Trifles.

What will it matter in a little while
That for a day
We met and gave a word, a touch, a smile,
Upon the way?

What will it matter whether hearts were brave,
And lives were true;
That you gave me the sympathy I crave,
As I gave you?

These trifles! Can it be they make or mar
A human life?
Are souls as lightly swayed as rushes are,
By love, or strife?

Yea! Yea! a look a fainting heart may break,
Or make it whole;
And just one word, if said for love's sweet sake,
May save a soul.

The Want of a Ruler.

A TURK ANXIOUS FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT IN ASIA MINOR.

Constantinople letter:—A Turkish gentleman of position, who has just returned to this capital from a tour in Asia Minor, gives a most distressing account of the state of affairs which he witnessed in the provinces. The unfortunate population, he states, are everywhere ground down by the provincial governers, and reduced to a state of misery almost defying description. For instance, these functionaries, whose object is to enrich themseives during their tenure of office at the expense of the miserable pesantry, levy black-mail right and left. Woe to the individual who fails to satisfy the cupidity of the governing class! He is at once arrested, an iron collar is fixed round his neck, and he is marched off to a filthy prison, there to remain until he shall have managed to scrape together the sum claimed by his tormentors. Mussulmans and Christians are treated in this respect with equal impartiality. Everywhere he went, the same distressing scenes came under his notice. At some places it became known that he was a relative of influential personages in the capital, and, in consequence, complaints poured in to him from every side. It was always the same story—ill-treatment by the local authorities. At Alexandretta he met a number of Turkish soldiers, natives of Bagdad, who, having finished their term of service with the army, were landed at that port, and left to find the way to their homes as best as they might. Without a piastre in their pockets—for they had not been paid for years—in rags, and fever-stricken, they wandered about, many to die with neglect. And the Turkish Government looks on with indifference at the sufferings of the poor wretches who had, for seven years, faithfully served their country in the Yemen. My informant added in tones full of indignation.—"Let England, or France, or, indeed, any European Power, take the country which is being so fearfully misgoverned For, Turk though I am, I cannot but feel that the people would be happy and prosperous under a foreign Government."

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhœa or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagnia, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the puepose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

MONTREAL, May 14, 1883.

Dr. Bennet, Halifax.

DEAR DOCTOR,—Just a few lines as promised by me. I am more than pleased with the "Liver Pad" I got from you when in Charlottetown, and can conscientiously say that it is the best thing I ever saw or heard of. It has done for me what all kinds of medicine and different physicians could not do for me—i. e., removed a very nasty body eruption, which had given me a great deal of annoyance for more than two years; and, more than that, I have not been troubled with a single headache since I have used it. Before wearing the Pad I was troubled with severe headaches continually; and that very objectionable feeling of sluggishness and dullness has entirely left me—in fact I am a new man, to what I was before wearing it. I am truly thankful to you for what you have done for me, and I hope that you may be long spared to the benefit of the public.

Believe me,
Yours sincerely,
FRANK ELLIOTT.
