

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

TO BE BURIED IN LOWELL, MASS.—The remains of the late Richard Hood, who died at the P. E. Island Hospital Friday as the result of an auto accident, will be forwarded from the MacLean Funeral Home this morning to Lowell, Mass. where the funeral will be held on Wednesday.

REVISITING ISLAND—On a brief visit to the Island at present are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murphy and daughter of Toronto. Mr. Murphy formerly resided in Charlottetown and enlisted here at the outbreak of the First World War, during which he served overseas along with a number of other Islanders in the No. 1 Field Ambulance. He holds the position of supervisor in the Postal Department at Toronto. His last visit here was eleven years ago.

ATTENDED BAPTIST CONGRESS—Miss MacRobinson and Miss Marguerite Brehaut have returned from a three weeks' tour of the eastern and southern sections of the United States, including attendance at the Baptist World Alliance congress which met in Cleveland July 22-26. The tour was sponsored by the Baptist World Alliance and was attended by 130 young men and women, all active workers in the church. Another Island representative on the tour, Mr. Kenneth Yeo, returned earlier by plane to Charlottetown on learning of the death of his father, Mr. H. W. Yeo.

The verdict that Richard Hood of Lowell, Massachusetts, came to his death at Charlottetown on Friday, August 11 from injuries received in a motor accident on the highway near DeSable on Tuesday, Aug. 8 was returned by a coroner's jury Saturday afternoon empaneled to inquire into circumstances surrounding the death of the deceased.

Coroner Dr. J. D. MacGuigan held the inquest with the crown being represented by Mr. John Nicholson. The jury members were: Messrs. W. H. Beaton, foreman, George Ryan, Leo Bradley, James Cobb, Chester Sibley, Harry Hardy and William Hughes.

A special mobile recruiting unit from Halifax arrived in the City Saturday night and will be interviewing potential recruits for the Active Army and Special Reserve Force. The unit will be stationed at the Charlottetown Armouries all this week.

The unit is headed by Capt. D. W. Shanks, R.C.A.S.C., assisted by Sgt. W. E. Sweeney, R.C.A.S.C. and Lt. Col. A. G. York. Capt. Shanks stated that following their week's stay in Charlottetown, the unit would visit other points in the Province. The unit is prepared to give full information to potential recruits and to facilitate enlistments. Those accepted will be given transportation to No. 1 Personnel Depot, Halifax.

CONTEST TIME EXTENDED—The time allowed for the Canadian Poetic Art Talent Contest, being conducted in connection with the new book "The Garden of Thoughts," the first section of which has recently been published by the Prince Edward Island poet and author, John Robert Lamont Campbell, is being extended for three months. The author will appreciate hearing from those good ladies to whom he has written in full confidence that their help will bring a reasonable measure of success in this venture, and takes this opportunity of extending his sincere thanks to those who have already so kindly offered their assistance.

"One of the best training camps we've ever attended," was the comment of Lt. Col. A. W. Rogers, E.D., last night following the return of his unit, the Prince Edward Island Regiment (17th Recce) from Petawawa. The troops, 120 all ranks, made the trip to and from the Ontario training centre by air. Four aircraft from the Maritime Central Airways transported the unit on the historic and record-making flight.

The Island unit was the largest to participate in the intensive seven day training. Major-General Chris Vokes, Camp Commandant, complimented the Recce on its fine showing and was pleased with the high standard of training the unit evinced. A very high percentage of the personnel were successful in passing trades tests. There was great activity at the camp and the first recruits of Canada's Special Force were undergoing their initial training. Twenty-two Recce officers in all, including Major J. A. MacDonald, Cardigan, second-in-command, attended the camp.

Yesterday Mr. Harry MacLean of Merrickville, Ontario, arrived in Charlottetown in his private seaplane to pay a call on Premier Jones. Mr. MacLean was on his way back to Ontario after attending the Scottish Mod in Cape Breton, and he still wore his kilts of the MacLean plaid. He spent several hours with the Premier at his home.

