Greeley's Great Speech.

"Yes, I know Horace Greeley very well," said a leading Ellsworth merchant to a representative of the Lewiston Journal the other day. Of all the eccentric men I ever know, I think he was the most peculiarly so. I had occasion to call into the Tribune office often when Mr Greeley was there and I shall never forget a little incident that made a good mechanic out of a poor newspaper man. Mr. Greeley, you know prided himself that the columns of the Tribune were always accurate and then, too, the Tribune never got left on any important item of news.

On the reportorial force of the Tribune at the time I speak of, was a dashing young Massachusetts fellow, a man, so New York newspaper men said, who had a good nose for news. The young man had been connected with the Tribune but a week, when one afternoon he was summoned into the editorial sanctum by Mr. Greeley himself. I happened to be chatting with Mr. Greeley at the time and remember the scared look of the reporter's countenance when he ushered himself before the Great Greeley and the conversation that then took place.

"Young man," said Mr. Greeley, "there is going to be a dinner at R—— to-night, and I shall speak. Be there at eight, sharp, to report me. I want a column and a half."

The reporter bowed himself out of the sanctum. As further developments proved, the newspaper man had made arrangements to take a girl to the opera that evening. He was up a stump what to do. He was afraid of Mr. Greeley and he was afraid of his girl. He consulted with a reporter friend of his on a rival paper to the Tribune, and his friend thus talked: "O, that's nothing. Guess you haven't been in New York long? How much did Greeley say he wanted? Column and a half? O, that will be all right. You just get your claw-hammer and take the girl to the opera. I know what Greeley will talk about. I've been to dinners lots of times and heard his speeches. After the opera come over to my office, and I'll dictate to you Greeley's after-dinner speech, you write it down and I'll wager a $5 note that the editor will compliment the report."

The Tribune reporter took his girl to the opera. He didn't enjoy himself very much, and after the curtain fell and the girl was home, he sought his reportorial friend, and found him in his den. They "wrote up" Mr. Greeley, and put over the article the most breezy headlines in their newspaper vernacular. The speech was printed on the first page of the Tribune.

The next morning Mr. Greeley came down town and tumbled into the editorial chair at 9 o'clock. He took up the Tribune, and the first thing that met his eyes was Horace Greeley's ringing speech at R—— last evening. He read the article to the end without a word.

He then threw the Tribune into the waste basket and pulled the bell for the manager.

"Who wrote that article?" said Mr. Greeley, when the man appeared.

"The new man," replied the manager.

"Send him up," roared Mr. Greeley.

The reporter who took his girl to the opera the night before came up. Mr. Greeley was as white as a sheet when the youth backed into the sanctum.

"Did you write that article?" thundered Mr. Greeley, referring to the half column of head lines under which was Mr. Greely's speech.

"Yes, sir," said the reporter. I followed you the best I could. You know you spoke uncommonly fast last night, and there was a noise, and I had to stand up."

"Spoke uncommonly fast, did I," thundered Mr. Greeley. "Young man, you lie! I was sick last night and didn't go within three miles of R——, and didn't make any speech."

Mr. Greeley grabbed the retreating form of the pencil pusher, and actually booted him down stairs and into the street.

The editor tried to recall the large edition of the Tribune, but it was too late. He sent men out all over the city with instructions to buy every morning Tribune in New York. Said he "Buy them at any cost!"

Mr. Greeley paid as high as fifty cents a copy for some of the papers, but the speech that he didn't make was the gossip of all New York for a week. The reporter never dared to show his face to Mr. Greeley after that night. He dropped the scribe's pen like a boiling hot potato, and went West. He made a splendid mechanic.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhœa, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of

Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay

on the radical cure of Spermatorahœa or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
