country, as soon as it becomes law, to make themselves acquainted with its provisions, and to allow no silly prejudice or no unreasonable distrust of their neighbors to hinder them from forming such societies in those settlements where they are required.

We were exceedingly shocked to learn by a telegram received on Friday night last, that the Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee had been assassinated. In the absence of definite information, all sorts of conjectures was afloat as to what were the motives which actuated the murderer or murderers. Since then we have received other telegrams, confirming the startling news, and that the assassin had been captured, with numbers of others who are supposed to be implicated in the murder, and who were known to be members of the Fenian organization. A Watchman of the House of Commons Buildings was also shot about the same time. In another column will be found the particulars, so far as we have obtained them, of the atrocious murders.

THE Couriers with part of the English mail, arrived at Cape Traverse on Friday afternoon, and arrived in town the same night. And on Sunday the remaining part of the English mail, and the Colonial and American mails arrived at Cape Traverse at 11.30 a. m. and arrived in town about 4 p. m. the same evening. The news by the English mail is not of much importance. In another column will be found the most interesting items.

ON our first page will be found the Report of the Committee on Highways, and several State Papers relating to the Land Tenures. The large amount of space required for these documents, and for the Debates of the Legislature, accounts in a great measure for the meagre state of our news columns.

WE give below, the memorial of His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown, and the reply which has been made to it by the Government. So much has appeared on the subject matter of these documents, in recent numbers of the Examiner, that we deem further comment upon them, at present, unnecessary.

To His Excellency George Dundas, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor, &c., &c., in Council.

The humble memorial of the undersigned, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Charlottetown,

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

That, in the year 1833, the late Right Reverend Æneas Bernard McEachern, Roman Catholic Bishop of Charlottetown, did Establish a College or Institution of learning, at St. Andrew's, in Kings County, which he endowed with certain Lands and Property, which were invested in Trustees, by an Act of the Legislature, the same year, for the support of said College.

That, with the aid of a grant from the Legislature every year, up to 1844, the College was kept in active operation, when it was deemed advisable by the late Right Reverend Bernard Ronald McDonald, then Roman Catholic Bishop of Charlottetown, to erect a College on a larger scale, near Charlottetown, now called St. Dunstan's College, and which he endowed with certain Lands in the Royalty of Charlottetown, and in aid of which, the income arising from the property of St. Andrew's College, has been appropriated, since it was opened, in the year 1855.

That, in the year 1857, a Female Boarding and Day School was opened in Charlottetown, conducted by the Ladies' of the Congregation of Notre Dame, in which most of the higher branches of a female Education are taught, while a larger number of the poor children of the city have been, and are still taught, free of any expense whatever.

That, in the year 1862, another School was opened on Pownal Street, known as St. Joseph's School, conducted also by some of the Ladies from the Convent of Notre Dame, which, although numerously attended, very few of them paid any fees whatever.

That, another Female Boarding and Day School was opened in Miscouche, in Prince County, in 1864, in which the usual higher branches of Female Education are taught, and at which a large number of pupils attend daily.

That, between the four Educational Institutions just named, there are upward of five hundred pupils in attendance, three-fourths of whom, being of the poorer classes, pay nothing whatever.

That, while your memorialist feels convinced that the education imparted in those institutions just named, is superior to any that can be had in the District Schools, he feels it a grievance that he gets no aid from the Public School fund of the colony, not even as much for the number of children taught free, as should be paid for them if they attended district schools.

That, in seeking for a redress of this grievance, Memorialist disclaims all idea of any exclusive privilege—nothing more than even-handed justice is desired, and that he has for some years, with no little sacrifice and inconvenience, endeavoured to establish and maintain those institutions which he considered essential to a sound Catholic Education, in the earnest hope, that, one day, simple justice would be received at the hands of the gentlemen composing the Legislature.

Your memorialist therefore earnestly entreats your Excellency in Council to consider impartially his case, and ask the Legislature to alter the present School Law, so as to permit his schools to participate in a fair proportion of the school fund, according to their numbers and efficiency, or a special grant to answer the same purpose, and your memorialist

Will ever pray,

[Signed] † PETER McINTYRE,
R. C. Bishop of Ch'town.

