THE DAILY EXAMINER

NOVEMBER 13, 1899.

A NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY.

FIFTY years ago, on Monday the 12th of November, 1849, the brig Fanny sailed from Charlottetown for California. Of all the enterprising young men who took passage in that vessel but three remain, viz, Messrs. Edward Moore, Edward Love and J. H. Gates. These have lived, not to make fortunes in California, but to see a good many changes since the fine November day upon which they set sail for the Californian gold fields via the Horn-Steinners were scarce at that time, there were no trans-continental railways, no trans-continental telegraph service, and people couldn't in those days converse across vast tracts of country over a wire hundreds of miles long, nor did the electric light illuminate their homes. The survivors of the Fanny have lived in a growing time.

FRENCH-CANADIAN LIBERALS.

The opinions of French-Canadian Liberals are important because they hold the balance of power between the parties. Under present conditions Quebec is master of the political situation in Canada. Mr. Tarte has proved himself to be an expert in the interpretation of French-Canadian feeling and no man knows better than he how to work upon their prejudice. In the course of a speech recently delivered at Montreal Mr. Tarte said:

"I return from France, where I received the care that French science can give and I return to Canada more French than ever. I am a Minister in a British Government and I have the right to say that I am French. But I tell you this, it to declare myself a British subject would prevent me being French, then I would refuse to call myself a British subject. We make no threats, as the ballot box is our best defence. We are happy and free under British institutions, but France is always my dear country."

Mr. Tarte speaks for political effect in the Province of Quebec. At St. Vincent de Paul he said:

"I say to you here today, if it is a crime to have a Frenchman at the head of your country, you will say so at the next election."

No one need be in doubt as to what Mr. Tarte is doing. He is directing the attention of his compatriots to the fact that Sir Charles Tupper is an English-speaking Canadian, and is asking them in a roundabout way to declare that an English-speaking Canadian has no right to be Premier. That Mr. Tarte has some following is evidenced by the remarks of Le Soleil and other Liberal organs. The question is does he represent the majority in Quebec? If he does, all those whose "dear country is Canada," those who call Great Britain their Motherland and believe that it is good to be in unison with the British Empire, have before them the duty of out-voting the Liberals of Quebec at the first opportunity.

Perhaps Sir Louis Davies will be able to give the people of Belfast and Murray Harbor some information about the Quebec Liberals and Mr. Tarte's French cry. He overlooked the matter when speaking at New London on Friday.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—It is announced by the Toronto Globe that in respect of the Yukon frauds Mr. Sifton has been "splendidly vindicated." If an accused person who escapes and avoids a trial is vindicated, then Mr. Sifton, who was afraid to stand investigation, is vindicated.

—Perhaps Sir Louis Davies will tell the people of Belfast and Murray Harbor how P. E. Island would have prospered without the cheese and butter factories promoted by the Conservatives, seeing that oats sell at 27c per bushel, potatoes at 15c, and pork at an average of 5c per lb.

—In appointing Major-General Sir C. H. H. Smith as Commander of the Australian troops for the Transvaal, the Colonial authorities have chosen a man eminently fitted for the post. Sir Charles, who is Military Commandant at Melbourne, has had large experience in fighting against the Boers, for he was present at the battles of Laing's Nek, Ingogo, and Majuba. Subsequently he served through the Soudan campaign, and was afterwards appointed Governor-General of the Red Sea littoral and Commandant at Suakin.

—The Guardian is agitating for a night service at the telegraph office, in order that it may have some news to give its readers at first hand. So far as the war in South Africa is concerned a night service would only furnish "delayed telegrams" in advance of the evening papers. Of a number of opinions obtained by the Guardian, the following is to the point:

Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Nov. 11, '99.

"If the Anglo American have not sufficient subsidy to give a reduced rate, the Canadian Government should give the company sufficient subsidy to place the rates on a proper basis and put the province in the same position as other provinces.

"PEAKE BROS. & Co."

What we really need is a reduced rate and that is what the government ought to give us.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.—The services in the First Methodist and Grace Churches yesterday, conducted by Rev. Dr. Carman, were largely attended. In the evening Dr. Carman in the First Church delivered an earnest appeal on behalf of the Twentieth Century Thanksgiving Fund, and asked his hearers to cordially contribute toward the accomplishment of the great movement in all its branches. In the morning he spoke in Grace Church of the Fund, and referred to the debt of the church in an encouraging manner.

Mr. Placide Gaudet left this morning for Egmont Bay, where he is to participate in an interesting ceremony on Tuesday.

No More War

Swords will be beaten into plough shares later on; but farmers do not need to wait till the "Peace Conference" is over, before buying their plough shares, as they can do so at once, by calling at the Masonic Temple Store, where the share, or other plough extras can be had for less money, and better than any imported. Prove this at once, by trying them.
