THE GRIT PICNIC.

The Guardian reports that the Grit picnic was a "pronounced" success. Judging by the report, it must be conceded that the speakers "pronounced" words setting forth "ideas" and "principles" inconsistent and discordant one with another. Mr. Davies pretends to believe in the possibility of free trade; Mr. Peters glories in the taxation of commercial travellers! Mr. Farquharson laments the duties imposed (by the United States) upon potatoes and eggs, and, at the same time, denounces the Canadian Government because a delegation was sent to Washington in the hope of obtaining the removal of these and other duties imposed under a hostile tariff! Men whose opinions hang so loosely, men whose principles as expressed in speech and action are so widely different, cannot be held together in a political party, except upon motives other than "the public good." These men will not probably impose much longer upon an intelligent people who have already suffered incalculable loss as a result of placing confidence in them. Mr. Davies and his followers have been consistent only in opposing every proposition and movement beneficial to this country at large and this province in particular. They fought tooth and nail against the Canadian Pacific Railway, which has raised the character and credit and improved the position of Canada as nothing else has done. They have continued to denounce the National Policy, even though Canada under it is now, taken for all in all, the most prosperous country of the world. They threw cold water upon the tunnel scheme and ridiculed the prosecution of the financial claims of this Province against the Dominion Government. On the other hand they were ever ready to support the fads of Wiman, Farrer and Sir Richard Cartwright. Commercial Union, involving the commercial enslavement of Canada to the United States, and Unrestricted Reciprocity leading on to Annexation,—these Yankee notions they were ready to support, if only the Government might thereby be overthrown.

We believe that the people of Prince Edward Island have had enough of these gentlemen and will be humbugged by them no longer. The folly of believing their statements and voting them into Parliament, has been demonstrated again and again. Though they may have a "great success" in attracting a few voters to a picnic, they will never again succeed in obtaining the votes of a majority of the people of Prince Edward Island.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Under the heading "Loans to Provincial Governments," in the bank statement for June we read: Merchants Bank of P. E. Island, $68,347; Merchants Bank of Halifax, $163,206. With such cash balances against, it is time for the grits to prate about economy.

—We learn that a greater number of mowing, reaping and binding, and other agricultural machines are being sold in this Province this year than ever before. We learn, further, that the prices of these machines are only about half what they were fourteen years ago. This is a result of protection!

—Stipendiary Magistrate Wright gave decision in the case of Macdonald vs. Rev. A. E. Burke, Dr. Murphy and W. P. Reid, imposing a nominal fine to cover costs of the case, and declining to give Macdonald damages on the ground that he had no jurisdiction. The decision is absurd. As such, it will be condemned by all right-thinking men.

—Henry Clews, in his New York letter of Saturday, writes: "One more week of delays, difficulties and disappointment. This briefly summarizes the course of affairs since our last advices. The tariff continued to unsettle business; serious damage befell our corn crop; gold went abroad at an unexpected rate, and the Treasury reserve again touched the lowest point on record. None of these contingencies was anticipated a week ago. They came as additional burdens upon an already complicated and depressed condition of affairs; and yet the stock market stubbornly refused to reflect these conditions. This unusual resistance of values to unfavorable developments is one of the most striking features of the situation; and not very easy of explanation. It is quite evident, however, that there is little, if any, artificial support, and it is equally apparent that the "bears" are unable to dislodge an important amount of stocks. The only plausible explanation is that a decided change of feeling has taken place, which thus far manifests itself, not in action but in patiently waiting for better things and resisting depressing influences. Despair has given way to hope, and, if confidence has not been fully restored, fear has certainly almost completely disappeared.

