Four Say 'Guilty' To Still Charges

SOURIS — Guilty pleas were entered in four cases involving violations of the Excise Act, heard by Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, at the Kings County Magistrate's Court session held Wednesday afternoon at Souris.

Following the taking of the pleas and the hearing of the details submitted by the arresting police officers, the magistrate adjourned all until Wednesday, Dec. 30, for sentence.

The charge against each of the four men arraigned was that of unlawfully having possession of a still suitable for the manufacture of illicit spirits. All four entered pleas of guilty.

The cases for the crown were conducted by two members of the RCMP from the Charlottetown detachment and Cst. J. A. Cook, Souris. None of the accused were represented by counsel.

In the case of Aeneas Joseph Laybolt and Brenton Stanley Arnold both of Dundee, information revealed that seizure of the still operated by the two accused was made by the RCMP on Thursday, Dec. 10.

In the case of the other two accused, Michael Laybolt, Dundee and John Frederick Laybolt, Morell, the seizure took place on Sunday, Dec. 13.

Christmas Story Presented In Tableau By St. James SS

Before a great crowd of admiring parents and grandparents and a host of friends that filled the Kirk Hall to capacity Thursday night, the boys and girls of the Kirk of St. James enjoyed a most happy and successful party.

The hall, gay with the lights and colors of Christmas, presented a most appealing and inviting picture as the children of all departments of the school took their part in the inspiring and enjoyable program. A group of colored photographs of former Christmas parties and Church School picnics were shown by Ian Rankin and this put everyone in an expectant mood for the events that followed.

The minister, Rev. T. H. B. Somers, acted as chairman. The first part consisted of numbers by the little tots of the Kindergarten Department under the direction of the Superintendent, Mrs. T. H. B. Somers, and included the following: "Welcome" by Derrel Sudbury; recitation by Cynthia Black; "Let's Sing" by Nora Rankin; "A Little Girl's Problem" by Nora Curtis; "Holly Wreaths" by Kenneth Anderson; "Shepherds Leave the Hillside" by Frances Lea; "My Problem" by Jim Macmillan; dramatic presentation "The Christmas Cake" by Frances Lea, Debbie MacKinnon, Nora Curtis, Nora Rankin, Debbie Sudbury; "Silent Night" by Nancy Curtis; "Upon the House-top" by Kenneth Anderson; "Miss Polly" by Garry MacConnell; "A Little Mouse at Christmas Time" Margie Wood; and two choruses, "A Christmas Carol" and "Away in a Manger," for which Miss Jocelyn Stewart was accompanied by Betty Anderson sang, "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas," and the girls of Mrs. E. S. Warren's Class gave a choral reading.

The programme then changed to a beautifully moving tableau of the Nativity of our Lord under the capable direction of the teachers of the Primary, Junior Intermediate, and Senior Classes, Mrs. R. G. Lea, Mrs. E. S. Warren, Mrs. L. E. Prowse, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Larkin, R. C. MacLean and Rev. T. H. B. Somers. In scenes of reverent appeal and devout interpretation the boys and girls in most original costume, with appropriate stage effects, and to the music of well-loved carols and hymns, gave a picturesque presentation of the Birth of the Redeemer as they acted out the various scenes in drama, solo, chorus and dialogue.

The whole presentation reflected most creditably on the boys and girls themselves as well as on those who had led and directed their work. The great evening was brought to a delightful climax when, with the ringing of bells and singing of favourite Christmas songs, Santa Claus was given an ovation as he made his way to the platform to present gifts to every boy and girl.

Obituary Notice

MR. PETER TRAINOR
Peter Trainor passed to his eternal reward in the City Hospital on October 31. Mr. Trainor was a life long resident of Glenfield and Mount Ryan where his memory will be cherished for his interest in his community. He was a devoted parishioner of Sacred Heart Church, Mount Ryan, an active member of the Benevolent Irish Society and a keen worker in the Liberal party.

Mr. Trainor married Ella Sinnott who, after a prolonged illness, died in 1955. He leaves to mourn, two sons, Elmer and Peter, at home, one daughter, Mrs. Charles Bugalski, Hamilton, Ontario, two sisters, Mrs. Ellie Morris and Mrs. Charles Quinn, and one brother, William Trainor.

The funeral mass was celebrated in his parish church by the Pastor Rev. Father A. Butler, and Father Simpson occupied a seat in the Sanctuary. The large number of friends and acquaintances who came to pay their last respects at the wake and funeral was evidence of the esteem in which Mr. Trainor was held. The pallbearers were his nephews, Fred Trainor, William Trainor, Chester Quinn, Earl Quinn, Danie Currie, Ernest Currie.

Mr. Trainor was a thoroughly genuine man, unassuming, upright honorable. He was a man of unwavering patience, who knew hard work and heavy crosses, and who exercised always deep sympathy and abiding kindness. He had constant faith in God and God's will and went his way with quiet, smiling courage. Through seventy eight years he enriched the lives of many because he passed their way.

