

Souris Notes.

SOURIS HARBOR is still open. The waves which have its shores almost as unobstructed as in summer; and the water is as blue as any that has inspired the poet or charmed the painter's eye.

Among the vessels in port are the brig, "Natalie," the schooners "Industry," "Union," "Mary C." and "Ruby," at Railway Wharf; and two large schooners at Knight's Wharf.

Of the latter, one is bound for Boston with a load of potatoes; the other for French St. Peter's with produce and cattle.

The "Natalie," commanded by Capt. Bernard, has just made a round trip of extraordinary quickness and good fortune to Trinidad and back. She is now loading white oats, potatoes, hay and horses for the West Indies, by Messrs. Coombs, of this city, Capt. Barnard and Mr. Workman.

The "Mary C." is being loaded with oats and potatoes by Messrs. Macdonald, Macdonald & Co.

"BRITAIN'S PREMIER" doesn't seem to be popular in Souris; for the "Gladstone Restaurant" is ticketed "for sale or let."

MESSES. WRIGHT BROS., who recently purchased the steam mill formerly owned by Messrs. Morrow & Co, are importing the most improved grist mill machinery, including French burrs, revolving sieve and coolers, etc., and will shortly commence the manufacture of Island flour of the best quality.

The schr. "J. R. Stewart," Capt. McDonald, is still at Railway wharf, waiting repairs!

The new light-house on "The Point" was lighted up for the first time on Wednesday last. The light is not particularly remarkable for its brilliancy.

The canning business is lively with fresh geese, ducks, hares, beef and mutton.

Oats are selling at 40 cents. Messrs. Matthew, McLean, & Co., McDonald, McDonald, & Co., Connolly & Co., and J. G. Sterns, are the chief buyers.

The remarkable forgetfulness of the King's County Advertiser has attracted attention. How it failed when cracking up Georgetown to advertise the fact that Souris harbor, in King's County, is still open, and is one of the safest and most convenient on the Island, is one of the questions of the day in Souris.

NEW BUILDINGS.

MATTHEW FAIE is building a neat cottage and outbuildings.

JOHN HUGHES, of Morell, is putting up a dwelling in Souris.

JAMES McQUAID is erecting a tenement house.

PETER STEWART is building a cottage in the eastern section of the town.

WARREN W. CLARKE is putting up a new dwelling.

MACDONALD, MACDONALD & Co., have just completed a new warehouse.

MR. WM. STONE, who rejoices in an artistic sign board which announces that he sells wines, ales, brandies, and strong drinks generally, is building a handsome new three story store and dwelling.

MR. JOHN WHITE, formerly of Montague, is building a factory at the head of Knight's wharf; and in view of flourishing fish trade, proposes manufacturing barrels and boxes. The building measures 60x40 feet. The machinery is now being made by Messrs. McKinnon and McLean, of this city.

SOURIS WEST.

Souris West is evidently thriving; and the inhabitants have just given good evidence of their progressive public spirit. They have erected a splendid new school-house.

HON. MR. KICKHAM and Mrs. C. McQuaid seem to be carrying on their business with good success.

Commendable.

THE schooner Neva, James Keay, Master, was frozen in at McEwen's wharf on the 24th November, partly laden with about 6,000 bushels potatoes. The weather continuing severely cold, nothing was done towards cutting her out until the 30th, when Angus McDonald, David McEwen, and others not only interested in the cargo of the Neva, but also determined that no vessel with cargo should remain all winter ice bound on the West River, turned out, assisted by the whole settlement, and succeeded in cutting the ice ahead of the schooner all the way down to the three tides, a distance of seven miles, through ice from five to seven inches thick. The Neva, on the 3rd inst., got clear, and sailed out of the harbor with flying colors for Georgetown, where she is now finishing taking in the balance of her cargo for Boston. This manly effort on the part of Capt. Keay and crew, backed up by the shippers and their friends, reflects great credit on all concerned.

Personal.

Hon. Senator Montgomery, and Mr. Brecken, M. P., crossed in the Northern Light to-day en route for Ottawa.

Dr. Muttart, M. P., leaves probably on Tuesday.

