Two Big Programs Set For Weekend

Two harness racing programs go at Charlottetown Driving Park over the holiday weekend. Tonight an eight-dash card is slated and Monday evening a similar show is on tap for racing patrons.

Feature attraction tonight will be races four and eight where that good pacer, Donnaway, goes away on the rail. Donnaway will be hard to beat with such a choice spot but the opposition will try their mightiest. Each opposition will be supplied by Princess Spangler, Jolly Rock, Little Doctor, Slippy Queen and Lizzie Clegg.

Races three and seven tonight should be equally as exciting as the feature class. Here seven will be getting the word with Allen leading the parade. Other hopefuls in these dashes are Norine Clegg, Scottish Light, Sunny King, Mary Leah, My Haven and Helen's Dream.

Monday evening six outstanding pacers will frigh it out in races four and eight. Sid Stead takes Duration out of there in the number one spot. Duration is always a great contender and Monday should be no exception. Battling with Duration for supremacy will be Mr. Rock, Amos Frost, Ginger E, Elmer C and Simcoe's Magic. Both these dashes should be as exciting as anything seen here all season.

All in all, the two programs give promise of great harness racing entertainment and good crowds are expected to watch both cards.

Action starts both Saturday and Monday at 8 p.m.

Doubleheader Goes Sunday

There will be a playoff doubleheader in Souris on Sunday afternoon. At 1 o'clock the Souris Marauders the defending Island Baseball champs will play host to Montague Legion in the first game of the Island Bantam 'B' finals. At 3 o'clock, the third game in the Souris Pee Wee league finals will be played with Larter's Centertowners meeting MacLean's Uptowners. This series is now tied at one game each, so both teams will be going all out for a victory.

Centertowners Tie Up Series

Larter's Centertowners defeated MacLean's Uptowners 7-4 last night to square their Souris Town League finals at one game apiece.

The game was called in the sixth inning with the Uptowners leading 8-7 and the score was reverted back to the end of the fifth.

Dave Jennings and Wayne MacDonald pitched for the Centertowners with Jennings getting the victory. Between them they allowed 2 hits, walked 8 and struck out 6.

Maynard Paquet went all the way for the losers tossing a 7 hitter while walking 3 and fanning 7.

Eugene MacDonald and Earl MacLean were the top batters for the winners with 2-3 performances.

Paquet picked up both hits for the Uptowners and had the longest bit of the game, a double in the fourth inning.

Final Game Slated Today

The final game of the minor league playdowns is scheduled to be played this morning at the old diamond. Starting time is 9 o'clock. The Twins and the Colts meet.

At the same time officials request that players in Little, Minor, Bantam and Midget Leagues return their uniforms at 9 o'clock.

Maritime Cars Invade Island

An invasion of Charlottetown and the Island proper is expected to take place this weekend as sports car drivers from across the Atlantic Provinces head this way for a holiday campout.

The local sports car organization, the P.E.I. Motor Sport Club will be host to the brigade, the exact number of which will not be known until late today or tomorrow.

The idea began with the Moncton Motorsport Council who planned to bring 15 tents to the Island as their members held their annual camp-out. The Atlantic Sports Car Club of Halifax and the Saint John Sporting Car Club then showed their willingness to send over some members. The local club was expected to provide a few tents as well.

A rally is tentatively scheduled for Sunday and any interested persons are asked to contact 4-6182 for information.

Marriott Feeling At Home; Faces Big Test On Monday

MONTREAL (CP) — Frank (Bubba) Marriott, the 24-year-old Alabama school teacher who has to justify the suspension of high - salaried quarterback Sandy Stephens, says he's starting to feel at home with Montreal Alouettes.

Marriott, a bench-warmer for two years with New York Giants of the National Football League, has his first test as the Als' No. 1 quarterback Monday, when Als meet Ottawa Rough Riders here.

"I feel as if I belong," said Marriott after a workout with the Als. "I know the fellows' moves better.

"Let's just hope we can roll from here."

Marriott guided the Als to a 15-8 win over Toronto Argonauts a week ago. But at that point he was replacing regular pivot Sandy Stephens, benched by coach Jim Trimble for apathetic performances in the club's first two games, one-sided losses to Hamilton and the Rough Riders.

With Tuesday's surprise suspension of Stephens, a near-unanimous all - American two years ago with the University of Minnesota, Marriott inherited the first-string quarterback job.

GLAD OF CHANCE

"I'm thankful for the chance," said Marriott. Beyond that the soft spoken, drawling 190-pounder didn't want to discuss Stephens' dismissal.

Monday's game is important to both teams. Both Als and Rough Riders have won once and lost twice this season. First-place Hamilton, with a 2-2 record, and last-place Toronto Argonauts, who are 1-3, play Monday in Hamilton.