Premier Jones extended an invitation for Mr. MacLean to return this week and visit the Provincial Exhibition and Old Home Week fairs. Several years ago Mr. MacLean attended the races here which he thoroughly enjoyed and he hopes to be able to accept the Premier's invitation to be here again this week.

Mr. MacLean is the head of a very large construction firm and is known all across Canada for his keen interest in Canadian affairs and for his philanthropic work.

Approximately forty-five former members of the 8th Canadian Selge Battery are expected to participate in the reunion to be held tomorrow.

The celebration will take the form of an afternoon outing at Stanhope Lane, followed by a banquet at Sandy's restaurant in the early evening. Among those attending will be many former Islanders who now reside in other parts of Canada and in the United States. These will include Rev. J. S. Bonnell, New York; Rev. S. B. Proffitt, Beaverton, Ontario; Harry Boyce, Regina; Joseph Bell, Halifax; and Frank Ryan, Halifax.

Also attending from outside the Province will be Dr. D. C. MacDonald, North Battleford, Sask.; S. J. Robinson, Halifax; Stanley Sloane, Saint John; Allen Gregg, Saint John, and Bill Stewart, Boston.

TUESDAY

RECEIVED DEGREES—Among twenty-three students receiving degrees and certificates at the annual closing exercises of the Maritime Summer School at Mount Allison University on Saturday were Helen Barbara Ella Hicks of Mount Albion and Robert Wilson Ross, of Summerville, P. E. I.

NEWFOUNDLAND VOLUNTEERS—A Maritime Central Airways D 3 plane arrived at the local airport yesterday afternoon with 30 Newfoundland volunteers for the Special Brigade being mustered for Korea. The plane after refueling left the airport at 2 p.m. for Montreal. Two or more flights are expected to be made from Newfoundland this week with the volunteers for the Korean campaign.

ACCIDENT AT BOSCOWEN—Friends of Mrs. Peter Martin will be sorry to hear that she is in Concord Hospital, where she is suffering a fractured left arm, five fractured ribs and other injuries. These injuries were inflicted Wednesday evening, (Aug. 9) in Boscowen when she was struck by a car driven by John A. Kelly of Massachusetts. Mrs. Martin, who is now living in Penacook, is a former resident of Hunter's River.

WELCOME EXTENDED TO NEW RESIDENTS—The charming home of Mr. H. B. MacLeod, was pleasantly invaded by friends and neighbors of Irishtown and vicinity on Tuesday evening, August 8th. Mr. MacLeod has bought and renovated the house formerly occupied by the Herdon Mann family, and host and home were treated to a real welcome and "house-warming," when the former was the recipient of a combined reading and end table, a smoking stand and other small gifts.

FIRST VISIT IN THIRTY YEARS—Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Merrill and daughter, Carlene, of Dixfield, Maine, accompanied by Mrs. Hilda Hunter of Holliston, Mass. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Doucet of Hunter River. Mrs. Merrill is the former Ramona Butte. This is Mrs. Merrill's first visit to Prince Edward in thirty years. Mr. Merrill is a prominent Automobile Dealer in Maine and was greatly impressed by the beauty of the Island. While staying here they visited the beautiful beaches and other prominent and historic spots. On their return home they plan to tour Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Ray Durant, swimming instructor at the Y's Men's swimming location on the Marine Wharf, Summerside jumped in tully clothed yesterday afternoon and rescued a young lad who had got into difficulty. The boy, Ronnie Burns, had just passed his early swimming tests at the shore and this was his first experience in deep water. At the time Mr. Durant was dressed to go home when some one called. He took off his coat but jumped in with the rest of his clothing on including his shoes.—S

Donald MacArthur and Clive MacDonald, two Summerside youths, with considerable difficulty carried to safety at Cavendish beach on Sunday afternoon a man who had apparently taken a "shak" turn.

The boys were swimming in about four and a half feet of water when Donald MacArthur heard a gasp and turning around saw a man, who he later learned was Mr. Thomas Chappell of Sherbrooke, in difficulty. When he approached him Mr. Chappell asked to be helped ashore and then passed out and started to sink. Donald MacArthur called to Clive MacDonald and they succeeded in getting him ashore although it was quite a distance and he is a fairly heavy man. A life guard performed the necessary treatment and after a short period he regained consciousness.