—The August number of Donahoe's Magazine contains a very good likeness of Dominick J. Kane, Esq., Consul for the United States at Charlottetown. The likeness is accompanied by a biographical sketch. Mr. Kane was born in Bangor, Me., on the 7th August, 1854, and therefore celebrated his fortieth birthday yesterday. He was the youngest of nine children. His father and mother were natives of Castlebar and Newport, County Mayo, Ireland, respectively. They came out to Boston in 1835, and in 1836 went to Bangor. After leaving the Bangor High School in 1871, Mr. Kane became clerk for a wholesale grocery house, and in 1880 went into business under the firm name of Kane & O'Connell, becoming sole proprietor in 1882, and for years doing the largest retail grocery business in Bangor. He has always been prominent in Catholic Church matters and societies. He served in both branches of the city government, being chairman of many important committees. In October, 1893, he was appointed by President Cleveland United States consul to Charlottetown. Mr. Kane was married in 1884 to Miss Jennie Lintott of Newark, N. J. They have three sons. Mr. Kane and his estimable wife have made hosts of friends during their residence in Charlottetown, who will join most heartily with The Examiner in wishing them many more very happy years.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S VISIT.

The reception committee of the City Council, composed of His Worship Mayor Dawson and Councillors Haszard, Hughes and Robertson, met this forenoon and completed arrangements for their portion of the reception to Lord and Lady Aberdeen.

The completed arrangements are about as follows:

H. M. S. Blake, with their Excellencies on board, will arrive here on Thursday evening, accompanied by the Tartar and Magicienne, and drop anchor off Pownal Wharf. As soon as the anchor is dropped, Mayor Dawson and the reception committee will board the ship and acquaint their Excellencies with the arrangements that have been made for their reception.

A salute will be fired from Fort Edward on the arrival of their Excellencies.

Their Excellencies will land at Pownal wharf, where the address of welcome from the city will be presented and read by His Worship Mayor Dawson.

This function concluded, a procession of firemen, City Councillors and police, with a band of music, will be formed on the wharf, which, with the guard of honor, will escort the distinguished visitors to Government House, where they will be guests of the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Howlan.

The route of the procession will be along Water Street to Great George, up Great George to Richmond, down Richmond to Queen, up Queen to Kent, and down Kent to Government House.

On Friday forenoon there will be a levee and reception at Government House, attended by ladies as well as gentlemen, and in the afternoon the agricultural conference will take place at the Charlottetown Driving Park. At this meeting addresses will be presented, and His Excellency will address those present. In the evening there will be a ball at Government House, and a display of fireworks at the market building. The fireworks display will begin about nine o'clock.

On Saturday their Excellencies will attend the Caledonian gathering at Georgetown, returning to Charlottetown in the evening and remaining until Monday morning.

Citizens living along the route of the procession are requested to clean up the weeds and grass in front of their premises, and ornament such as much as possible.

The arch at the City Building is rapidly approaching completion, and will be very handsome. It will be illuminated by incandescent lights and artistically festooned with roses, bunting and spruces. On the west side will be the inscription, "Welcome to Lord and Lady Aberdeen," and on the east, "Welcome to the Governor-General and Countess Aberdeen."

The arch at the railway station is also about completed, and will be a neat piece of work.

SCOTT ACT AT THE POLICE COURT.

This forenoon, Philip Curley appeared in response to two summonses for breaches of the Canada Temperance Act. In one case a sale of whiskey was proved and a fine of $50 and costs or two months imprisonment was imposed. The other case was adjourned for one week.

The prosecution brought by the police against Thomas Flynn, steward of the Charlottetown Club, was next heard. Mr. H. James Palmer appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Arthur Peters for the defence. After hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, judgment was reserved. A synopsis of the evidence is unavoidably crowded out of to-day's issue.