My Lord,

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council, having had under consideration your Lordship's Memorial, praying that your Schools in this Island may participate in a fair proportion of the school fund of the Colony: I am instructed to acquaint your Lordship that whilst the Council freely acknowledge the great and meritorious exertions made by your Lordship in the cause of Education, they regret that they do not feel themselves in a position to submit the proposed grant to the consideration of the Legislature.

FAT CATTLE.—At the Queen's County Easter Show of Fat Cattle, held in Charlottetown yesterday, the principle exhibitors were Messrs. Blake and Bridges. The cattle of the former, especially, excited universal admiration; but it will be difficult to say who really deserves the palm of merit until the Beef be exhibited in the Market-house on Saturday next. The show has never been excelled in this Colony—the motto of Messrs. Blake and Bridges being excelsior. The following is the live weight of the cattle exhibited:—

KING THEODORE PREPARING TO GIVE BATTLE.

SUEZ, MARCH 21.—Advices received here from Abyssinia (date not given) state that King Theodore was entrenched on the Talanta plateau, and that he intended giving battle. The Filts? (Fifth Brigade was to advance on Ashangi on the 11th March. Nearly all the troops are now on the high lands (received as "zighainds)." Large supplies have been collected in the neighbourhood of Antalo. Letters received from an officer at head-quarters state that Theodore was said to have 13 guns in Magdala, and was storing the place with provisions. He was also said to have 10,000 disciplined troops, and to be quite determined to fight. The British officers and men were anxious to storm the fortress.

THE PRINCE OF WALES' VISIT TO IRELAND.

We understand that the Corporation of Dublin have, through the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, invited his Royal Highness to participate in the opening of the new Waterworks for the city. It will be remembered that her Majesty was pleased to give her countenance and encouragement to a similar enterprise in Scotland, by participating in the opening of the Glasgow Waterworks, and it is hoped that the Prince will confer a like advantage on Ireland. The preparations for the reception of the Prince and, it is hoped, the Princess of Wales, are being carried on at Dublin Castle with great vigor. The apartments usually occupied by the Lord Lieutenant and his family are to be set apart for the Prince. All the couches, chairs, and other furniture are to be upholstered in blue tabinet. At St. Patrick's Cathedral £2,000 is to be expended in the alterations necessary to make it suitable for the grand ceremony of which it is to be the scene. It has been arranged that the Prince shall proceed in her Majesty's yacht, Enchantress, Commander Petley, which has been taken into basin at Woolwich Dockyard, where she is undergoing repair and embellishment for the purpose.

SERIOUS STORMS IN THE ATLANTIC AND LOSS OF LIFE.

Intelligence has been received that the storms which raged in this country several weeks since were felt with equal severity on the American continent. All the vessels leaving Liverpool towards the end of last month met fearful weather on the voyage out, and arrived at New York in a crippled state. On the southern Seaboard the hurricane was of a most desolating character, and in the neighborhood of Key West and the Gulf, several wrecks had occurred, many with loss of life. The American bark Delnah, which left Newport on Feb. 28, when to the westward of Landy, shipped a tremendous sea, which washed one man overboard, broke another seaman's leg, and carried away bulwarks, &c. The Alma Jane, bound from Cienfuegos for Halifax, was driven ashore on 27th ult., about five miles from Halifax, and became a total wreck. Two of the crew and the chief officer were drowned. The M. A. Snee, bound from New Orleans to New York, has been totally wrecked on Long Island. The majority of the people on board perished; and amongst the bodies recovered and buried by the wreckers were those of Mr. John Coleman, Mr. Mitchel Portague, and another whose identity could not be ascertained. The body of the chief officer had not been recovered. The steamer Norman, which was driven ashore in Boston harbor, will, it is expected, become a total wreck. A large brig went ashore on the Dutchman's Bank, and the Pennon life-boat put off to her assistance; the boat capsized, but righted again. Part of the crew succeeded in getting into the boat, but some were afterwards seen in the water. A steamtug started for the brig, but failed to reach her.

THE FENIAN "CAPTAIN" DEASY.

