Vacation School At Georgetown Is Completed

"Vacation school of St. David's United Church, Georgetown, was completed Thursday, July 15. Approximately thirty young children attended the ten-day school, under the direction of Rev. W. A. Paterson, assisted by Miss Janie Llewellyn, Mrs. Helen Larsen and Mrs. Allister Stewart. Two groups, primary and junior attended the school.

The theme was "The Church". Activities were study and handicraft, and on completion of the school, the exhibits were publicly displayed. Classes were held each day from 9 to 12. To close the vacation school an enjoyable picnic was held Thursday in the church hall where the children played games and were served refreshments.

McLaren-Gordon Clans Hold Enjoyable Outing Yesterday At Brudenell Island

"A goodly number of descendants of the McLaren-Gordon clans enjoyed an outing at Brudenell Island yesterday afternoon, for the annual meeting of the pioneers committee. This is an annual event held as near as possible to the date of the landing of the early settlers. The meeting was presided over by Doug McLaren, president of the committee. The minutes of the previous meetings were read by the secretary, A. beautiful floral tribute was placed at the base of the monument by Mrs. William Dewar. A general discussion took place regarding beautification and preservation of this already beautiful spot. The meeting was then opened for the appointment of officers for the ensuing year: President, Henry McLaren; secretary, Mrs. Howard Vickerson, re-elected. After the meeting closed, the groups moved to Douglas Gordon's lawn nearby, and enjoyed a beautiful picnic lunch. Among those present were Rev. George and Mrs. Henry of Indiana, U.S.A. Mr. Henry was at one time minister of the Church of Christ at Montague, and they met many former friends and acquaintances who were delighted to welcome them back to P.E.I.
