

THANKSGIVING HYMN.

We thank Thee, Lord,
For all the garnered riches we have stored,
The ripened fruits that generous autumn
yields
From sunny fields.
In many hues
Sustained from earth's bosom fed by dews,
And ripened by the sunlight, waves the grain
O'er hill and plain;
And patient toil
Which sowed the seed upon the fertile soil,
And watched and tended through the summer days,
Thy name doth praise.
Could we complain,
If frost had blighted, or bad wind and rain
Left devastation on their stormy track,
And fields were black?
Nay, these are still
The messengers Thou sendest to fulfil
A purpose which we may not clearly see,
Yet trust in Thee.
Thy gifts sustain
The body's need, but poverty and pain
Oft minister to higher wants than these
The spirit sees.
Then come what will,
Prosperity or failure, good or ill,
Unknown or understood, still be adored
Thy ways, O Lord!

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

A large audience assembled in Beethoven Hall a few evenings ago to hear the rendering of the following programme by the faculty of the conservatory.
Sonata, G Maj. (Finale) for Piano and Violin.....Rubinstein
Mr. Almon W. Vincent and Mr. Clarence Le Vaux Royer.
Polonaise from "Mignon".....Thomas
Miss Edna Van Vleet Higley.
(a) Legende.....Wieniawski
(b) Mazurka.....Wieniawski
Mr. Clarence Le Vaux Royer
(a) Florian's Song.....Lodard
(b) The Sweetest Flower.....Van der Stucken
(c) To Spring.....Gounod
Mrs. Marie Agnes Vincent.
(a) Fantasie.....Gade
(b) Allegro eroico (from 14th Rhapsodie) Liszt
Mon coeur S'ouvre a ta voix (Sampson and Delilah).....Saint Saens
Miss Maud E. Golder.
(a) Adagio.....Ries
(b) Introduction and Gavotte.....Ries
Mr. Clarence De Vaux Royer.
Offertory.....Batiste
Mr. Almon W. Vincent.
Three new artists made their initial bow to a Sackville audience on this occasion—Mrs. Vincent and Miss Ligley, vocalist, and Mr. Royer, violinist. Mrs. Vincent was well received, and in her happy selection of songs fulfilled the expectations with which her hearers had looked forward to her appearance.
Miss Higley is possessed of a very high and sweet soprano voice which found ample execution in the difficult Polonaise which she rendered. The conservatory is indeed very fortunate to have an artist such as Mr. Royer on its staff. Mr. Royer is the happy possessor of a very valuable violin, and when a master hand like his wields the bow of such an instrument, the effect is beautiful. The audience of Friday evening listened with breathless attention to the different selections of Mr. Royer—now sad, now gay; now loud and full like a whole orchestra, faint and plaintive like the singing of a bird;—and showed its appreciation by frequent and hearty applause.
It was not the first time that Miss Golder had appeared on the platform of Beethoven Hall, but never before had her voice sounded so gloriously rich, and full and clear as it did in her Aria from Sampson and Delilah. The soul of music which seemed to breathe from her lips, and her simple grace and ease of manner carried the audience right along with her, and again and again she had to appear before the curtain.
Mr. Vincent upheld his high reputation as a pianist, but it was in his organ Offertory that he excelled himself, and plainly showed his fine technique on, and his love for the King of instruments. Last, but not least, reference must be made to the graceful and sustaining accompaniments of Miss Williams, which added not a little to the pleasure of a most enjoyable and elevating musical evening.
The attendance at the Mt. Allison Conservatory is larger this year than ever before, which is not to be wondered at when one considers the excellence of the staff, and the many advantages it possesses for the study of music in its different branches, which are offered by very few other Conservatories on this side of the water.

Premier Farquharson could not deny that under his administration the debt of this Province has reached the enormous sum of $600,000.

The contract price is not given, but it is thought the lowest tender has been accepted.

No cheese can be bought for less than 12c, and the chances are that when late makes get fully on the market these better qualities will bring still higher prices. Creamery butter in prints and new in tubs is worth 23c, August makes ruling at 20c.
THE KINDERGARTEN.—The children of the Kindergarten gave a practical exhibition of thankfulness that should not be lost on their elders. Accompanied by the teachers the little ones drove to the Hospital, Poor House and Asylum and at each place left a basket containing choice edibles and fruit. Hard to tell which were most delighted, donors or recipients. Bravo Kindergarten!

THE TRUE Bermuda Easter Lily

One of the grandest winter-flowering plants in cultivation.

Pure pearly white, deliciously fragrant and a remarkable profusion of bloom characterize this charming and celebrated Easter Lily. Its popularity and sales have increased wonderfully and deservedly, for without exception, it is one of the most valuable bulbs for winter flowering had the house. A profusion of bloom may be had from Christmas until spring, if a diffuser are planted and "brought in" at the proper times. Bulbs after flowering can be repotted and rested a couple of months in a withholding water, and will then produce another crop of flowers frequently all the first. It is a magnificent lily for church decoration at Easter and tens of thousands are grown for this purpose. The flowers are pure white, 4 to 5 inches long (and frequently more) and of the most delicious fragrance.

A supply of the above just received.