At Salford, on Thursday morning, a man giving the name of Russell, was arrested by the police on the supposition that he was the "Captain" Deasy who was rescued from the prison van in Hyde-road, Manchester, with "Colonel" Kelly, on the memorable 18th of September last. On Wednesday the Chief Constable received information that Deasy was lodging at the house of a man named Stanford, 60, Oldsall-lane, Salford, close by Ordsall-station of the Manchester and Liverpool Railway. The information being corroborated by other circumstances which had come to the knowledge of the police, the Chief Constable of Salford and inspector of the police went to the place at half-past 7 o'clock and found the supposed Fenian leader asleep in bed, and having under his pillow a dagger and a loaded single-barrelled pistol. As above stated, he gave the name of Russell, and said he was a house painter. Stanford is a night-watchman in the employ of the Wigan Coal Company. None of the Manchester police who have yet seen the prisoner have identified him as the veritable "Captain" Deasy, though some of them speak of a resemblance. One of the reports current is that he is not Deasy, but a Fenian financial agent who has been employed to supply the Fenians here and elsewhere with funds. One correspondent hears on good authority that there is reason to suppose that Deasy has never left the neighborhood since his rescue. He was attacked with a dangerous sickness soon afterwards, requiring the attendance of a medical man; yet with such fidelity have those who are privy to his place of confinement guarded the secret that the police have hitherto been baffled. Persons have professed to give them the secret; but whether purposely to mislead, or because themselves misled, is of little importance.

A Manchester paper says:—The prisoner was taken to the Manchester Town-hall, where it was speedily ascertained that he was not Deasy. That person has a deep scar, as of a sword wound, on his cheek; whereas the man in custody has no such mark. At Manchester the man gave the name of O'Farrell.

MORE ARRESTS IN CORK.

CORK, THURSDAY.—Four arrests were made to-day for Fenianism. The prisoners' names are Ferris, Coughlan, Griffin and Adams. Ferris has only just returned from America. The arrests are deemed important.

MORE FENIAN OUTRAGES AT CORK.

The house of Mr. John Cronin, North Main-street, Cork, one of the most public thoroughfares in the city, was entered at seven o'clock on Tuesday evening by several armed men, who presented revolvers, demanding guns and other arms in the name of the Irish Republic. Having overawed the inmates they went to a bed-room and took a gun, which they carried off. The Protestant Church of Buttevant, in the county of Cork, was attempted to be fired by some miscreants, who threw a case of combustibles with an ignited fuse through a window, but in the fall the fuse was quenched.

FENIAN EXCITEMENT IN VICTORIA, VANCOUVER'S ISLAND.

Advices from Victoria of the 7th of March state that the excitement caused by the threatened Fenian invasion continues. A gunboat has been stationed in the harbour, and a large body of marines placed on board. The powder magazine opposite the city and the different engine-houses were strongly guarded. The volunteers had received orders to hold themselves in readiness in case their services should be required. Every precaution had been taken to secure the safety of the city.

FROM EUROPE.

LONDON, March 31.—Last evening, in the House of Commons, petitions in favor of and against the Irish Church establishment were read. Mr. Gladstone, after calling for the reading of the Acts of Parliament in relation to the Irish Church, moved that the House proceed to consider them. He declared that the time would come when the Irish Church would cease to exist as a State establishment. He would give no details of the means by which this was to be brought about, because it was not the duty of the Opposition to arrange them. All proprietory rights should be respected. There should no longer be a salaried clergy, paid by the State, and connected with the Church. A fund for the benefit of Ireland should be created from the balance of the incomes of the Church. Lord Stanley replied, opposing too hasty action in the matter, saying the House should wait until the Commission on the Irish Church should make their report, and concluded by moving his resolutions of which he gave notice last Friday, that the subject be left over for consideration of the next Parliament. Lord Cranbourne, member for Stramford, moved a resolution that the principle of establishing the Church be settled now, and the details left over until the next Parliament. The debate was then adjourned.... The bill abolishing the flogging in the army has passed the Commons.

The rejection of Lord Stanley's amendment to postpone the consideration until next Parliament, and the adoption of Mr. Gladstone's resolution to go into committee (by a majority of 56) are nearly the first steps of the operation. The national will is soon to be expressed and it will be no uncertain sound. It will insist that the work so happily begun should be thoroughly secured. This mornings vote is the dawn of a reunited empire. Now Ireland may take confidence from this vote that she is sustained by the vast balance of opinion of the United Kingdom. The wrongs of ages are to be ended, and the right done amid the acclamation of the nation. This must guarantee peace. ....The Morning Post concludes a very able article with the following words:—"This vote is the death warrant of the Irish Church, no fairer trophy has been won by the Liberal Party since the Emancipation Act of 1829." ....The Standard says: "The effect of this vote will be to waste the session without advancing the object proposed one single step."

