South Rustico Man Is Jailed On Obstructing Justice Count

A South Rustico man Earl Joseph Gallant was sentenced to 30 days in jail yesterday by Magistrate James B. Johnston QC. for unlawfully obstructing justice.

Magistrate Johnston said: "I take a serious view of this type of case; there is too much of it going on. Mr. Gallant made a statement in court which conflicted with the statement he had already given to the RCMP. Officer Alvin Gallant, South-Rustico, was remanded by consent to Nov. 25 on a charge of impaired driving.

The charge against Carl Joseph Perry, Bristol, was withdrawn.

One man was fined $20 or 15 days in Queen's County Jail for being unlawfully intoxicated in a public place.

Blair Delino MacDonald, Nine Mile Creek, and Richard Wayne MacPhee of New Haven, were remanded to Nov. 13 to face a date for trial on a charge of unlawfully obstructing a peace officer in the execution of his duty.

Shopping Trip Has Fatal Ending

BURLINGTON, Ont. (CP)—A 49-year-old housewife on a shopping trip was fatally injured here Tuesday in a four-vehicle highway crash involving a fire truck.

Police said the fire truck, answering a call to where later proved to be a minor blaze, shot through a red light and hit the car driven by Mrs. Bruce Adams of Burlington, Burlington 1 into two other cars.

Three firemen were tossed of the pumper truck by the impact and suffered minor injuries.

Arthur Caldwell, the attorney-general's department said. Fire trucks are permitted to exceed speed limits but not to go through red lights.

Wheat Crop Is Record, Figures Show

OTTAWA (CP)—The biggest Prairie wheat crop in Canadian history—700,000 bushels—was estimated Wednesday by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics on the basis of yields indicated on Oct. 15, when the bulk of the harvest had been completed.

MELBOURNE (Reuters)—A strongly contested Australian national election was shaping up Wednesday night as the Labor party began its campaign to defeat the government of Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies.

A spokesman for the attorney-general's department said. Fire trucks are permitted to exceed speed limits but not to go through red lights.

of nuclear powers, the countries of the southern hemisphere and Australia's neighbors in Asia, including Red China, to discuss the possibility of declaring the southern hemisphere a nuclear-free zone, he said.

Caldwell also said Labor would strive to redistribute taxation to ease the load on low and middle-income earners, expand trade, develop Australia's north and establish a ministry of education and science.

an all-time record, and 51 per cent above the Canadian average for the last 10 years.

The all-Canada oats crop at 453,000,000 bushels is down about eight per cent from last year, but still well above the 10-year average. About 200,000 bushels are on the Prairies. Harley took a sharp 35-per-cent jump to 230,000 bushels. Prairie production went up from 215,000,000 bushels from 196-00,000 last year.

Combined production of fall and spring rye is estimated at 12,648,000 bushels, a seven-per-cent increase from last year. The Prairies produced 11,900,000 bushels, up from 10,400,000 last year.

One of the most significant rises in over-all crop production was in Saskatchewan where an output index, based on 1949 conditions equalling 100, shot up to 350.3 compared with last year's 317.7. A drought-related index of 74.2 two years ago.
