The Pope's Encyclical.

AN AUTHENTIC TRANSLATION OF HIS HOLI-

NESS' LETTER ON A CHURCHMAN'S DUTY

TO THE STATE—SOCIALISM VIGOROUSLY

CONDEMNED—TRUE FREEDOM AND PRO-GRESS APPROVED.

BALTIMORE, November 25.—The first full and authentic translation into English of Leo XIII's encyclical on the Christian Constitution of States appears very different from the cable condensations already published. Instead of condemning in any way modern civilization or states as they exist at present, the Pope highly approves of all real progress and true freedom. After condemning anarchism and lawlessness, Leo XIII.

continues:—These, then, are the things taught by the Catholic Church concerning the constitution and government of the state. Concerning these sayings and decrees, if a man will only judge dispa-sionately, no form of government is, per se, condemned so long as it has nothing regugnant to Catholic doctrine, and is able, if wisely and justly managed, to preserve the state in the best condition.

Nor is it, per se, to be condemned whether the people have greater or less share in the Government; for, at certain times and with the guarantee of certain laws, such participation may appertain not only to the usefulness but even to the duty of citizens. Moreover, there is no just cause that anyone should condemn the Church as being too restricted in gentleness or inimical to that liberty which is natural and legitimate. In truth, the Church judges it not lawful that the various kinds of worship should have the same right as the true religion; still, it does not therefore condemn those governors of states who, for the sake of acquiring some great good or preventing some great ill, patiently bear with manners and customs so that each kind of religion has its place in the state. Indeed, the Church is wont diligently to take heed that none be compelled against his will to embrace the Catholic faith. For a similar reason the Church cannot approve of that liberty which generates a contempt of the most sacred laws of God and puts away the obedience due to legitimate power, for this is license rather than liberty. On the other hand that liberty is natural and to be sought which, if it be considered in relation to the individual, suffers not men to be the slaves of errors and evil desires, the worst of masters, if in relation to the state it presides wisely over the citizens, serves the faculty of augmenting public advantages, and defends the public interest from alien rule.

This blameless liberty, worthy of men, the Church approves above all, and has never ceased striving to keep firm and
