LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"FOOTBALL" ANSWERED.

Sir,—In your last issue there appeared a letter over the signature of "Football," which would lead a person to believe that the Crescent Football Club has tried to back out of the arrangements made for a game with St. Dunstan's this fall.

The facts of the matter are that the Crescent Football Club has lost two of the members of its team, whose positions are very hard to fill.

I went to the College personally, and having explained the position the club was in, I asked for a postponement of the game until the club could hold a meeting, which is called for this evening.

I also agreed to advise the St. Dunstan's Secretary what steps would be taken at the meeting, and if a team of 15 men could be secured, he could depend on us for a game.

"Football" says: "The St. Dunstan's are ready." Well, in all probability they will have a chance of showing their play in a very few days against the Crescents, who are at present the champions of Prince Edward Island, and who will, when they are beaten fairly upon the football field, (not in the newspapers) give up their claim to that honour.

Yours &c., A. D. MacDONALD, Secy. C. F. B. C.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Sir,—The announcement of Messrs. Ferguson and Blake disclaiming all responsibility for the appointment of Mr. John Good to the Railway was needed in order to place these gentlemen right with the Liberal Conservative party in Queens County.

It would, however, have been more satisfactory had you received authority to state exactly who is to blame for the blunder that has been the means of creating such an uproar amongst the deserving mechanics of the party.

They at least have a right to know who it was that passed their claim over and gave employment to a girl. Let us have the information.

LIBERAL CONSERVATIVE. A COUNCILLOR CRITICIZED.

Sir,—Councillor Taylor may be termed the bully of the City Council. His language last night bristled with profanity, and was certainly not very edifying to the voters who are unfortunately represented by him.

His oft-repeated statement that everybody was booting and he thought he would try his hand at the same, looked as if it were practically demonstrated when the stove-pipe and his brother's bill were laid on the table.

Councillor Taylor, after making a most childish and maudlin plea for billiard tables to be run by Mr. P. G. Gilman, who, of course, will sell no liquor where such are—in perfect harmony with his bold announcement that he did not care two figs for religion, and his strong objection to a Catholic being appointed on the police force.

Why the Councillor has such a strong antipathy to a Catholic I cannot understand. Such men as Taylor neither adorn nor help a Council.

LAW AND ORDER.

Too Bad!—A pie social was held at Windsor last week, at which the baskets were auctioned off by Sheriff Horne.

One of the baskets was "bid in" by a young man from Charlottetown, who feels very bad over the fact that instead of having the basket handed over to him it was appropriated by a brother of the auctioneer and taken home.

The basket, it may be explained, was prepared by a niece of the man who marched off with it, and, according to pie social etiquette, she would have to render the young man material assistance in sampling its contents.

The young man is at a loss to understand why the basket should miscarry in this way, as by this act he was done out of a privilege distinctly his according to the rules and regulations in such cases made and provided.
