NEE Beer Bros. bargain corner. S. O. E. B. S. Initiation to-night. DRILL.—No. 1 Battery, G. A., will meet for drill to-night at 7.30 sharp. PRESBYTERY.—The Presbytery of P. E. I. will meet in Zion Church, Charlottetown, on Tuesday, Feb. 7th, at 11 a. m. MAILS.—The mails have been ordered to the cages. The special train will leave the city at nine o'clock to-night; outgoing mail closes at 8.30. SILSBY HOSE REEL Co.—The regular monthly meeting of this Company will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.—James Hennessy, Secretary. ELECTED AGAIN.—Hon. David Laird was the only person who nominated for Water Commissioner yesterday. He is therefore elected by acclamation. NO TRACK YET.—Mr. Henry Trowsdale, of Summerside, who left his home some time ago and for whose safety fears were entertained, is still missing and no trace of him can be found. THE STANLEY did not get into Pictou until a late hour last night owing to the ice. She left on return to Georgetown at 8 o'clock this morning. The Stanley will continue running between Georgetown and Pictou, making tri-weekly trips, until the 15th or 18th inst., when she will be taken off for a week or ten days to have her boilers cleaned. BOSTON MARKETS.—Eastern choice fresh eggs sell in Boston for 30 cents per dozen. P. E. Island Chenaigoes are quoted at 75 cents per bushel. Choice beef is sold at 53 to 9 cents per lb., and good at 64 to 74 cents. Best pork by the barrel is quiet at $22.50 to $22.75. Creamery butter, extra fresh, is bought at 30 to 32 cents per lb. These are prices by wholesale. POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Charles McMills, for selling intoxicants after hours, was fined $100 and costs or two months' imprisonment. An old man named Boyle, charged with being drunk and incapable, was sent to the Poor House. It appears that Boyle left the Poor House yesterday at noon and got so full of liquor that he laid down on the roadside at Southport, where he was found by some persons who brought him to the Police Station. RIBS BROKEN.—The Summerside Journal says: On Monday last, Mr. M. J. Arsenault, one of the street men of this town, received injuries that will confine him to the house for some days at least. He had charge of the snow plough, cleaning off the side walks, and while the horse was moving along at a pretty lively walk, one corner of the plough struck some obstruction or other, and was thrown violently sideways, one of the handles striking Mr. Arsenault in the side, and breaking a couple of his ribs. ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—According to the Guardian, Mr. McLeod, of Rose Valley, went yesterday to his well to draw some water. Being away longer than was necessary, his son went out to see what had happened to him and found his father had fallen in the well, which is an old fashioned one with two buckets. His father got in one of the buckets and was drawn near to the top of the well when the rope broke and he fell again to the bottom and was killed. The boy also slipped and fell into the well, but was not seriously hurt. The deceased left a wife and several children. A CURLING MATCH took place at the rink a few afternoons ago between teams representing the eastern and western sections of the city. The result was a victory for the east end representatives, as the following will show: East. West. F. H. Beer, T. C. James, De Beer, J. A. Lawson, G. A. Sharp, J. Unsworth, S. Gray—9, D. J. McLeod—6. East. West. W. W. Beer, W. A. Weeks jr., E. H. Beer, F. L. Hazard, J. A. Longworth, H. M. Davison, Johnson—13, Johnson—5. Totals—East, 22; West, 11. Y. M. C. A.—A meeting of the Executive Committee was held yesterday afternoon, at which reports of the various committees were presented. According to the report of the educational committee classes in French and writing are now in full swing; classes in mechanical drawing and stenography have been formed; and classes in bookkeeping will be formed in a short time. The entertainment committee are about arranging for a series of Educational Talks on Friday evenings of each week, commencing on the 10th; and it was decided to hold an "at home" to the members and business men on Monday evening next. Music, speeches, refreshments, etc., will make up a pleasant evening's entertainment. Reasoning that man is a social being, the Entertainment Committee of the Y. M. C. A. have personally become responsible for the raising of a sufficient sum to rent the Association parlour, making it cheerful and convenient attractive place for young men to congregate and enjoy the sociability devoid of any questionable influences. A number of members have been received into the educational classes. There yet remains room for more, however. The list of ready published has been supplemented by a class in vocal music. A Big Day WAS YESTERDAY. No wonder our Embroidery Counter was crowded. No wonder our Linen Counter was lined with appreciative purchasers. We have eclipsed any and every previous sale. The low prices and the large variety did it. We want to-morrow to out rival even yesterday. How is it to be done? Nothing short of a sensation will accomplish it. But the sensation is ready. Here it is! Linen Tray Cloths, D'Oylies, etc.—an assorted lot—pretty patterns—30 per cent. discount. You will find them on the front counter just as you enter the door. Hundreds of yards of choice Irish and Scotch Table Damasks very cheap—all marked in plain figures. BEER BROS. Weather Bulletin. TORONTO, Feb. 2.—10 a. m. Light falls of snow or sleet in some places; again to-morrow.

CARNIVAL to-night. THERMOMETER READINGS.—At nine o'clock last evening, five above zero; at midnight, zero; at nine this morning, twenty-two above. SHIP NEWS.—Sailed on the 26th ult., from Newport, Monmouth, barkentine Bonita, Ledwell, for Para. By cable to day to Hon. William Richards: Auriga, Capt. Thomas, arrived at Falmouth; Ganest, Capt. Davis, arrived at G. Iverson. WEDDING BELLS.—One of the happiest events of the New Year came off here yesterday, when Mr. John McDonald, of Rollo Bay, was married to Miss Mallard, of Souris River. The wedding party leaving Rollo Bay Church then drove to Mrs. Martin's and there had dinner, all doing justice to the sumptuous dinner prepared in Mrs. Martin's best style for the occasion. They returned to the home of the bride—to find the house filled with the youth and beauty of Souris River and New Zealand, and a great many of their Souris friends, both ladies and gentlemen, after partaking of a grand supper dancing commenced and was kept up till the small hours, both old and young taking part. After midnight the bride and groom much joy, and a few songs being sung, the party came to an end, all being of the opinion that it was the most pleasant time of the season. THE CARNIVAL to-night promises to be a great success. The ice is in excellent condition, the leader of the Citizens' Band has prepared an excellent programme, and upwards of one hundred persons have signified their intention of skating in costume. The Rink has been decorated in grand style, and when the Royal Bengal lights are turned on the night will be one of the like which is rarely seen. Across the rink are hung lines of beautifully-colored Chinese lanterns, and over these, suspended from the arched roof of the building, are tastefully arranged lines of flags. At the southern end of the building is placed a large locomotive headlight, around which are appropriately draped the flags of Canada, England and the United States. Near by are rows of swords artistically arranged. At the northern end are placed two headlights with decorations of bunting. The sides of the rink are hung with flags of different nations. The Royal Bengal lights will be operated by Mr. Doull from a platform placed at the northern end of the building. They will be turned on three times during the evening—for the first time at nine o'clock, the second time at half-past nine, and the third and last time at ten o'clock. The color of the lights will be changed each time. The effect promises to be grand. Everyone should make a point of attending this carnival, which promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted here before.
