OUR enterprising butchers, Messrs. Saunders & Campbell, have leased the end of the Market House next the Post Office, where they purpose removing their extensive trade in meats in the month of May. KENSINGTON HALL.—The hour with Burns went off real well last night. The duetts by the Misses Wellner, "My Heart's in the Highlands," and "Bruce at Bannockburn," were sung exceedingly well. We understand that an hour with Longfellow will be given next.

Mr. Darke is an excellent young man, with some capital. He may locate in this district. Along with him are Artemas Westcott, N. B. McInnis, Pope Balderston, of North Wiltshire, P. E. I., Arthur Essery and J. McLean, all stalwart young fellows ready to turn their hands at the first job that offers. The Standard extends them a fraternal greeting, feeling assured that if they exercise the good judgment so characteristic of Islanders at home and abroad, they will never regret that they came this way.

THE latest discovery to all whose business requires writing is the Ink Erasing Electrosine Pencil which erases ink and other stains in two seconds without abrasion of paper. The Eraser is in size and shape similar to a common led pencil, and is used in connection with a small vial of common water which has a few grains of Chloride of Lime dissolved in it. By the use of this pencil writing disappears as if by magic, leaving the paper perfectly clean. The simplicity of application and lightning rapidity with which the Eraser removes ink, makes it an almost an indispensible article to all classes of business men. Writing can be erased in part or entirely, errors corrected, blots removed, and the paper can be written upon again as perfectly as though never used.

A FIRE broke out at 8 o'clock last evening in the outbuildings in connection with the dwelling house of Mr. John Harper, corner of Fitzroy and Weymouth streets. Mrs. Harper was at home alone with several small children when she saw the fire, a small blaze inside the barn door. A young man, Mr. J. Stanley, came rushing in and got the horse out of the building before giving the alarm. A crowd soon gathered and the sleighs, harness and other contents of the building were quickly removed. The blaze caught the piggery near by, but the pigs were got out. By the time the firemen arrived on the scene there was a big blaze, and the fire was rapidly speeding towards the house. Two heavy streams took little effect at first, the hay and straw and a large quantity of pine shingles, which were on the barn lofts, having caught. Openings were made in the roof, and the water played heavily for a considerable time before the fire fiend was conquered. The barn was badly gutted, but the loss will not be as great as might have been anticipated. No clew can be obtained as to the orgin of the fire, except that two boys were seen around smoking during the evening. There had been no fire in the yard any where during the day. Mr. Harper had no insurance on the building.

Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the tomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia.

Suffering

I did so, and before taking the whole of the bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken

I. O. O. F.—Prince Edward Lodge, No 22, celebrated Natal Day yesterday afternoon Early in the day bunting was displayed from their lodge room by a line stretched across the street bearing gay colors, another was placed near the R. R. Station, with a third on Central Street. At 3 p.m. the members, after a short meeting, formed in line and, led by the Summerside Band, marched to the Methodist Church. The interior of the church was appropriately decorated for the occasion, having four I. O. O. F. banners to the right and left, while three links nicely arranged appeared in the rear. Rev. W. Maggs assisted with the service. Rev. Bro. George W. Fisher preached an eloquent and appropriate sermon from Eccles. 4: 9-10. He said that he was glad to welcome them to the commemoration of their 73rd anniversary. In reference to his text, he said, that they belonged to an organized socialism, but that there were two distinct kinds of socialism—the Christian and the anti-Christian. In describing the latter, he referred the audience to the crimes recently committed in Paris and other parts of Europe where the Anarchists had been doing their foul work, the crime and debauchery which always follow the socialism of this kind. With such sentiments we as Odd Fellows have no room. We believe in meeting together in Christian spirit to make us helpful to our brother man and undefiled before God. In reference to the friendship, which should be maintained in the order, he said: "Let yours be like that of Jonathan and David, which stood the test of sorrow, that you may be stimulated to that friendship, which reaches out to the end of life. In conclusion, he said, we may not all be permitted to meet another Natal Day, but it may be ours to unite in a great commemoration above. Then be it ours to love the Order, fear God, and honor the King. After the concluding services were over the Lodge again formed, and with the band at their head marched back to their Lodge Room. During the parade the excellent appearance of the members of the Lodge was frequently commented upon. H. Price Webber will furnish a suitable concert Thursday evening, by way of further celebrating Natal Day.

Bideford Notes.

Mr. Frank England and Mr. Joseph Hashie, two young men of Bideford, nearly lost their lives recently, while crossing the ice at that place. Had it not been for the assistance of Mr. Colin McKay, England might have been drowned as it was late at night and the ice was very bad.

The ship-yard of Mr. Richards presents a lively appearance this spring as there is a beautiful vessel in frame there, which bids fair to add to the laurels of Mr. John Mackinnon, master builder.

Richmond Bay is all clear of ice and great preparations are being made for the coming fishing season.
