HOMÉ DRESSMAKING.

THE BASQUE AND HOW IT SHOULD BE CONSTRUCTED.

Wrappers and Princess Dresses—At Present Waists Are Much More Trimmed Than Ever—Some Hints About Tailor Made Gowns.

(Copyright, 1892, by American Press Association.)

NUMBER III. The cutting of a basque is the real foundation of all waists, for if one wants simply a full gathered waist, the front cut out of the waist line, with the darts gathered instead of taken in, makes it just right.

MODEL SKIRT. shoulders. Loose wrappers have the waist cut in the same way, with the skirt cut on, but in measuring for a loose wrapper an allowance of inches longer than the skirt apparently requires should be made at the bottom, and this afterward can be pinned up to come just right, as skirts of wrappers sometimes do.

Princess dresses are simply basques with skirts, and by drafting the basque, following the indications of the lines, always allowing any slant to fall backward, a perfect fitting princess will be the result.

In finishing off a riding habit less, as it is customary to have the lining of stout linen, with the seams pressed flat and quilted as usual, but it is not necessary to finish the seams off so neatly, as a lining of boned satin is sewn in and neatly felled over all the seams.

Tailor made gowns depend for their beauty upon the exactness of every line and every stitch. Every seam must be pressed flat before another is sewn, and then when the whole is finished a final pressing should be given it.

Don't Stuff a Cold. If you do you will have it ten, have a good cough relieved by the myriad nerves that bristle near the surface of a human body. This shock is transmitted to the nerve centres, and then back to the mucous membranes, forcing a great amount of blood to those membranes, creating a more or less severe irritation and consequent rise in the temperature, followed by chills. Excess of food in the stomach still more increases the temperature, and, worst of all, helps clog secretions or natural outlets of the body. It is high time we broke away from an old notion which, like some others, has done more harm than good.

A TRIP TO EUROPE. An ex-British Consul's Experiences—A Friends Kindness Protects Him from an Old Enemy.

F. J. Crilland, of New York, formerly British consul at Montevideo, and Charlotte, S. C., when about to start for Europe found himself short of a valuable article which he feared he would not be able to obtain in Europe. He wrote thus to a friend who had previously supplied him with a bottle of Hawker's Balsam of Tolu and Wild Cherry which afforded me the great relief at once, and in a short time I found that the cough had entirely left me.

DOUBLE VICTORY. It must be gratifying to our Canadian people to hear of the double victory at Chicago of the well-known piano firm of Octavio Newcombe & Co., who have been awarded medals and diplomas for both their upright and grand pianos.

Testing His Honesty. Your druggist is honest if when you ask him for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion he gives you just what you ask for. He knows this is the best form in which to take cod liver oil.

A Railway Manager says: "In reply to your question do my children object to taking Scott's Emulsion, I say No! on the contrary, they are fond of it and it keeps them pictures of health."

D. M. Johnson, Esq., M. D., Port Hawkesbury, certified: "I have used Putner's Emulsion with great satisfaction where Cod Liver Oil is called for. I recommend it as so disguising the oil that patients never refuse to take it."

How a Queens County Man Found Permanent Healing. HATEFUL, PLEASING RELIEF AFTER MANY DAYS.

His Own Experience Tells Fully and Freely some Truths which all Readers of this Paper Should Know.

Here and there, in almost every town of our province, are "chronic" cases over which doctors disagree; cases that become worse year after year. It is to reach such that the gentleman to whom these lines refer, and whose portrait is here given, has written the story of his case.

Mr. Branscomb's home is a Chipman, Queens Co., N. B. It was there that a representative of the Grocer company called upon him, Sept. 1st, of the present year. His greeting was most cordial. He gladly acknowledged his thanks, giving expression to the following statement:

"It is five years since I became afflicted with a form of indigestion. Last winter it became more severe, developing into chronic diarrhoea. I cannot tell you how much I suffered for six long weeks. It seemed as though relief could not be found. You will remember how I told you of my condition and asked your advice about taking a bottle of GRODER'S SYRUP. You told me that the medicine was a laxative and might not meet my need. I delayed buying for a few hours until I began to hope that it would be gone. Even my clothes seem a burden because of bloating stomach. It was with a feeling that I kept about—frightened to attend to my business.

But I am a well man from the use of your medicine. In three days after I bought GRODER'S SYRUP the terrible pain and distress across my stomach were removed. My bowels rapidly assumed a natural, healthy condition. Now at one drink as well as I ever could I have gained constancy in my sleep. March 1st, I am perfectly cured. It seems a duty for me to state my case fully, that others who suffer as I did may know where to find a cure." Truly yours, E. A. BRANSCOMB.
