TRADE AND SPADE.

BY CHARLES MACKAY.

Between two friends, in days of old,
A bitter strife began,
And Father Spade with Brother Trade
Disputed man to man:
"You're vain, undutiful and proud,"
Said Spade with flashing eyes,
" You earn your thousands while I starve,
You mock my children's cries,
You ride in state with lordly looks,
You dwell in bow'r and hall;
You speak of me reproachfully,
And prosper at my fall.
So, from this hour, in shine or show'r,
We'll learn to live apart,
I rul'd the earth, ere you were born;
I cast you from my heart."

And Trade lost temper in his pride,
He utter'd words of scorn;
" You do not know the ways of men,
Amid your sheep and corn.
You doze away the busy day,
Nor think how minutes run;
Go, put your shoulder to your work,
And do as I have done;
You've all the earth to yield you wealth,
Both corn and pasture land;
I only ask a counting house,
And room whereon to stand.
And, from this hour, in shine or show'r,
I'll learn to live alone;
I'll do without you well enough—
The world shall be my own!"

And thus they wrangled night and day,
Unfair, like angry men,
'Till things went wrong between them both,
And would not right again.
But growing wiser in distress,
Each grasp'd the other's hand—
"'Twas wrong," said Spade, "to rail at Trade,
He loves me in the land."
And Trade as freely own'd his fault—
"I have been unjust," he said
"To quarrel with the good old man
Who grows my daily bread.
Long may we flourish, Trade and Spade,
In city and in plain!
The people starve while we dispute,
We must not part again."

And all the people sang for joy,
To see their good accord,
While Spade assembled all his sons,
And piled his plenteous board.
He fed them on the best of fare—
Untax'd the foaming ale—
And pray'd in England's happy shore,
That Trade might never fail.
And busy Trade sent fleets of ships
To every sea and strand,
And built his mills and factories
O'er all the prosperous land.
And so we'll sing "God save the Queen,
And long may brother Spade,
For sake of all, both rich and poor,
Unite with brother Trade!"

ECONOMY IS DUE TO OUR EMPLOYERS.—" Waste not, want not," is a good old proverb ." He that is faithful in little is faithful also in much." A person who takes no care of the materials commited to his hand by his master, will never duly husband his own property. Economy and wastefulness are habits that will influence us in all things, both when we are engaged about our own substance and that of another. To waste another's goods is the same as to rob him. The loss in both cases is equal, and the principles whence they spring very much alike.—The man who takes care of his employer's goods is sure to look after his own, and thus is on the road to prosperity. It would be difficult to calculate the immense loss of property that every year occurs from carelessness and want of economy. Some persons are worth nearly half their wages more than others, because they never injure nor waste anything. The employer being wealthy, or the stock abundant, is no excuse for carelessness. A loss is a loss, and a robbery is a robbery, whether taken from the heap of the miser or the smaller store of the indigent. " Gather up the fragments, that nothing be lost," is a divine command. Heaven allows nothing to be destroyed. There has not been a single drop of water wasted from the creation until now. The decomposed elements of last autumn are the aliment of our present spring. Economy, rigid economy, is one of the laws of nature; and we shall not realize " the good time coming" until we have a careful and economical world. Let this spirit prevail, and not only will the master be saved from loss, but in many instances, the servant will rescue himself from the union.

REFINED CONVERSATION AT AN EVENING PARTY.—Miss Ryelow.—"You have travelled through foreign countries within the last five years, Mr. Albrane, have you not?"

Mr. Albrane.—" Ah, yes, I've been so much along 'em that I almost feel sometimes as if I was a foreigner myself."

Miss Ryelow.—" Can you tell us, Mr. Albrane, what you saw in foreign countries?"

Mr. Albrane.—"Men and things, Miss Ryelow; men and things. If we wish to study men and things, as men and things actually exist, we should travel where an opportunity offers itself to see man and things. Oh, you may depend upon it, Miss Ryelow, that there is no sublimer study for the contemplation of the human brain than men and things. There are some few brains, I am sorry to say, that contemplate men and things with an intense indifference, but there's nothing so dear to a man of talent as the study of men and things."

[Miss Ryelow here attempts to faint, and is caught in the arms of her devoted Albrane.]

PRACTICAL PHILOSOPHY.—Southey says in one of his letters—"I have told you of the Spaniard who always put on his spectacles when he was about to eat cherries, that they might look bigger and more tempting. In like manner, I make the most of my enjoyments; and though I do not cast my cares away, I pack them in as little compass as I can, and carry them as conveniently as I can for myself, and never let them annoy others."

DANCING.—"I am now an old fellow," says Cowper in one of his letters, " but I had once my dancing day, as you have now; yet I could never find that I could learn half so much of a woman's character by dancing with her, as conversation with her at home, when I could observe her behaviour at the table, or at the fireside, and in all the trying scenes of domestic life. We are all good when pleased; but she is a good woman who wants not the fiddle to sweeten her.

