DELICIOUS SUPPER — A very delicious chicken and ham supper was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roddy MacKenzie, Primrose, sponsored by the Primrose Women's Institute. Almost 250 people attended. The tables were gracefully set, displaying an array of cakes and cookies indicative of the excellent cooking ability of the ladies. The well-prepared and well-served supper was most enjoyable to all and the ladies were deservedly commended for their splendid work and for the time given to its preparation.

McFeely-LeClair Wedding Tuesday

St. Paul's Church, Summerside was the setting for an exceptional pretty wedding on Tuesday morning a 7 o'clock when Squadron Leader H. Smeaton, Chaplain at R.C.A.F. Station, united in marriage in a double ring ceremony, Mary Alvena Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew LeClair, and James McFeely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFeely of Oakner, Manitoba. The wedding music was under the direction of Mrs. Irene Peters and appropriate hymns were sung by the girl's choir during the Nuptial Mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her floor length gown of white satin, lily point sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a beaded coronet and she carried a bouquet of Bet-le-time Roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Theresa Pineaau, was gowned in mauve broadcated organza with matching headdress and she carried a bouquet of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses.

Little Jean Arsenault, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a gown of yellow organza with a bandeau of flowers as headdress. She carried a basket of Pink Delight roses. Mr. Alyre LeClair, brother of the bride was groomsmen and Mr. Wendall Murphy of Charlottetown and LAC Norman MacLeod were ushers.

Mrs. LeClair chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of navy sheer with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother was attired in floral nylon with green and white accessories and her corsage was of red carnations. A reception for fifty guests was held at the Birch Hill Tourist Lodge where the bride's table, with its attractive arrangement of mixed flowers and lighted tapers, was centred with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The toast to the bride was given by Father Smeaton and responded to Mrs. Maurice Perry, Sr. and Miss Bessie Kinch of Alberton enjoyed a pleasant visit to Summerside on Monday.

LAC McFeely and Mrs. McFeely left on a wedding trip through the Maritimes, the bride travelling in a suit of teal blue garzardine with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. On return they will reside in Summerside where the groom is stationed at the R.C.A.F. station.

The groom's gift to the bride was a matching set of silver bracelet and earrings; the bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold comb, birthstone ring. The best man repaid and to the flower girl a celved a Ronsom-lighter and the ushers gold cuff links.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFeely and daughter, Patsy of Oakner, Manitoba; Mr. Oscar Arsenault of

Let's Talk It Over A Prince County Viewpoint by "d"

Intimations of Insanity No doubt more than once you have seen a half dozen or so cars held up on Water Street, Summerside, because of some traffic obstruction which, of course, cannot be seen by the rear cars, and then you hear the raucous note of the hindmost car's horn, the driver imperiously demanding that all cars get out of his way immediately. One of the poets has said: "The loud laugh that speaks the vacant mind." We think this blaring horn bespeaks the vacant mind of the driver blowing it much more certainly.

School children find it most difficult to get apostrophes in the right places, but it might be some consolation to know that it was just as great a hardship in papa's and grandpapa's day. Some of them apparently never did get the hang of it, as signs prominently displayed on Summerside streets so clearly furnish the proof. Here are just a few examples: "Ladies, mens', mens' and boys'." Reminds us of the fellow who won $10,000 by betting on horse No. 13. When asked why he bet on No. 13, he said: "Just a hunch. I took the size of my hat, 7, and added it to the size of my shoe, 8. So I bet on horse No. 13."

Providence, R.I.: an uncle of the bride, Mrs. Emily Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Egan of Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gauthier, and Mrs. Earl Blanchard of Freetown. Prior to her marriage the bride was honored with a number of miscellaneous showers when she received many lovely gifts.

"But," said his friend, "8 and 7 add up to 15, not 13." "He's telling me," exclaimed the other scornfully, "an I won $10,000."

The work of the Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety organization cannot be too highly commended. Scores of children and adults are getting instruction that will enable them to take proper precautions when they themselves are bathing, and that also gives them the knowledge necessary to help others who may get into difficulties. A work such as this will increase the pleasure of bathing and decrease the chances of tragic mishaps more and more as time goes on.
