MELANCHOLY AFFAIR.—The body of a Post Office Clerk, named R. C. Burnham, was last week found lying dead on the Military Wharf North West Arm, Halifax. Over the right eye was a bullet hole. No pistol was near. It is not known whether the shot was accidental or intentional.

GRAIN VESSEL LOST.—A telegram to the Ocean Marine Insurance Company states that the brigantine Carmina from Summerside, P. E. I., with a cargo of oats, bound for Greenland, went ashore on Saturday night at St. Peter's Island, C. B., and became a total wreck.—Halifax Reporter.

MR. McLEOD'S LETTER.—A letter from the pen of Joseph McLeod, Esq., of Washington, is published on the first page of this issue of the EXAMINER. We have pleasure in "standing corrected" by the EXAMINER's old friend. The article to which he alludes, was collated from our Ontario exchanges, and the statement in it, which he corrects, was published inadvertently.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Cumming, who lives in Lot 31, on his way home from town, near Poplar Island Bridge, fell from his cart and was killed. Mr. Cumming was in the store of the Hon. P. Walker, about 4 o'clock, where he did some business, and left with the intention of going directly home. We did not learn at what time the accident took place. The deceased was a very respectable man, about forty-five years of age. One of his daughters accompanied him to the city, intending to remain some time. She, therefore, was not with him when he fell from the cart.—Post.

THE OLD BURYING GROUND.—The Patriot asks: Who has charge of the Old Burying Ground? Cannot something be done towards putting it in decent order? It is simply disgraceful to allow it to remain in its present neglected condition. Will not some of our public spirited fellow-citizens of the different Protestant denominations, take the matter in hand? We believe that hard as the times are, a good committee could raise enough by private subscription, to make the last resting place of the relatives and friends of very many of us beautiful instead of being an eye-sore, as at present.

BURST IN EFFERV.—A number of miners from Stellarton and Westville, burnt Mr. Carmichael, in effigy on Thursday last, at the crossing near the railroad, on the opposite side of the river from New Glasgow. The proceeding was conducted in a very orderly manner, and no serious attempt at interruption was made. About a hundred men were present at the burning, but a large number were a short distance off, determined that their friends should be unmolested, and a right patent to all, be equally shared by them; but there was no occasion for their services.—Picton Standard.

BENEVOLENT IRISH SOCIETY.—At a meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society, held at St. Dunstan's Reading Room, on Monday the 15th inst., the President, James Reddin, Esq., in the chair, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Society be returned to the members of the O'Connell Centenary Committee for their donations to the Society of $215.39, to be expended for charitable purposes. Resolved, That the thanks of this Society be returned to the following gentlemen, for donations.—Wm. Welsh, Esq., M. P., $20. Owen Connolly, Esq., $2; and Wm. C. Bourke, Esq., $2. Resolved, That the foregoing resolution be published in the City newspapers.

CHARLES E. KELLY, Sec'y.

ARRESTING A RENAWAY.—A Prince Edward Islander, who came to Moncton a year ago and managed to build a house at the expense of his creditors, sold out his property a few days ago and decamped. It was found that he was endeavoring to get to the Island in the "Princess of Wales," and a constable was sent to Point du Chene to arrest him. The officers of the boat, however, stated that he was not on board, and the constable returned. The next day another constable was sent to the Point but he also failed to make an arrest, and finally, one of the creditors, believing that the man was in the boat, went down and took passage in her for the Island. On the way over the fugitive made his appearance, feeling sure, no doubt, that he would soon be in the tight little Island and have his New Brunswick debts all paid. But unfortunately for him the boat was obliged to put back, owing to ice in the Straits, and thus it came to pass that the rig of our Northern clime had the effect of compelling one rascal to be honest for once in his life. He was arrested and paid several claims against him; and still, we believe, some parties who have not yet interviewed him would much like to have that officers. The conduct of the captain and crew of the boat in harboring the runaway and aiding his escape is unfavorably commented upon.—Moncton Times.

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL.

The annual public examination of the pupils of this institution took place on the evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday last. The examination was, we were pleased to see, well attended by the parents and friends of the boys—as well as by many friends of the cause of education. We can easily imagine that one of the most chilling experiences a teacher has to undergo, is an examination of his school, at which—though notice has been given—nobody attends. This has been the experience of many of the best and most painstaking public school teachers. But it has not been the experience of the teachers of St. Patrick's School. The reason probably is, that until lately—and even now—it has been considered to be, to a certain extent, connected with the Church—and people generally, take a deep interest in anything connected with their Church. This fact, in our opinion, lies at the bottom of the success which has attended the sectarian schools of Charlottetown. The apathy with which people regard any thing maintained only by Government, is probably, the chief reason why our public schools are so utterly demoralized as they are. At any rate, the examination of St. Patrick's School was so well attended, that the hum and clutter of the audience, must have been very distracting to the scholars. Among those present we noticed His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown, Rev. Donald McNeill, Rev. James McDonald, Father Trudelle, Mr. Justice Hensley, County Judge Reddin, Professor Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, Professor Caven, Mr. Montgomerie of the Normal School, Hon. F. Kelly, Hon. J. O. Arsenault, Hon. A. A. McDonald, and many other prominent citizens.