Trimble said the passing of quarterback Russ Jackson was the decisive factor in the Rough Riders' 31-14 trouncing of the Als Aug. 15. But he hoped Marriott can out-throw Jackson.

Marriott is known chiefly as a drop-back passer. He said picking up a new team's pass patterns is the hardest part of a new quarterback's job, but by running through plays and talking over players' preformances he's gaining confidence.

"You have to find these things out and then you kind of set plays in your head that you'll use in certain situations," said Marriott, who played for Small Troy State Teachers College in Mobile, Ala., before joining the Giants.

He said the Als have fine receivers, particularly all-star end Marv Luster.

"Marv really has a lot of moves. He's going to break out one of these days."

Marriott said he didn't need to adjust much to handing the ball off to the Als' three main ball - carriers — George Dixon, Don Clark and Rookie Dave Hoppmann, who romped for 90 yards against Toronto. He said they all take the ball much the same way.

The Als will still be without centre Joe Stracina and defensive tackle Ted Elsby. Milt Crain will replace Stracina, who injured his hand in a freak lawn - mower accident, while Dick Dalatri will take the place of Elsby, who has a dislocated elbow.

The Als expect to use 21-year-old Montrealer Gino Beretta as punter, opposing Ottawa rookie Rick Black, who has averaged 41 yards a kick this season.

Beretta won the league's rookie award—open to Canadians only—two seasons ago but couldn't make the squad last year. Last week against Toronto he averaged 39.9 yards.

Sandy Does It

SANDY Koufax finally did it.

He has won number 20 after letting San Francisco Giants down with three base hits in the opening game of their crucial four-game series with Dodgers Thursday night.

Koufax has had the toughest kind of luck of late and that 20th victory was a hard one to come by. Dodgers could never get their great hurler any runs when he was out there and three times in a row he failed to get the win after hurling great baseball. Dodgers won those games but Sandy got credit for no victories.

However, it was a different story Thursday night as the Alstonites went out there determined to make amends to Sandy for their lack of support in recent games. They slammed the ball around in great style, garnering eleven runs for their ace lefthander.

It was indeed a big one for the Dodgers who were showing definite signs of coming apart at the seams. It meant that Giants could do no better than gain two games in the series in which they badly needed a sweep. Indeed the Giants would need three victories in a row to accomplish this much now and that's going to be a tough order.

The Fighting Irish

BIS Shamrocks are The City Softball League champions and the Irish did it in dramatic fashion.

Down 3-1 in games in the best-of-seven final, the Shamrocks looked like a beaten club. However, they apparently never got that idea themselves because they reared back to win three in a row from the classy Main Brace Mariners.

The Main Brace Mariners lost their big chance Wednesday evening when they left that runner stranded at third. Nobody was out when he was parked there but, when three were down, he was still there. Their inability to devise a means of getting him home meant The City Softball League crown.

However, it was a great series and credit to those of who won the affair. Both teams created the fans to some exciting ball and it's too bad in a tight tussle like this, that anybody has to lose.

But to the victor goes the spoils and it's this same fighting band of Irishmen who take on RCAF this afternoon in the first two games of the best-of-three Island senior 'B' playdowns.

And so hearty congratulations to the Shamrocks on their great comeback victory. It's all the nicer when you can win it this way. It was tough going but you finally did make it.

To the Mariners, congratulations on providing a great series for softball fans. You had it all but wrapped up Wednesday evening but it just managed to slip away.

Better luck next time.

Dowling Enters Moncton Open

MONCTON (CP) — The Moncton Golf Club course, scene of the fourth annual Moncton open here Sunday and Monday, is in the best shape of condition ever, Joh Wolstenholme, Secretary-manager, said Friday.

"I've never seen the course in such good shape. The fairways are lush and the greens are holding very good, which is important," he said.

As a result sharp scores are expected during the two-day 36-hole medal play event by the field of 224, including 23 professionals.

Bill Ezinicki, former National Hockey League player who won the 1961 and 1962 events, will defend his laurels. Cecil Dowling of Charlottetown, the 1960 champion, will also compete.

Ezinicki, a pro in Massachusetts, holds the par 70 (34-36) course competitive record with a 65, posted in 1961.

No amateur has won the Open, although they've come close.

Doug Lewis of Moncton won the amateur honors in 1961 and 62, beating out Peter Hope of Halifax Brightwood last year, and Don Green of Halifax Brightwood and George Sharman of Truro in three-man playoff in 1961. Brian Matheson of Kentville-Wolfville won in 1960, topping B. W. Isner of Moncton in a two-man playoff.
