

Buyer meets seller with Guardian Want Ads. Dial 8506 ask for classified ad taker, for quick results.

Clear with a few cloudy intervals, little change in temperature, light winds. Low-high at Charlottetown 46 and 76.

"Cool as a New England Day" Island Like The Dew

Published on Second Class Mail by the Post Office Department, Ottawa

Red Threat Is No Less In Canada

OTTAWA (CP) — The government has no reason to believe the threat of Communist subversion in Canada is any less now than it ever was, Justice Minister Fulton said Thursday.

Huge Economic Expansion Is Predicted For Canada

Indies Trade Emphasized

OTTAWA (CP) — The federal government should encourage trade with the British West Indies as a means of improving the economy of the Atlantic provinces, George McNeil (L-Ottawa West) said in the Commons Thursday night.

FEASIBILITY

The feasibility of building a causeway was established prior to the June 10, 1957 election, Premier A. W. Matheron said last night at the Fifth Queens Liberal Association's nominating convention (Story on page 5).

Trade Minister—Churchill Is Optimistic In Commons

OTTAWA (CP) — Trade Minister Churchill said Thursday Canada has yet to experience the full force of the current economic expansion.

among other things, make the strongest representations at the highest possible level in Washington for the continuation of expiring contracts for sale of Canadian uranium to the U.S.

'Whopping Surplus' Is Story Told In Nfld.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — The Newfoundland budget surplus for the 1958-59 fiscal year could reach a whopping $12,005,700 if Ottawa pays the province what is "due us," Finance Minister E.S. Spencer said Thursday in his budget speech. He forecast no tax changes.

Discoverer Is Sent Aloft

VANDEMBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The fourth Discoverer satellite rocket roared skyward Thursday in a test of complicated equipment expected to carry monkeys into orbit this autumn.

On this trip the life capsule in the rocket's nose cone was empty.

Welcome To Montreal Is Carefree, Friendly

By ROBERT RICE
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL (CP) — The Queen and Prince Philip were caught in a wild, carefree, friendly crush Thursday.

Queen has yet experienced in her Canadian tour.

Winter Fair Is Considered

MONCTON — (CP) — Establishment of a Maritime Winter Exhibition in Moncton, to include the homeless Maritime Winter Fair hinges around three principal questions, a meeting Thursday of the Board of Trade and Maritime Stockbreeders Association disclosed.

LIMOUSINE SLOWED

The royal car slowed to tip-toe pace. Six scarlet-coated motorcycle outriders barely kept upright.

For a time, it appeared as if the royal automobile would have to halt to let the police clear a path through the mass of excited people.

The day-long tour started at 10 a.m. from the royal yacht Britannia. Aboard it today, the Queen and President Eisenhower are to open the seaway.

Little Brown-Eyed Girl Gives Queen Nosegay

By GERALD FREEMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL (CP) — A pretty little brown-eyed girl curtsied here Thursday into her own scrapbook of the Royal Family.

As more than 15,000 other excited youngsters cheered and fluttered their flags, Elizabeth Diane Wimmer stepped onto the dais in the middle of a baseball diamond and presented Queen Elizabeth with a huge nosegay of dark pink roses.

At her side, executing a grave bow as Diane dipped in a well-practised curtsy, stood Bernard Lattulipe. The youngsters, both 13, were chosen by park officials to represent Montreal's children at the Queen's visit to Delorme Stadium.

Elizabeth is a first-year high school student, Bernard a sixth-grader.

IT'S FUN TO BE YOUNG

Who needs water anyway? It's the question that pretty little Kathie Simpson may be asking with all the dignity of two years experience. Brother Kenny is only four but he's old enough to enjoy spraying sister's bike. If some goes on sister, so will the better. It happened in Vancouver. (CP Photo)

Welfare Spokesman Sees Gains Prospect

Despite a critical deficiency of professional personnel and a degree of unco-ordinated effort still apparent, prospects for real gains on the Canadian welfare front were bright, Charles H. Young, Montreal, said in Charlottetown last night.

Atlantic Potential Advocacy Urged

By ED SMITH
Canadian Press Staff Writer
AMHERST (CP) — Michael Wardell, publisher of the Frederick Gleason and the monthly Atlantic Advocate Thursday urged broadcasters to unite in demonstrating the Atlantic area's potential and determination to expand.

Laws Are Blamed To Excuse Police

OTTAWA (CP) — Frank Howard (CCF-Skeena) says that the nature of some laws, rather than RCMP methods of enforcing them, may be responsible for criticisms of the force.

WHERE-TO-FIND-IT

- Announcements, notices 15
- Births, deaths, etc., 2, 15
- Charlottetown news 5
- Church notices 3
- Classified section 14, 15
- Comics, features 13
- Editorials 4
- Finance, markets 12
- Island news 2, 3
- Sports 10, 11
- Woman's page 6, 7

Late reports from Guardian news bureaus in Summerside, Montague, Alberton and Souris, and from special correspondents now appear on the Island News Page.

LEGISLATION IS NECESSARY

Stabilization Fund Is Provided For Credit Unions In Province

All share capital invested in provincial credit unions will be fully protected by a stabilization fund to be set up as soon as the necessary legislation can be obtained.