—The August number of The Canadian Magazine is rich in variety of interesting reading, and is well illustrated. Hon. David Mills in "The Missing Link in the Hypothesis of Evolution," points out the failure of the evolutionary theory to explain the phenomena of nature. John Ferguson, M. A., M. D., Ph. D., article on "The Physical Basis of Knowledge," writes popularly an explanation of brain function in relation to knowledge, which will do much to explode the belief entertained by very many in "phrenology," as popularly taught. "McMaster University," by E. P. Wells, is a most entertaining description of the well-equipped institutions now grouped under that educational organization. John A. Cooper writes thoughtfully on "Canadian Democracy and Socialism." Hugh Sutherland, ex M. P., reopens forcibly, a discussion of the advantages of the Hudson Bay Route as an outlet for the products of the North-West. Charles T. Long writes most entertainingly a description of the ceremonies which he witnessed in connection with the celebrations of "The Silver Wedding of the Emperor of Japan." "Lake St. John and the Saguenay," by E. T. D. Chambers, and "Four Famous Cathedrals," by Thomas E. Champion, are illustrated articles of wide interest. Honora S. Howard contributes a short description of the Longfellow Homestead, and Charles Gordon Rogers, a vivacious, illustrated account of a recent "Holiday in the Hills," north of the Ottawa. J. Donald Morrison in "A Case of Mistake Identity," deals with the misadventures encountered? through similarity of name to the noted outlaw of Megantic. Amongst short stories William Wilfred Campbell's, "Love's Tragedy at Scratch's Point," may well be pronounced amongst the best that have recently appeared. Several poems of merit add to the contents of an interesting number of a magazine which is admittedly one of the most entertaining on the continent. Published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto. $2.50 per annum.

Masonic Opera House.—Two of Harry Lindley's earliest and most successful plays will be presented at the theatre Friday and Saturday, Aug. 10th and 11th, "Over the Hills to the Poor House," written by Will Carleton and dramatized by Harry Lindley, and Bartley Campbell's greatest success entitled "Divorce." Mr. Lindley has been connected with both plays for nearly twenty years and some of his greatest hits were made in them. The late Sir John A. McDonald said on one occasion at Ottawa, that "Over the Hills to the Poor House" might well be called "Honor Thy Father and Mother." Mr. Lindley appears in a great negro role, for which part he gained the distinction of being the best negro representative on the stage. The play is well constructed and interesting. A grand matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon. Doors open at 2. In the evening, Divorce, in which play Mr. Lindley appears as a broken-down actor who has developed into a tramp. During the play he will sing his famous [illegible], 25 and 35 cents. Plans will be open at usual places at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Charlottetown Engineers.—Members of the Charlottetown Engineers will meet at the Drill Shed to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock to form in the Guard of Honor to the Governor General. A full attendance is particularly requested.

To merchants and others. Hand Book of the Canadian Tariff for 1894 arranged alphaletically, including tables of exchange, etc., etc., a very useful book, price 25 cents. For sale at Carters' Bookstore.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

St. John, Aug. 6.—The jury on the Corey case returned to court at five o'clock this afternoon with a verdict of guilty against the prisoner for passing counterfeit tokens and other money resembling United States bills.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—It is estimated that some members of the Board of Trade here have made half a million dollars on the present rise in September corn. Extensive purchases were made at 37 cents per bushel and to-day many sold out at 51 cents.

Washington, Aug. 6.—In the report of the Canton plague received today at the Mansion hospital bureau, Consul Charles Seymour, writing under date of June 23rd, says: "They have forgotten Canton and the surrounding country." The consul reports that the plague does not seem to yield to medical treatment that the mortality is 50 p. c. of cases, and that the deaths since March number 4,000.

Quebec, Aug. 6.—A letter has reached here conveying the most distressing news as to the impoverished condition of many of the Indian tribes who roam in winter in the interior of Labrador peninsula. The destruction of game by forest fires and other causes is gradually depriving the Indians of the necessary means of support. Seven Montagnais families recently arrived at Mingan who left a year ago for the northeast shore of Hudson Bay. They report that many of the Waskonapi Indians, who hunt that portion of the country, died from hunger last winter, the caribou having failed them. Their tribe has almost become extinct, owing to the death of many of many poor people.

Paris, Aug. 6.—A despatch from Tien Tsin says Jules Leon Dutreuil de Rhens, geographer and explorer, has been murdered in Thibet. His body was found in the river. His diary and scientific data were missing. The French minister in Pekin protested against the crime and called upon the Chinese government to recover the body and papers and indemnify the explorer's family.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, at the instance of the papal authorities, has suggested to the state department a desire for an early return of the Columbia relics from the vatican which have been in the custody of the department since their exhibition at the world's fair. The department is in some straits about the matter for it is pledged to carry the valuable relics on a man-of-war, and the navy department sees no chance to detail a ship for that service in the immediate future.

