1952 Thrill Show Modern As The Jet Plane

The 1952 Edition of the CONGRESS OF CANADIAN DAREDEVILS, is a daring 2 hour show, jam packed with chills thrills, spills and excitement... 25 spectacular acts with the world's top auto stunt drivers, crashing and smashing new 1952 stock Ford cars — Driving motorcycles through roaring flames — stunting unlike anything you've seen before — to the thrill fan watching the smoothness and brilliance of the production, it has become obvious the show is in the hands of perfectionists... The cars are always in top condition mechanically, and at times show some body bruises and scars, but they usually look as though just off the dealers show room floor. The show moves with split second precision at a peak; and sharp, snappy and skilful driving is emphasized, rather than the old formula of destruction where little skill is required. The biggest entertainment value in show business today. The
