

The New Tariff on Eggs.

Some one has advised the Canadian egg raisers to get the eggs from their hens when they command high prices in Boston and New York; and then they won't feel that extra five cents a dozen, which the new tariff imposes.

We think we hear them reply, "well that's pretty poor comfort when the hens and pullets, too, instead of laying are simply standing around looking and asking for more corn." Please keep in mind if you feed them much corn you won't get an egg, that is a certain fact.

If we could only get an egg a day, or even every other day at this season, we would soon get rich, says many a party who keeps hens. John T. Porter, of Swathmore, Pa., offers hints to such that might profitably try.

He writes L. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass. "In the contest which began on the 1st of January last, I began under many difficulties. I had never used Sheridan's Condition Powder, and was pretty much out of conceit with any food or powder to make hens lay. My hen-house was not well heated, but for all that I determined to give the matter a full vote and a fair count. I soon increased enough to encourage the use of Sheridan's Condition, prize or no prize. The result proved that I was the sixteenth winner. I kept on using the Powder about three times each week after the contest, and find that during the first 23 days of this month my 22 Black Minorca Hens did what I should have presumed an impossibility. I will make affidavit that under the influence of your powder, the product was 457 eggs. Now I am fully aware that this means nearly 21 eggs per hen in 23 days; but these are the facts nevertheless, and facts which would make me the first prize winner could it have occurred during the contest. I challenge the world to excel it, and am willing to enter the list with any who will agree for a prize of $200.00 and to use a given quantity per hen of your incomparable Powder. I would not be without it though it cost five dollars per lb." L. S. Johnson, & Co., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass. will send free to anyone keeping hens full particulars of this year's premium offers on request.

Hypnotized Against Rum.

Carroll Cook, a young San Francisco lawyer, who was a fond of good company and mixed drinks, suddenly astonished his friends about a year and a half ago by reforming. He drank nothing, but no one could get from him the secret of his change of habits. It has just leaked out that he was hypnotized by Kennedy, the mesmerist, and that he can't swallow liquor, as his palate immediately rejects it. The secret came out at an evening reception last week. Carroll Cook was a guest, and at supper, among other articles on the table, was a mince pie. Cook is very fond of mince pie, and took a piece. As soon as he put it in his mouth he began choking. When he recovered everyone wanted to know the reason of his curious attack.

"Isn't there some alcoholic liquor in this pie?" asked Cook.

"Of course," said the hostess, "there's brandy in it."

"That settles it," said Cook; "you see my palate is hypnotized."

Asked for an explanation, he said: "When Kennedy was here I became intimate with the mesmerist. I was then drinking heavily and rapidly losing my practice. Kennedy said one day, 'Cook, whiskey will be your ruin. I command you never to drink alcoholic liquor again.' He fixed his bright eyes on me, but I laughed and ordered a drink. When I lifted it I could not control the muscles of my mouth to swallow. I poured the liquor between my lips, and it fell out. I tried to swallow that liquor as though my life depended upon it, but it was no use, and from that day to this it has been impossible for me to drink liquor of any kind. One day I was given a glass of lemonade in a glass that had a trace of whiskey in it, and the drink splattered all over my clothes."

Although Kennedy is now in London, Cook says his spell is as strong as ever.