Canadian Pacific railway earnings over expenses in the six months ending June 30th, were $784,039 less than in the same period of 1893. The floods in British Columbia had something to do with the extent of the falling off, but all railways have severely felt the effects of the continental depression, notwithstanding every effort at economizing.

Lord Rosebery has entered three horses for the Derby of 1896. The Premier either intends to play the horsey vote against that of the anti-horsey nonconformists, or else he expects by 1896 to be in a position where votes and popular clamor will not matter to him. As Lord Salisbury is working to put him into opposition, it may be that his possible expectation that will be realized.

The Montreal Gazette's Newfoundland correspondent says of the Labrador branch of the Deep Sea mission, that if ever there was a work of mercy and benevolence that which is conducted by Dr. Grenfell deserves the name. Between twenty and twenty-five thousand fishermen and members of their families resort to the shore every season, and are, in effect, outside of the reach of medical aid, excepting that provided by the mission.

The Empire states that among the election protests filed in Ontario are several against Patrons of Industry by the Liberal party managers. This bears no resemblance to co-operation between the two sections. Yet the Government are holding on to office in the expectation of support from the very men whose seats in the Legislature are being protested by the agents of Ministers. This makes the position of Sir Oliver Mowat and his colleagues all the worse.

There is a strange story of how Sir Walter Scott produced "The bride of Lammermoor" during his illness and was afterwards found to have forgotten entirely what he had thus created. According to James Ballantyne, "the book was written and published before Scott was able to rise from his bed, and he assured me, when it was first put into his hands in a complete shape that he did not recollect a single incident, character or conversation it contained. The original incident of the story which he had known from boyhood is still remembered; but he knew no more about the story he had written than he did before he began to write, or even think about writing it." These facts are corroborated by Mr. Lockhart, Sir Walter Scott's son-in-law and stenographer, so that they are placed beyong question.

PROVINCIAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting.

The range yesterday presented a very picturesque appearance, dotted with the uniforms of our gallant volunteers, who are holding their annual Provincial competition. Intermingled with them was a squad of sturdy tars from H.M. S. Partridge, who had been invited to take part. The men were in the greatest cheer, as everything was as favorable as could be expected. The wind was blowing slightly from left to right. This morning the wind held out from the same quarter. The men got to work in fine style, making some good scores at the 500 yards range, Lieut. E. Stewart, Sergt. J. M. Crockett and Corp. Anderson making 34 points out of a possible 35.

Mr. L. E. Prowse, M. L. A., visited the range this morning and made his annual presentation, which was received in wonted volunteer form, with three cheers and a tiger. It is to be competed for by any number of teams of three each from every company, for which 19 teams have entered. The following have made presentations:—D. Nicholson, Esq., of the firm of Hickey & Nicholson, a caddy of bright smoking tobacco; The Examiner, Patriot and Guardian a daily each; Geo. H. Taylor, Esq., a very valuable silver butter dish. A. B. Warburton, M. L. A., Lieut. Col. Moore, and Surgeon Jenkins, five dollars each. The latter is to be fired for in the fifth competition. The success of the competition is due chiefly to Captain D. Stewart. The efficient chairman of the executive committee who as range officer, did the Island and himself, much credit.

Gun. W. W. Jenkins was omitted from the list of the second competion. He was second with a score of 24, winning seven dollars:

The Strike Off.—At a meeting in Chicago on Monday of the general strike committee selected by the special convention of the American Railway Union last week, it was decided to declare the great strike off in Chicago. This does not include the Chicago and Eastern Illinois nor the Santa Fee where the men voted to continue the strike to settle local grievances and where they think they have a fair show of winning. Twenty-four local unions were represented at the meeting, each representative empowered to vote to declare the strike off. The Pullman employes are expected to settle their due grievances.