Hon. Senator Carvell and wife, crossed in the Northern Light on Friday.

Rev. Geo. W. Hodgson, crossed in the Northern Light to-day, and will lecture in St. John, on Wednesday evening. In his absence, Rev Mr. Bambrick conducted the services at St. Peter's, on Sunday.

Souris—Not to be Overlooked.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—In the last issue of the King's County Advertiser the editor of that journal states that the Port of Georgetown is the only port on the Island open for navigation. He must certainly know that the Port of Souris is free from ice, and several vessels are loading for Boston, Halifax and West Indies. Souris is the last port on the Island to close and first to open in the spring. The editor of the Advertiser should be more careful in future in making such assertions.

Yours, &c.,

A special to the Toronto Evening Telegram says: "After a few weeks spent in Ireland Hanlan intends to return thence to the Thames for training."

Laycock's friends in Sydney, Australia, sent a cablegram that they had deposited £350 to aid him in making his stake with Hanlan and that more money will follow.

A notable feature of emigration statistics for 1880 is the great number of English people who have reached Castle Garden, Germany and Ireland headed the list, as usual, and Sweden follows, but the English immigrants number more than those from Austria, Hungary, Russia, France and Italy combined.—N. Y. Herald.

Advices from Honolulu by the steamer City of Sydney describe the eruption of Mauna Loa, now in progress, as one of the grandest ever witnessed. It broke out on Nov. 5 about six miles from the summit of the crater, throwing off two great streams of lava, one of which is thirty miles long, 100 to 200 yards wide and about 20 feet deep. Terrible explosions accompany its flow. Some fears are entertained for the safety of Hilo, although the flow seems turning in another direction.

IMPORTATION OF SHORT HORN CATTLE.—The Halifax Chronicle says: "The steamer 'Brooklyn,' which arrived on Tuesday from Liverpool, G. B., brought a very valuable lot of thoroughbred short horn cattle for the Central Board of Agriculture. This importation has been made in accordance with the recommendation of the Agricultural Committee of the House of Assembly. There are six yearling bulls, one young cow and two heifers.

BREACH OF TRUST.—Mr. Charles J. Keller, the Montreal lawyer, who has left that city under a cloud, was the custodian of $24,000 of trust funds, only $17,000 of which had been invested in securities. There is a deficit, therefore, of $7,000. The keenest regret is said to be expressed by the Montreal bar on account of this default.

A BRILLIANT SHOWER OF METEORS.—Just before one o'clock Sunday morning, the 28th, there was a brilliant and long continued shower of meteors rivaling anything ever seen in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The meteors were of varied size, and in color ranged from a delicate crimson to a rich intense gold. They fell in rapid succession, probably 400 falling in the space of eight minutes, and many of them burst, leaving gorgeous trails of colored light lasting several seconds. Similar reports come in from Rye, Greenland and Hampton.

The Disease of Cattle.

At the Corn Exchange, Berwick, Eng., Mr. George Fleming, F.R.C.V.S., recently delivered an interesting lecture on the various diseases among cattle, but with special reference to "contagious pleuropneumonia, splenic apoplexy, and tuberculosis." He said that splenic apoplexy was now in every part of the world, although at first it was only to be found on the banks of a Russian River. It was most destructive, in some cases sweeping off 50 per cent of the animals. He had reason to believe that it was more prevalent in England than was generally thought. Braxy had been clearly traced to parasites. The only way to exterminate the disease was to burn the animals, not to bury them upon the land. Referring to tuberculosis in animals, he said that this was a disease which was more known than suspected in this country. It was known among cattle dealers as consumption. The milk and flesh of the diseased animals were very dangerous to human beings, producing consumption in them. It was a most important question, not only for agriculturists, but for the country. Since 1841, when it appeared in England, it had never left it. He strongly deprecated the movement of cattle throughout the country, and said that the same measures with regard to the importation of cattle from Holland and elsewhere should be applied to America, where the disease had recently existed to an alarming extent. But Congress had refused to move in the matter, and, despite all restrictions at their ports, diseased cattle were being constantly imported from America. In reply to some questions, he said that boiling the milk did not remove any of its dangerous qualities when it came from a diseased cow.