Yesterday he had recovered from his experience but the 'two boys undoubtedly saved his life.—S

Junior, intermediate and senior swimming tests were held at the Marine Wharf in Summerside on Monday, August 14th at 11:00 a.m. Mr. Ralph Emery, Red Cross swimming and water safety instructor was the examiner.

The juniors deserve great credit for their showing as most of them just completed their elementary tests taken at Corney's Shore. For most of the juniors swimming at the Marine Wharf was quite an adventure and they all did very well indeed.

The intermediate and seniors made a fine showing of the swimming strokes and water skills. Senior swimmers wishing to take their bronze medallion course will attend the life saving classes daily at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Ray Durant and Miss June Ramsay were the instructors during the tests.

Plans were finalized here, at a meeting last night, for the annual re-union of the North Nova Scotia Highlanders to be held in Charlottetown, Saturday, August 19th. This will be the fourth annual re-union. Previous gatherings were held in Amherst, Truro, and New Glasgow, N. S.

The meeting was presided over by Lt. Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., E.D., general committee chairman. The re-union program Saturday will include a Drumhead Memorial Service at 11 a. m. at Memorial Field, Victoria Park at which the massed Pipe Bands of the North Novas and the Pictou Highlanders and the Band of the Prince Edward Island (17th Recce) will take part.

This service will be conducted by H. Major James E. Miller, Command Chaplain (P), Eastern Command, assisted by Capt. W. J. McCabe, Capt. H. E. Ashford, and Chaplain J. T. Abbott R.C.N. (S).

A decision to appoint a committee to investigate a pension plan for the permanent employees of the Town was taken at the regular monthly meeting of the Town Council last evening. His Worship Mayor Henry Wedge presided and all the members of the Council except Councillor G. B. Sheen were present.

The committee will consist of two councillors, one member of the Water and Sewage Commission, three representatives of the employees (to be appointed by the employees), and the town auditor, Mr. T. E. Hickey, C. A. Mayor Wedge appointed Councillors J. L. Gorrill and G. B. Sheen to represent the Council.

Mayor Wedge said he felt that this is a democratic way to deal with the matter. There has been a demand for such a pension plan for some time.

WEDNESDAY

Chartered accountants from all parts of the Dominion will gather in Charlottetown on Monday, August 21, for their 46th annual meeting. This year, for the first time, representatives from Newfoundland will join their professional brothers from the other nine Provinces.

— BACK AFTER 38 YEARS — Mr. Frank Gaudet of Boston, Mass., is visiting his aunts, Mrs. J. C. Hickey and her sisters in Summerside and relatives in Miscouche. Mr. Gaudet has not been in the Province since he left as a youth 38 years ago. He is a native of Miscouche and plans to remain here about two weeks.—S

GUERNSEY CLASS LEADER—Topping the list of Guernsey class leaders in Eastern Canada for the month of July, 365 day division, was "Sunshine's Lavina", owned by Mr. Wilbur Younger, Clyde River, with a record of 10,838 lbs. milk, 535 lbs. butterfat.

ON BRIEF VISIT—Rev. F. J. Lynch, S. J., flew to Charlottetown on Sunday evening to visit his mother, Mrs. Helen Jane Morris and his brother, F. J. H. Lynch and Mrs. Lynch, all family. Father Lynch left by plane for Halifax on Monday noon to assume his new duties as rector of St. Mary's College.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION—Mr. A. Walthen Gaudet, Governor of District No. 7 (comprising the four Atlantic Provinces) of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs of Canada left this morning to attend the Kinsmen National Convention to be held in Winnipeg on August 24th, 25th and 26th. Mr. Gaudet was accompanied by Mrs. Gaudet and young sons Michael and John Pat. En route they will visit with Mrs. Gaudet's mother, Mrs. J. C. Knowles of London, Ontario.