A few days since, a gentleman near West Point took into his service a verdant son of the Emerald Isle. On the first day of his service, he was startled by the sound of the evening gun, as it reverbrated through the highlands, and awakened the mountain's slumbering echoes, and anxiously inquired of his employer the cause of the explosion, and was told that it was the " sundown gun." " Och, bless me," exclaimed Pat, " and does the sun make such a thunder as that going down in this country?"

Here is a very fair paragraph, which we commenced to the lovers of fair play, and the fair in general:—" Buy fair, sell fair, and love fair. By so doing, you will stand a fair chance of having a fair life and a fair funeral. Provided you don't raise the fare, when you own a steamboat."

CURES FOR THE UNCURED!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Aliday, 209, High Street, Cheltenham, dated the 22d of January, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Glandular Swelling in the neck, which after a short time broke out into an Ulcer. An eminent medical man pronounced it a very bad case of Scrofula, and prescribed for a considerable time without effect.—The disease then for four years went on gradually increasing in virulence, when, besides the ulcer in the neck, another formed below the left knee, and a third under the eye, besides seven others on the left arm, with a tumor between the eyes which was expected to break. During the whole of the time my suffering boy had received the constant advice of the most celebrated medical gentlemen at Cheltenham, besides being for several months at the General Hospital, where one of the surgeons said that he would amputate the left arm, but that the blood was so impure, that if that limb were taken off it would be then even impossible to subdue the disease. In this desperate state I determined to give your Pills and Ointment a trial, and after two months' perseverance in their use, the tumor gradually began to disappear, and the discharge from all the ulcers perceptibly decreased, and at the expiration of eight months they were perfectly healed, and the boy thoroughly restored to the blessings of health, to the astonishment of a large circle of acquaintances, who could testify to the truth of this miraculous case. Three years have now elapsed without any recurrence of the malady, and the boy is now as healthy as heart can wish. Under these circumstances I consider that I should be truly ungrateful were I not to make you acquainted with this wonderful cure, effected by your medicines after every other means had failed.

(Signed) J. H. ALIDAY.

CURE OF ACUTE RHEUMATISM OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. John Pitt, Dudley, 19th Jan. 1850,

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the benefit I have received from your Pills and Ointment, which have completely cured me of the Rheumatism, under which I suffered for this last four years, at times I was so bad as hardly to be able to walk. I had tried every kind of medicine that was recommended without receiving any benefit. I at last thought I would give your medicines a trial and purchased from Mr. Hollin, Chemist of this Town, two boxes of Pill and two of Ointment, and in three weeks through them and the blessing of God, I was restored to health and strength, and am now as well able to walk as ever I was in my life. I am well known in this parish, having been sixty-five years in it, with an exception of ten years I served in the 24th Regiment of Foot.

(Signed) JOHN PITT.

CURE OF A BAD LEG OF MORE THAN SIXTY YEARS' STANDING.

Mr. Barker, of No. 5, Graham's Place, Drypool, near Hull, had ulcers on his leg from the age of eighteen until upwards of eighty, and although for many years he had sought the first advice in the country, nothing was found to cure them. He very often suffered most excruciating pain for long periods together, which incapacitated him from attending to his business. He had given up all hopes of getting a cure when at last he was persuaded to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which he did, and however wonderful it may appear, the leg was thoroughly healed by their means, and by continuing to use the Pills alone after his leg was well, he has become in health so hale and hearty as now to be more active than most men of fifty.

N. B.—The truth of this extraordinary statement can be vouched for by Mr. J. C. Reinhardt, 22, Market Place, Hull. February 20th, 1850.

CURE OF A DESPERATE CASE OF RINGWORM, OF SIX YEARS' STANDING.

Lima, 13th November, 1849.

One of the most eminent Surgeons in Lima (the Capital of Peru) had a child covered with Ringworm for more than six years; in vain he exhausted all his art in his endeavours to effect a cure. Not succeeding, he consulted among his brethren, the most celebrated medical practitioners of the City, but nothing was found to do the child service. When he was persuaded by Mr. Joseph P. Hague, the English Chemist and Druggist, residing at 74, Calle de Pallacio, to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which was done, and after using six large Pots of the Ointment, with a proportion of the Pills, the child was radically cured, to the surprise of the whole medical profession. The name of the parent, from motives of delicacy is withheld.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Chiego-foot	Fistulas	Sore throats
Bad Breasts	Chilblains	Gout	Skin diseases
Burns	Chapped-hands	Glandular	Scurvy
Bunions	Corns (Soft)	Swellings	Sore heads
Bites of Mos-	Cancers	Lumbago	Tumours
chetoes and	Contracted &	Piles	Ulcers
Sand-Flies	Stiff joints	Rheumatism	Wounds
Cocoa-Bay	Elephantiasis	Scalds	Yaws
		Sore Nipples

Sold by the Proprietor at 244 Strand (near Temple Bar) London, and by GEO. T. HASZARD, Agent for P. E. Island, in Boxes and Pots, at 2s, 5s, 8s, and 20s each. There is a very considerable saving in taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of Patients are affixed to each Pot or Box.
