More fatal holiday accidents happen in the early hours of dusk and darkness than any other part of the day. Don't let an accident spoil your holiday.

CLUB NEWS
Traveller's Rest and Districts 4-H Club met at the home of Roy Walker on December 4. The meeting was called to order by president, Rena Wood, and the 4-H Club Pledge was repeated by all. Roll call was answered by fifteen members.

Literature on "The Scope of 4-H Club Work," was distributed and discussed; followed by a questionnaire being filled in. A discussion on a project was held but nothing definite was decided, so it was left for the next meeting. Collection amounted to 70 cents. Next meeting is to be held on January 15 at the home of Myra and Judy Schurman. A short recreation period was followed by a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Walker, secretary, Carl Montgomery.

The Souris River 4-H Club held their reorganization meeting and elected their officers as follows: president, Earl MacDonald; secretary-treasurer, Eugene MacDonald; club leader, Rev. Father John Cash.

An outline of the year's work was outlined by our club leader. Their meetings will be held on the 3rd Friday of every month.

The Winsloe and Brackley Point 4-H members and leaders met in the Winsloe hall on Thursday evening, December 17. After some discussion with the leaders,

Mr. S. C. Wright, introduced the guest speaker for the evening—Premier W. R. Shaw, Premier Shaw spoke of the development of 4-H Club work since it first was started on P.E.I. He expressed congratulations and appreciation to the Local Leaders for their work in this very worthwhile youth program.

Mrs. Aubrey Cutcliffe, Local Leader of the Fredericton 4-H Garment Club, on behalf of the Club Leaders, fittingly thanked Premier Shaw and the members of the government for their interest and support of 4-H Work.

4-H Leadership Certificates were awarded to fourteen Club Leaders by S.D. Peacock, Queens County Agricultural Representative, who is Prince Edward Island's Director on the Canadian Council of 4-H Clubs. Certificates were presented to: Sister Saint Cecilia, Notre Dame Academy; Mrs. James Doyle, Alberry Plains; Mrs. Norman MacMillan, Alberry Plains; Mrs. Charles Hyde, Meadowbank; Mrs. Tyrus Holmes, Kingston; Mrs. Waldon Lowther, Cornwall; Mrs. Charles Jones, Powna; Mr. Geo. MacMillan, Cornwall; Mr. Allan L. Clow, Freetown; Mr. Sterling

MacRae, Brookfield; Mr. Clem O'Connor, Cape Wolfe; Mr. Harold Palmer, Kinsington; Mr. G. Max Thompson, Victoria; Mr. Alvin H. Palmer, O'Leary.

Mr. Peacock also introduced the National 4-H Club Week Delegates.

S.S. Carson, Manager of the Charlottetown branch of T. Eaton Company Ltd., presented the T. Eaton Trophy to Gordon MacMillan and Eugene Donahue, Cornwall. This trophy is for annual competition and is awarded on a team basis to those members receiving the highest score in the Livestock Judging Competition, which is conducted at the Elimination Contest prior to National 4-H Club Week.

A coincidence was pointed out at this event—when Joseph Donahue and George MacMillan, two of 1932 National Club Week Delegates, whose sons Eugene Donahue and Gordon MacMillan represented P.E.I. at National Club Week in 1959, were introduced by S.C. Wright, Deputy Minister of Agriculture.

Gordon MacMillan, when reporting on his trip to National Club Week this year, stressed the development and expansion of 4-H Club work since 1932—comparing membership of that year to the present time. He also spoke of how, through club work, young people receive a broad education in citizenship.

Mrs. Ione Wood, Tryon (the former Ione Wright) spoke to the group on her experiences as Prince Edward Island's delegate to National 4-H Conference Washington, D.C.

During the evening, a sing-song was conducted by Frank Gaudet, Provincial Forester.
