr. Simon Goudreau, Grafton street (East) was broken into and a large quantity of goods—in tea, tobacco, crackers, confectionery, etc., etc.—were taken and hid in a small grove on Judge Peters' farm, near the old Lunatic Asylum.

THE facts of the case, so far known, are:—This morning, at six o'clock, Mr. Goudreau, with wife and family slept above the store, and, to his surprise, found that some contents of his store had been stolen. He hastened to the residence of Marshal Flynn, and informed him of the occurrence. They returned to the store and saw that the housebreakers had obtained ingress through the cellar hatch, at the side of the building. They then entered the store from the cellar, and twisting the door bell aside, opened the front door. The marshal, on leaving the store, traced the house-breakers down Richmond Street, across Hillsborough Square to Heartz's Corner, on Sydney and Great George Streets. He was then informed that one of the watchmen saw three men at three o'clock this morning walking along Dorchester Street, towards Rochfort Street. He was also informed that the stable of Mr. Thomas Webb had been broken into and his horse and cart stolen. From these and other facts obtained, it was evident that the thieves, after opening the store, stole Mr. Webb's horse and removed the goods. The police were immediately on the alert, and at half-past nine succeeded in tracing the house-breakers to a grove on Judge Peters' farm, where all the goods stolen were found. They are as follows:—

1 half-chest tea, 1 box digby harrings, 2 boxes crackers, 1 butter tub, 8 bottles of pickles, 5 show-bottles of confectionery, 1 small cigar show-case and contents, 4 small boxes confectionery, 2 caddies tobacco, 10 lbs. sugar (in packages), 1 money box, 4 bottles of syrup, 2 crocks jam, (partly empty, 2 bars soap. With the exception of a few cigars, pickles, and a small quantity of preserves the amounts stolen were recovered. The thieves have not yet been captured.
