BIRTHDAY PARTY.—On July 3rd little Miss Paula Faruhamson entertained a number of her little friends at an enjoyable party on the occasion of her 2nd birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Higgins.

RETURNS FROM P. E. I.—Miss Joan Cochrane, who was in P. E. I. with her mother, Mrs. E. S. Townsend, was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Black. Both have returned home after a very pleasant stay with friends—Sydney Post Record.

WEDDING FAIR.—Mrs. Samuel A. MacPherson (nee Florrie Darrach) native of New Jersey, P. E. I., recently visited relatives in the Province in a Francisco, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Bain, who went back to their home in Boston by way of Vancouver, Banff and Winnipeg.

BRILLIANT ORATOR.—J. M. MacPherson is the capable representative of the Western States for Heller Bros. of New Jersey. He is a native of Hawthorne, N. J., Prince Edward Island. He will be remembered by the old timers as the "boy orator". He is a convincing speaker, always fair. Lack of missionaries in P. E. I. in the closing years of the last century led to the Presbyterian Church a very eloquent speaker says the Oakland Maple Leaf.

COM. L. L. MACINTYRE DEAD.—In the Boston Post of June 28th appeared the notice of the death of L. L. MacIntyre of New York, but had not been received. At present it would appear as if Mr. MacIntyre mentioned, was Commodore L. L. MacIntyre a native of Charlottetown and was formerly in the Patriot but who has been for many years a resident of the United States, being a member of the U. S. V. Life Saving Corps in which he rose to the rank of Chief Mate and was awarded the Prince Edward Island last fall.

ON RETURN TRIP.—S. A. Bubar (formerly residing in Charlottetown) who was home from Kawagama, Que., on a visit, left on Wednesday morning on the return trip by motor, accompanied by his wife and four children. Mr. Bubar is electrician with the O'Brien Gold Mine and last winter was coaching the hockey team there. Mr. Bubar will decide to remain and make his home there.—New Glasgow Evening News.

M. each night or as soon as the congregational assembly. Mrs. Hector Travis, soloist. Sunday July 9th the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at 11 A. M. Dr. Murray will also preach in Hartsville at 3 P. M. The Mission will conclude Sunday night at 7 P. M. A cordial welcome extended to all to enjoy these services. Come and bring a friend. L-476-7-4-11.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.—At 9 A. M. July 1st, with only immediate relatives present, the marriage took place very quietly at her mother's home, of Miss Evelyn Patterson, daughter of Mrs. Simmons, Spring Park Road, to Robert Donald, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Matheson, Clyde River. The Rev. H. Denton officiating. The wedding music was played by Miss Florence Simmons. The bride who was attended by her brother, Mr. L. H. Simmons. She wore a gown of ivory satin with finger tip veil and carried a sheaf of Briarcliff roses. The living-room, where the ceremony took place, was beautifully decorated with late spring flowers. Following a dainty wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Donald left on a motor trip to the White Mountains and other points of interest in the New England States.

RETURN TO ALASKA.—Leaving Tuesday, June 20, for Seattle, are Mrs. A. D. Swogger, her son, Alfred, and daughter Flora. From Seattle they will continue their journey by steamer to Ketchikan and on to Metakata, Alaska, where the husband and father, the Reverend Alfred D. Swogger, is pastor of the Presbyterian church at that place. They had been living at the home of Mrs. Swogger's father, Capt. Neil Murchison in San Rafael, California, since May first, during which time Flora and Alfred attended school, the latter graduating from San Rafael High School this year. Miss Flora, after completing her studies in the San Rafael High School, attended the State Teachers' College in San Francisco, graduating this year with honors. Another son, Malcolm Murchison Swogger, is a student at Wentworth College, Spokane, Washington. Mrs. Swogger, like her parents, was born at that charming spot on Prince Edward Island, famous for its hardy sons of the sea, known to mariners the world over as Point Prim. Since leaving home for the States she visited her old home many times. After her marriage she spent ten years in India where her husband was a missionary, and where her children were born. She is a most worthy daughter of her native Isle, the "Garden of the Gulf" says the Oakland Maple Leaf.