Library Ranks Third On Island
Members Told
ALBERTON — Alberton Public Library ranks third among the libraries of this province in the number of books circulated during the year, it was announced at a meeting of the library committee Saturday evening.

Winston Currie presided at the meeting. The secretary, treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie, reported that the debt which had been $2,000 when the library was opened about eight years ago had been decreased by $375 during 1959. The balance owing is $225 plus a gift-loan of $200.

In addition repairs to the chimney and other running expenses amounting to approximately $75 had been paid.

Much appreciated gifts of money have been received from the town of Alberton, from a number of school districts and from women's institutes. One of the most generous gifts is that of Hilton Barbour who has supplied fuel oil free of charge each year.

RCAF RIFLE CLUB HAS TURKEY SHOOT

Nose, Bumper Count Begins To Solve Traffic Problems

SUMMERSIDE — A count of vehicular and pedestrian traffic in Summerside got underway at various points in the town Friday morning and is expected to form the basis for recommendations on the best method of solving the traffic problem to be made by Jean Lecoste, director of the department of traffic of Montreal.

The count started at eight o'clock and will continue today and Monday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day.

The counters, eight of them, are stationed at various points along Water Street and each is equipped with a chart designed by Mayor Currie for totalling the numbers of vehicles and pedestrians moving along Water Street each hour of the day.

The checkpoints are at the intersections of Water with Central, Summer, Spring and Granville Streets as well as at Queen Street.

When the check is completed the information will be correlated and a report forwarded to Mr. Lecoste. Recommendations from Mr. Lecoste on the best methods of relieving the traffic congestion are hoped to be received early in the new year.

PRINCE CO. HOSPITAL RECEIVES NEW MACHINE

An electrocardiograph machine representing a donation of $1,000 was presented to the Prince County Hospital yesterday morning by the president of Simmons and MacFarlane Ltd., Leslie F. Simmons and received by hospital manager J.M. Logan, right. This brings to $10,000 the value of donations presented to the hospital by the firm in the last 10 years. The machine will provide a service the hospital has heretofore been unable to give and which is covered by hospital insurance.

Shorthorn Breeders Re-elect Edward Clark

Edward Clark, Lot 16, was re-elected president of the Shorthorn Breeders Association at the annual meeting held last night at the Agricultural Board Room, Charlottetown.

Other officers include, vice-president, Lorna MacLean, Grand River, and secretary-treasurer, Sterling Wood, Mt. Herbert. Directors appointed were R.E. Bell, Lyle Boswell, Waldon MacPhee, Keith Barrett, Keith Dixon, H.H. Mutch and H.H. Jewell.

Following the president's report, a discussion took place regarding a tour to the mainland by the members next summer. The stepping of a regional show for Prince Edward Island next summer at North River sink was also considered.

The meeting decided that instead of donating special prizes at local exhibitions $4 per calf would be paid each 4-H Club member exhibiting pure bred calves at those exhibitions.

The meeting was presided over by President Edward Clark.

Yule Pageant Is Presented At Kensington

KENSINGTON — The Kensington United Church Sunday School Christmas program was presented in the Assembly Hall last week.

Harry Brown was chairman and Rev. L. M. Murray and Gordon Murray were musical accompanists. Santa Claus arrived at the close of the program and distributed treats to the children and gifts to the teachers.

Recitations were given by Nancy Harding, Karen Miller, Lillian Inglis, Deborah Adams, Kenzie Clark, David Kennedy, Shirley and Marilyn Miller.

A pageant depicting the Christmas story was presented in costume and interspersed carols were sung by Betty Palmer, Nancy Kennedy, and Valerie Crozier. The prophecy from Isaiah was read by Donald Furness. Brian Clark as captain of the soldiers read the decree of Emperor Caesar Augustus, to a group of villagers represented by Alan Montgomery, Alan Harding, Preston Kenney, Stewart Casley, Brian Moase, Valerie Crozier, Nancy Kelly, Elizabeth MacDonald. The soldiers were: Phillip and Ronald Somers, Wallace MacMurdo, Brian Casley, Preston Stewart, David Furness, Donnie Paynter, Grant Moase.

Malcolm MacLean, Dale Champion, Donald Murphy and Wendell Casley played the part of the shepherds. Joan Harding played the part of the angel.

Sherry Clark represented Herod on his throne and Lloyd Kelly and Gerry MacKenzie were the servant and the scribe.

In the Nativity scene the following parts were taken: the innkeeper, Errol Toombs, the innkeeper's wife, Barbara Ann Audl, Joseph, Carl Ramsay, Mary, Patsy Bowness, the Three Kings, Roger and Rowan Casley, David Walker.