Prominently featured in The Standard this week is a front page picture of Mr. J. Lynch, a student at the Banff School of Fine Arts receiving instruction from Instructor Jack Taylor, assistant professor of Fine Arts at the University of Alberta. Mr. Taylor, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald G. Taylor, Charlottetown, is widely known as an artist. His work has been shown here on several occasions at Art Society exhibitions.

Mr. Frank Coyle of Charlottetown has been appointed postal inspector to replace Mr. Leith McLeod who has been retired. Mr. McLeod has been in the Postal Department for approximately 32 years and has retired because of ill health. He served on the railway mail staff and the Post Office Inspector's staff before being appointed postal inspector.

The final camp of the year finished last Saturday afternoon when some forty-eight boys broke camp at Holland Cove.

Swimming Instructor, Jack McAndrew reported that six of nine non-swimmers had learned to swim. Ten boys passed the 1st stage of Y. M. C. A. swimming tests, nine passed the 2nd, ten passed the 3rd and C. I. T. Roger Clark passed all five stages.

Thirty-seven members of the 8th Canadian Siege Battery gathered yesterday afternoon in a reunion which brought some of them together for the first time in 31 years.

From across Canada and from the United States they came together in Charlottetown to meet old friends and talk over old times. Meeting in the afternoon at the Armouries, they thoroughly enjoyed an outing at Stanhope Lane on the North Shore, followed by an excellent banquet at Sandy's Restaurant at Dunstaffnage.

Samuel A. Williams, 67, a former resident of Prince Edward Island, died in hospital in Nashua, N.H., on Aug. 13th.

Mr. Williams began work with the Johns-Manville Company in Nashua in 1903 as a laborer at 15 cents an hour. After a steady rise he assumed the presidency of the Canadian Johns-Manville Company, manufacturers of insulating material, in 1939. When he retired in 1946 he had risen from the ranks to become president of Johns-Manville Products Corp., and to direct the operation of 17 plants and mines in the United States and Canada.

He is survived by his widow, the former Janet Cutter of Nashua.

A commercial traveller, Mr. C. Leard Jay of Charlottetown, died in the King's County Memorial Hospital at Montague late last night from injuries received earlier in the day in an accident on the Charlottetown-Montague highway near Summerside, left the paved highway near the Summerside school and overturned several times. The car is said to have travelled several hundred feet in the ditch before overturning.

The accident occurred about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Jay died sometime after 11 p. m.

Believed to be between 46 and 50 years of age, Mr. Jay travelled for Mr. W. Turner, footwear wholesaler.

Following the accident, Dr. G. S. Inman of Montague was called. The injured man was found to be suffering from severe injuries to head and chest. He did not regain consciousness.

Mr. Jay was a son of Mrs. Samuel Jay and the late Mr. Jay of Mt. Stewart. Surviving in addition to his mother are his widow, the former Rita Wood of Southport, and two young sons.

An inquest has been ordered and will be held at Montague this morning. Dr. Inman is the coroner.

THURSDAY

Possibly the most extensive program of street work ever undertaken is now well underway in Summerside. It includes permanent paving, preparation for paving, opening of new streets and the lay of cement sidewalks.

The Prince Edward Island Short-horn Breeders Association held the first banquet in the Association's history at Sandy's Restaurant, Marshfield last night following the judging of the Shorthorns here yesterday.

—SUDDEN PASSING—A large circle of friends of Mr. Leigh Manderson, formerly of Lot 16, will regret to learn of his sudden passing at Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, on August 15th at the age of 22 years. Particulars of the cause of death have not been received by relatives here. He remains expected to arrive home on Thursday evening.—S

SAD NEWS RECEIVED—Mrs T. N. McMillan has received the sad news of the death of her brother Lauchlin McPherson who passed away on August 8th at McMullan, Oregon. Besides Mrs. McMillan, survivors are Rev. K. C. McPherson, Tracadie, P. E. I., Joseph of Great Falls, Montana and Roderick of Lyndale, California.

