

RIVALRY A MIRACLE.

Mr. George C. Chalker's Terrible Sufferings Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Howsey's Rapids, Sept. 12.—Mr. George C. Chalker, of this place, tells a remarkable story of restoration to sound health, that rivals the far-famed St. Anne de Beauport cures.

Briefly, Mr. Chalker's story is as follows: "I suffered horribly for years from kidney disease. I could do no heavy work. My pain was almost unendurable. No remedy did me the least good till I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Six boxes of this wonderful medicine have cured me completely—made a new man of me. I cannot speak highly enough of them. I can state with the utmost confidence that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure the very worst case of kidney disease."

A Self-asser. Husband—Anything you want in town today, my dear? Shall I order some of that self-raising flour? Wife—We have plenty left, but I wish you would stop at a registry office and order me a self-raising servant girl.—London Answers.

The Flogging Judge. Mr. Justice Day is the English flogging judge, he having sentenced 137 criminals to 3,766 strokes of the cat in 14 years. Five other judges have used the discretion given them by statute in greater moderation, their combined record being 1,776 strokes to 89 criminals. A gang of highway robbers that had terrorized Liverpool, some of whom he had himself seen at work, came before Justice Day for sentence ten years ago. "I am not going to give you men long terms of imprisonment," he said, "but when you go in you get 20 lashes of the cat, when you have been in nine months you get 20 lashes of the cat and before you come out you get 20 lashes of the cat, and then you can show that to your friends."

CATS MAKE HIS LIVING.

A California Recluse Who Keeps Them For Rent to Business Men.

There is an odd little man named Echnier, who lives in an odd little house in the heart of the busiest portion of San Francisco, who earns his bread oddly enough. His business is the raising of cats, which he puts into warehouses, stores and other places infested with rats and mice, and his income is derived from payment for the services of his pets. "Raising cats is my business," he said. "We get along all right, don't we, kitty?" Kitty settled down on his knee and purred her answer. "I see enough of them to like them," he went on, "for I feed between 150 and 200 every morning. This," pointing to a large basket, "I take full of meat, and that can in the corner is filled with milk. I go first to the warehouses on the docks, and then come farther up town to the business houses. "I do not often sell a cat. I raise them, train them for awhile and then place them in some warehouse or store where the services of a cat are necessary. Then for so much a month I take care of them. Would you like to see where they play? If you come this way, I will show you."

He opened a door and took me into a queer little court. Three sides of the inclosure are banked by buildings as old as the house where the cats live. The fourth side is a big brick structure, modern style. An attempt at a garden had been made, but even the lonely green geranium looks sorry and forlorn. And the cats! If there were many in the house, there are many more out here. Asleep in a box of excelsior is a beauty. He is marked exactly like a tiger. As you pass through narrow, yellow eyes glance at you. If you bend to stroke him, there is a sudden whirl, and the next you see of the tiger he is on the roof of a shed, gazing at you in rather an unpleasant manner. "Doesn't like to be disturbed," says Mr. Echnier. Down a pair of rickety stairs into the poor little garden, and you hear a great scampering of little feet, and now the rooms are full of disturbed kittens. They have just been fed and like to sleep a bit.

After awhile we go back into the house, and Mr. Echnier tells me how he lost his wife a few years ago, and since then he has lived all alone in the second floor of the shanty. "My only son is employed in the Smithsonian Institution, in Washington," he says. "It's a bit lonely here, but my cats are company, you know."—San Francisco Call.

FACTS ABOUT HEALTH. It is Easy to Keep Well if We Know How—Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food, and thus prepares nourishment. The blood is employed to carry this nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. Now it is certainly a fact that no medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is literally true that there are hundreds of people alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine and general regulator of the system by tens of thousands of people. This is because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure. This is the secret of its great success. Keep your system in good health by keeping your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which absolutely cures when other medicines fail to do any good whatever.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.