LABOR RIOT KILLING TRIAL UNDERWAY

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — The trial of Earl Ronald Laing, charged with murder in the death of a policeman during a strike March 10 at Badger in central Newfoundland, opened in Supreme Court here Thursday.

Yank Named To Head Gyro

MONTREAL (CP) — Donald M. Whitbeck of Buffalo, N.Y., was elected president of Gyro International at the organization's annual convention in Montreal last week.

BREVITY MARK SET IN COUNCIL

Last evening's City council meeting must have set a record for brevity. It started at 5:15. A motion authorized the purchase of an accounting machine at a price not to exceed $7,500.

WELCOME TO MONTREAL IS CAREFREE, FRIENDLY

By ROBERT RICE
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL (CP) — The Queen and Prince Philip were caught in a wild, carefree, friendly crush Thursday.

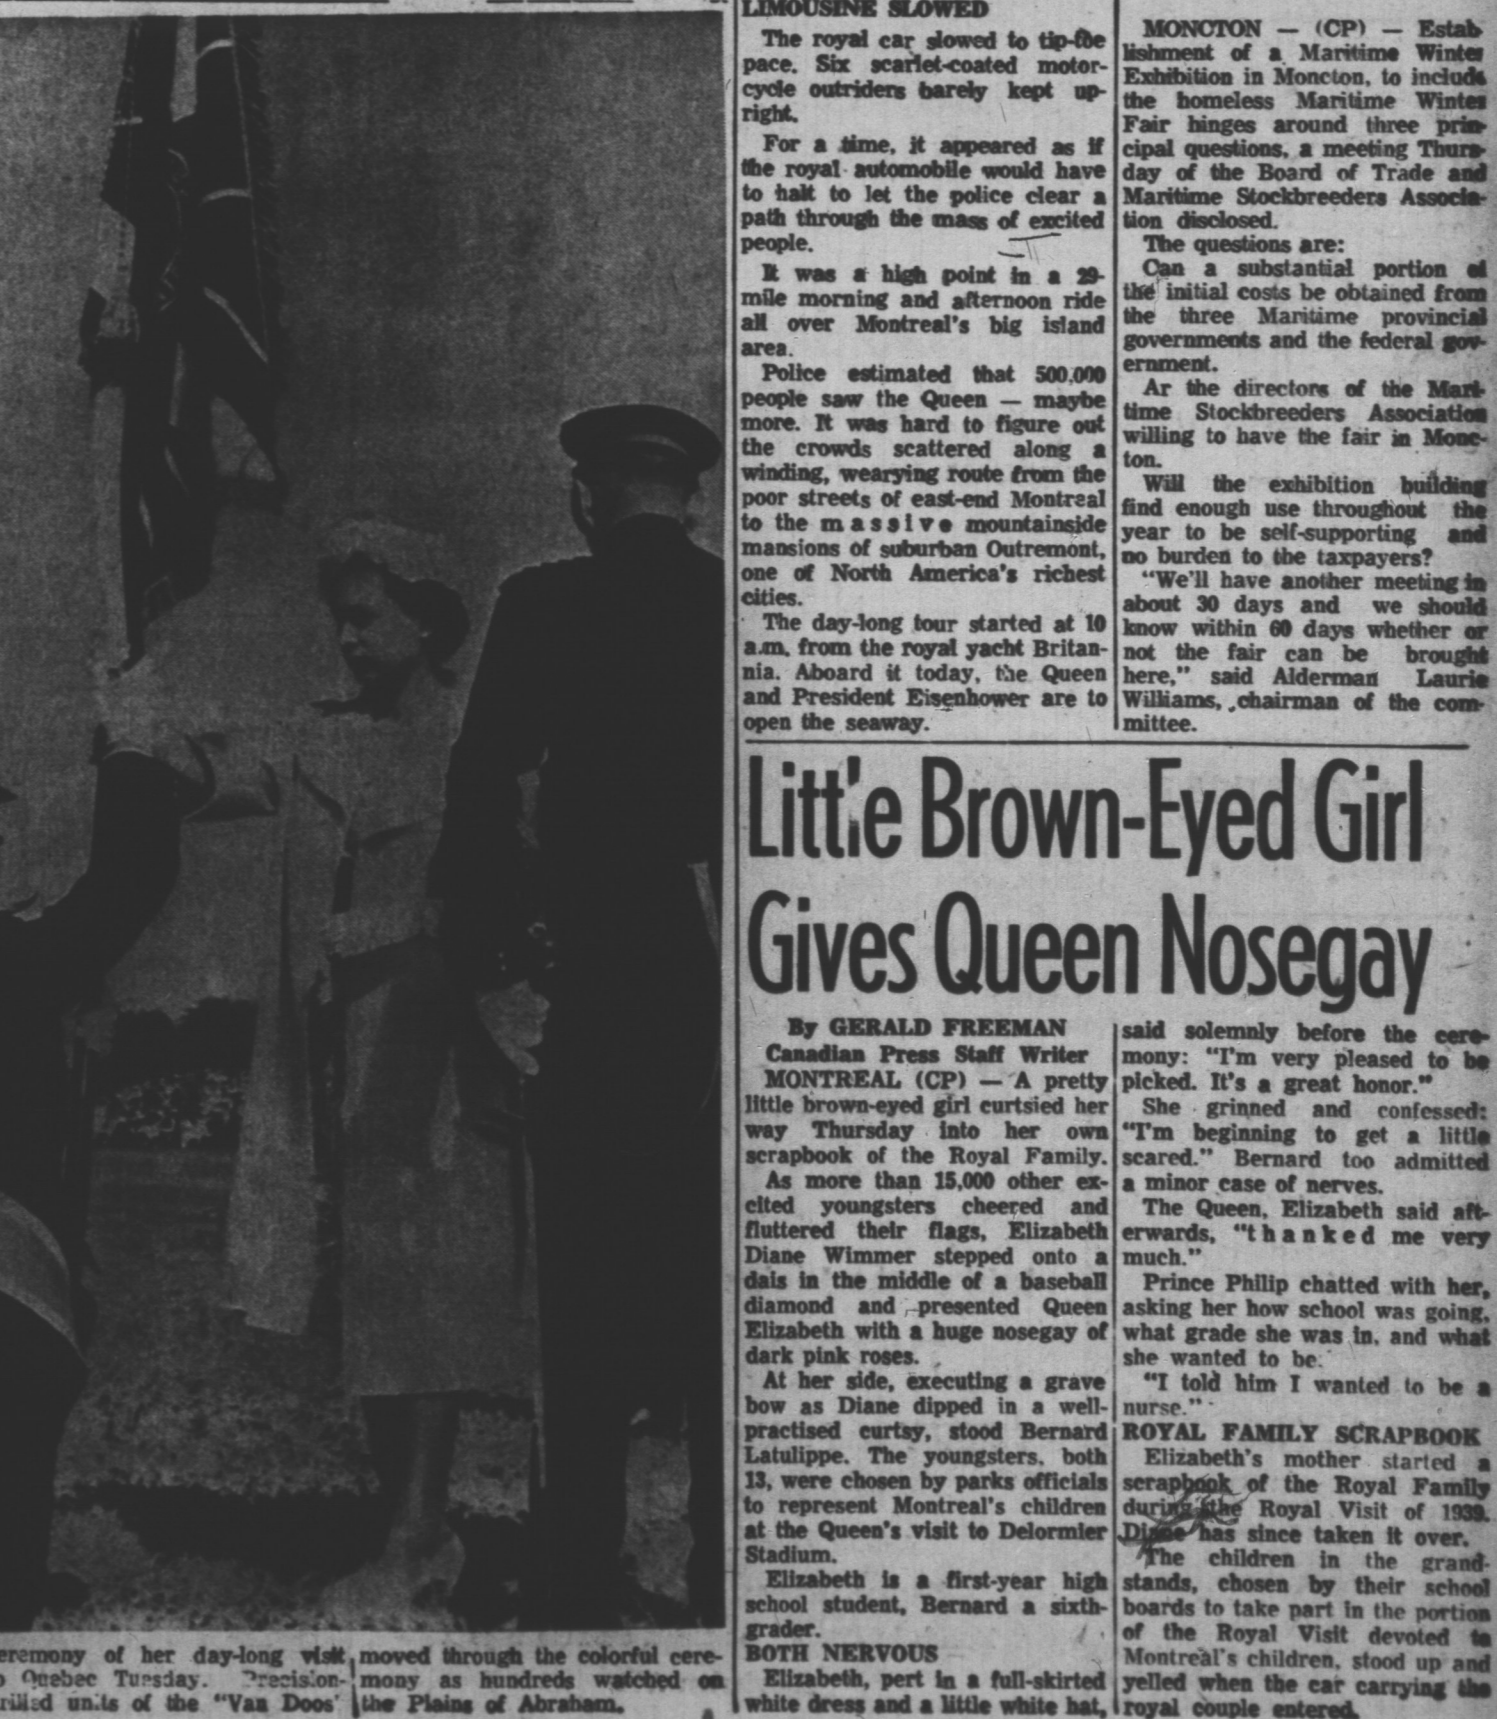

LABOR RIOT KILLING TRIAL UNDERWAY

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — The trial of Earl Ronald Laing, charged with murder in the death of a policeman during a strike March 10 at Badger in central Newfoundland, opened in Supreme Court here Thursday.

WHERE-TO-FIND-IT

- Announcements, notices 15
- Births, deaths, etc., 2, 15
- Charlottetown news 5
- Church notices 3
- Classified section 14, 15
- Comics, features 13
- Editorials 4
- Finance, markets 12
- Island news 2, 3
- Sports 10, 11
- Woman's page 6, 7

Late reports from Guardian news bureaus in Summerside, Montague, Alberton and Souris, and from special correspondents now appear on the Island News Page.

THE QUEEN presents colors to a battalion of the famed Royal 22nd Regiment in the big high-gallop ceremony of her day-long visit to Quebec Tuesday. "Precision-drilled units of the 'Van Doos' moved through the colorful ceremony as hundreds watched on the Plains of Abraham.