The annual convention of the Churches of Christ of Prince Edward Island will be held this year in Fredericton for three days, August 18, 19 and 20. The convention theme will be "Contending for the Faith" and an interesting program of devotional periods, church services and addresses has been prepared.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Albert E. Ings of Mt. Herbert was held yesterday afternoon from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home. Services at the seventh and grave was conducted by the Rev. A. S. Weir. The pallbearers were, Albert Drake, Sam Drake, Robert Drake, William Ings, Ernest Ings, Walter Ings. Interment was in Pownal Cemetery.

The first group of applicants from this Province for Canada's Active Service Force and Special Force leave this morning by train for Halifax.

Over 500 applicants to date have been entered by the special mobile recruiting unit which arrived here Saturday night under Capt. D. W. Shanks, R.C.A.S.C. The majority of the volunteers are veterans of World War Two and are representative of all three Counties.

Yesterday morning in the Post Office Building, Charlottetown, a number of postmasters representing the postmasters of the Province met with Mr. Leith MacLeod whose ill health forced his retirement as Postal Inspector, and presented him with an address and purse in recognition of the high esteem in which he was held by the Island postmasters.

The address was read by Mr. J. B. Jay, Morell, and the gift presented by Mr. J. J. McInnis, Borden. Among those present were Mr. J. B. Connolly, Charlottetown, Mr. Ralph MacCarville, Kinkora, and Mr. J. B. MacLeod, Hunter River.

FRIDAY

CRITICALLY ILL—His many friends here will regret to learn of the critical illness of Mr. F. Gordon Larter in the Boston City Hospital. Mr. Larter is a former resident of Charlottetown. His brother, George Larter, City, received the news of his illness yesterday.

Over 175 applicants for the Active Service and Special Forces in the Canadian Army have been entered by the mobile recruiting unit in Charlottetown this week. Yesterday the first group of thirty-six Island applicants left by train for Halifax. The following will entrain for Halifax today:

Raymond Hache, 18, Richmond, who has been a patient in the Prince County Hospital suffering from concussion as a result of being struck on the head by a chain, was yesterday flown to Halifax and was taken to the Victoria General Hospital there for treatment. His head injury was sustained on August 10th and since then his condition has not improved.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Leard Jay was held from the MacLean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon where services were conducted by Rev. Dr. H. C. Rice. The pallbearers were Lea Toombs, Don Smith, Jack MacEachern, Howard McInnis, James Montgomery, Fulton Pierce.

The Post Office Department announces that in the event of a railway strike in Canada there will be a drastic curtailment of mail services.

This emergency will make it necessary to place an embargo on parcel post, newspapers and other printed matter. These classes of mail may not be accepted several days prior to the effective date of the strike when delivery to the public cannot be assured by August 22nd.

Under the restrictions to be observed, mail service to out of town points will be limited to the following: 1. Letters in their ordinary form; 2. Mail prepaid at air mail rates; 3. Medicines, including analyses, specimens and other similar items prepaid at normal rates.

There will be no restriction on local mails for the time being. The Department emphasizes, however, that the restrictions mentioned are the minimum to be expected in the event of a railway strike taking place, and that further reductions in service may have to be imposed as transportation difficulties develop.

THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW

By Fago'y & Shortez

A commercial traveller, Mr. C. Leard Jay of Charlottetown, died in the King's County Memorial Hospital at Montague late last night from injuries received earlier in the day in an accident on the Charlottetown-Montague highway near Summerside, left the paved highway near the Summerside school and overturned several times. The car is said to have travelled several hundred feet in the ditch before overturning.

The accident occurred about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Jay died sometime after 11 p. m.

Believed to be between 46 and 50 years of age, Mr. Jay travelled for Mr. W. Turner, footwear wholesaler.

Following the accident, Dr. G. S. Inman of Montague was called. The injured man was found to be suffering from severe injuries to head and chest. He did not regain consciousness.

Mr. Jay was a son of Mrs. Samuel Jay and the late Mr. Jay of Mt. Stewart. Surviving in addition to his mother are his widow, the former Rita Wood of Southport, and two young sons.

An inquest has been ordered and will be held at Montague this morning. Dr. Inman is the coroner.
