We Know

We know of no words more misused than absolutely all wool, no shoddy, etc., by merchants. With some of them exaggeration seems to be the order of the day.

Prowse Brothers.

We started to make Small Profits our Motto

And ever since we began business, our career has been one of constant increase and continued success.

Prowse Brothers.

THE REASON WHY We Sell Cheaper :

LARGE PURCHASES, LARGE OUTPUT, SPOT CASH. Our location and position can easily be compared with other houses in the same line, who only buy in limited quantities and depend on a small trade to get clear of their stock.

Prowse Brothers.

WORTH * REMEMBERING

That we embody every commendable feature in the make of our clothing,

AND

Sell them for less money than the same goods can be bought elsewhere. Don't Forget.

PERSONAL

J. S. E. McDonald, M. L. A., Cardigan, is to town. P. W. Morrison, of Summerside, and Peter McNeill and wife, of Malpeque, were among the arrivals at the Halifax Hotel, Halifax, on Tuesday evening.

The Rev. Father Francis, of Narrows Creek, is to town to-day, having come up by the morning express with Fathers Burke and McMillan. The venerable prior looks well with his 67 years of arduous labor in the ministry.

David Watson, Jr., arrived from Montreal this afternoon and is at the Queen. He has quite recovered from the bicycle accident which laid him up here some weeks ago, and is as kittenish as usual.

Messrs. Percy Marchbanks and Wallace Milligan, of the Town Road, left here in the Northumberland on Wednesday morning for British Columbia, and it is possible they may be absent for some years.

The many friends of the Rev. W. W. Brewer will be pleased to know that he is coming to the city for a visit, and will preach in the Cathedral on Sunday, Nov. 22nd, both morning and evening.

There registered at the Hotel Davies this forenoon: A. E. Massie, Fredericton; Miss P. Dempsey, Sackville; C. H. Green, Montreal. Last evening's arrivals included: G. S. Stewart, city; C. SCHOONER ASHORE.—The schooner Sirius, owned by Hon. D. Gordon, is reported ashore on Campbell's Cove reef. It is said that she was on her way to Cardigan to be loaded.

SMALL PROFITS.—Three boats seized for illegal lobster fishing several weeks ago were sold recently and realized nine dollars in all, three dollars each. Since the sale it is reported that the man hired to watch the boats between the time of the seizure and the sale has sent in his bill and it is somewhere in the vicinity of $100!

SCOTT ACT.—John Joy and P. P. Gillis were last evening committed to jail for ten months for violating the Scott Act. Alfred Downing, Great George Street, received a second offence summons last evening, and two third offence summonses were served on James Cummings, Water Street. This forenoon a first offence summons was served on Isaac Murley. All the summonses are returnable on Thursday next.

Mr. Robt. F. Irving, of this city, has been engaged to assist the clerk of the Magistrate's Court in the preparation of Scott Act summonses and subpoenas. Mr. Irving has been engaged by the committee of citizens appointed to see that the Scott Act is enforced in this city and his salary is paid by them. His engagement is made necessary owing to the recent increase in the number of prosecutions under the Act.
