IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

The Preferential Clause Further Discussed.

Mr. Macdonald's Excellent Speech—Amendments Lost.

OTTAWA, June 2.—The time of the House of Commons yesterday afternoon was occupied with a further discussion of preferential clause, mostly in the way of questions and brief criticisms which however did not elicit much information.

The discussion was resumed after recess when the amendment requiring parliamentary consent was lost.

Among the speeches on the main clause was an excellent address by Mr. Macdonald, of King's, P. E. Island. McNeill, the leader of the Imperial Federation party in the House here proposed an amendment which was lost on a vote of 33 to 67.

The House adjourned shortly after midnight.

An address to the Queen is the order for today.

Both parties hold caucuses today. The hope is expressed by some of the party leaders on both sides that the session may end by June 20th, but there is a big three weeks business on the docket.

Belgium and Germany Protest.

LONDON, June 2.—Replying in the Commons to a question, the Secretary of State for the colonies said that Belgium and Germany had protested against British goods entering Canada at a lower tariff.

Mr. Chamberlain added that the law officers of the Crown were considering the matter.

The Standard editorially says it is difficult to see how a conclusion can be arrived at favorable to the Canadian desire.

The Prohibition Plebiscite.

LONDON, Ont., June 2.—The Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec has passed a resolution objecting to the addition to the prohibition plebiscite of a willingness to accept direct taxation if prohibition comes.

Address to the Queen.

OTTAWA, June 2.—In the Senate yesterday Hon. Mr. Mowatt moved and Sir MacKenzie Bowell seconded a loyal address to the Queen. Senator Bernier expressed the loyalty of the French-speaking people.

The Bay Chaleurs Railway.

METAPEDIA, June 2.—The Atlantic and Lake Superior road will take over the management of the Bay Des Chaleur Railway from the I. C. R. today.

The Derby,

HALIFAX, June 2.—Gallemore won the Derby, with Velasquez second and History third.

P. E. Island Fish Report.

Georgetown —cod fishing fair lobsters and herring scarce.

LOSS OF APPETITE. Those who have lost appetite, who have difficulty after eating, and who suffer from nervous exhaustion, will derive great benefit by using "Wyeth's Liquid Malt Extract," It produces a relish for food, s an excellent digestive agent, and fortifies nd strengthens the system.

A HANDSOME

Dining Room

Where the walls and ceilings are made dainty and attractive by our unique designs and rich and beautiful coloring in wall papers, is an incentive to a failing appetite. At no time of the year does your room need a new dress es much as when Spring comes out in her new garb and shames the dingy room where Winter has left its impress in smoke and dust. Look at our new and lovely stock of wall papers.

JUNE MAGAZINES.

HARPER'S.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine for June containe. besides the usual store of excellent fiction, a number of highly instructive and interesting articles. These include "The Celebrities of the British House of Commons," "Meterological Progress of the Century," "An Elder Brother of the Cl ifl-Dwellers," "White Man's Africa," etc., and with the Editor's Study and Drawer, making up a capital June number.

LIPPINCOTT'S.

"As Any Gentleman Might," is the title of the new novel which forms the larger part of the June number of this high-class periodical. This is a really good story with a good end. It is supplemented by a number of short, pithy and well-written articles and sketches.

THE NATIONAL.

The National Magazine for June presents an attractive table of contents. In "Antitoxin, a Modern Triumph," we have an interesting account of the manner in which the serum by which bacterial poisons, such as that of diphtheria, are prepared; and "Some Recollections of the Century" are interesting, as also the short stories, poems and sketches.

MESSAGE TO MEN.

Proving that True Honesty and True Philanthropy Still Exist.

If any man who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell, and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-beings to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c silver to cover postage and address Mr. Geo. G. Strong, North Rockwood, Mich. 135p&w.