The pupils were examined in all the ordinary branches of secular knowledge. Professors Caven and Anderson assisted in the examination of those in the advanced classes. The following branches composed the programme on Wednesday evening:—

- 1 Canada History.
2 English Grammar.
3 Reading.
4 Book-Keeping, Single & Double Entry.
5 Arithmetic, lowest grade.
6 History of Greece, (Ancient).
7 Mental Arithmetic.
8 Geography & Map Drawing.
9 Exercises on the Globes.
10 Astronomy.
11 Arithmetic, 2nd grade.
12 Measurement, of Surfaces & Solids.
13 Geometry, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th & 6th Books.
14 Algebra, 1st, 2nd, 3rd grades.

After the exercises were over Judge Hensley briefly and highly complimented teachers and pupils on the gratifying results of their labors. He mentioned particularly the good discipline of the school. Good discipline, he told the pupils, would be of great advantage to them throughout their careers. It is one secret of the success of all really great men. He exhorted the pupils to make good use of the opportunities afforded them. Professor Anderson said it afforded him great pleasure to be present at the examination. He fully endorsed Judge Hensley's favorable opinion respecting the character of the school. It was, he said, evident that there were some very smart fellows among the pupils. The problems in Geometry which they had solved at his bidding were, considering the nervousness incident to the presence of strangers and the difficulty of understanding an examiner to whom they were unaccustomed—remarkably well worked out. He advised the pupils to make the best use of their opportunities. They are, he said, in a much better position than the majority of the boys of Scotland; and some of them might, if they only aimed high enough, become Prime Minister or Chief Justice of the Dominion. He exhorted them to aim high; not to be diverted from their purposes by reason of difficulties in the way; to work hard, to read much, and above all to cultivate habits of thought. Those who had thought deepest had risen highest. His Lordship the Bishop on behalf of the pupils, thanked Judge Hensley and Professor Anderson for their kind words and their good advice. He said he felt sure many of the boys present would endeavor to profit by it. The school was then dismissed.

FALSE BALANCES. [From the Irish Canadian.] To place our arrangement of the Hon. David Laird in a brief form, we give here nineteen specifications of one of its counts—as to the falsehood of his balances. Representing, as many of these do, money set apart in his office safe, or distinct sums placed to his credit at the bank, his misrepresentations in those cases are of a character most startling. To this we have only to add, for the guidance of those who wish to test the accuracy of our figures, that the page of the Finance Report given in the table is that of Part III, of the page of the Interior Report, that of the part applying to Indian Affairs:—

Table with columns: Interior Report, Finance Report, Amount, Balance on hand, etc. for various regions like Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, etc.

CARDIGAN BRANCH

OF THE NONPAREIL CARRIAGE FACTORY

AND AGRICULTURAL WORKS!

Good Work Triumphant!

NOTWITHSTANDING the Dull Times, the demand for my make of Carriages, Sleighs, Threshing Machines, Fanmills, etc., in King's County, has rendered it necessary, in order to supply the rapidly increasing demand, that I should extend my business into that County. I have, therefore, at the request of a large number of my friends and patrons, opened a BRANCH FACTORY AT CARDIGAN BRIDGE, which is conducted by a competent mechanic, who served his time in the "Nonpareil," and has since worked for several years in the United States—a mechanic who knows his business, and has such an interest in the work as to allow nothing but a faithful job to pass. He and several competent workmen will attend to the wants of the public in that County.

The stock used in the construction of the work will be of the best imported, viz:—American Hickory, Oak, Ash, Elm, Bass, Whitewood, etc., etc. The iron will be of the best English made; and Norway and Swedish iron will be used for the parts requiring extra strength and durability.

Also, in connection with the said branch is a PAINT SHOP, which is conducted by a first-class carriage-painter, who will attend to the painting of new and second-hand work for the public.

Persons wishing work done in the Carriage, Sleigh, or Farming Implements line, will please call and they will be treated courteously and fairly dealt with. All kinds of REPAIRING, including Mowing Machines, done. Prices Moderate; Terms Easy.