STARTLING NEWS.

Hon. T. D. McGee Assassinated.

SHEDIAC, April 7.—Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee was shot at the door of his lodgings, Ottawa, at 2 o'clock this morning, and instantly killed. Assassin unknown; $14,000 reward offered. McGee had just delivered an eloquent speech in House of Commons and was returning home.

OTTAWA, April 7.—In the House of Commons last night there was a long debate on H. McDonald's motion for papers in connection with Nova Scotia House of Assembly Address to the British Government on the subject of repeal. H. McDonald, Parker, McGee, E. M. McDonald, McLellan and others took part. The Government consented to the motion, and the House adjourned at a quarter past two. ....At half past two o'clock the Hon. T. D. McGee was murdered while about opening the door of his lodgings on Parks Street. The assassin shot him from behind, the ball passing through his mouth, carrying out the front teeth and causing instant death. The excitement is most intense. Several arrests have been made, but it is doubtful whether the guilty person or persons have yet been found.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

OTTAWA, April 7.—The Hon. T. D. McGee was assassinated at the door of his lodgings, at 2 o'clock this morning. On leaving the House of Commons, he proceeded home in company with Mr. McFarlane, M. P, who parted from him at the gate of the Parliament Grounds. From that point to within a block of his lodgings he was accompanied by two Buckley's, messengers in the House. As he reached his room and was in the act of opening it, a pistol shot was fired at him from behind, the ball entering the back of his head and escaping through his mouth, breaking several of his teeth. His lodging house keeper who was up, alarmed by the shot, opened the front door, when Mr. McGee fell heavily into the entrance, quite dead. The alarm spread immediately. The Premier, Sanford McDonald, Mr. Holton, the Police Magistrate and many members of Parliament, who had not retired to rest, were quickly on the spot, and measures set a foot at once to discover the perpetrator. The assassin must have approached Mr. McGee as he was in the act of stooping to insert his latch key, placed the pistol to his head, fired and fled immediately. The ball was found embedded in the door about two inches above the key hole, and death must have been instantaneous. Mr. McGee's hat was not even displaced from his head, his cane was under his arm and a partly smoked cigar lying beside him. It has created the greatest excitement and horror in this community. No clue has so far been obtained as to identify the murderer; but the authorities all over this section have been put on the alert, and no efforts are being spared to discover the perpetrator of so horrible an atrocity. The Government of Canada offers five thousand dollars, and the Governments of Ontario and Quebec two thousand five hundred dollars each, reward for the apprehension of the assassin.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 8.—The body of the late Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee will be taken to Montreal for burial.....House of Commons moved to adjourn one week in respect for memory of deceased—moved by Sir John McDonald and seconded by Mr. McKenzie. Both spoke with emotion, paying warm tribute to his noble qualities—commending his widow and children to the care of the Dominion. ...James Whelen was arrested last night. In his possession was found a revolver, all the cells of which were loaded with bullets similar to that which killed McGee. . Dent, a watchman in Parliament Buildings, was found shot this morning at his residence.

SACKVILLE, April 9th.—James Whalen examined to-day. Papers found in his possession and other evidence, almost gives positive proof of his guilt. Numbers of others in custody and known to be connected with Fenian organizations, also implicated. Other parties are being arrested.

Lord Cranbourne has been tendered the office of Governor General of Canada, and Earl Mayo offered Governor Generalship of India.

THE show of beef and mutton at the Easter market on Saturday, is admitted on all hands to be much finer than that of any former year. We do not believe that any country can produce finer meat than was exhibited in the Market House in this Town on Saturday. Where all was so good it is very difficult for the uninitiated to tell which was best. The contest for the supremacy lay between Mr. Blake and Mr. Bridges, some contending that the meat displayed in and around the stall of Mr. Blake was the best in the market while others as confidently pronounced in favor of that which Mr. Bridges exhibited. For ourselves we cannot presume to resolve the knotty question, but content ourselves with the hope, that both Mr. Blake and Mr. Bridges have received something more substantial than empty praise for the expense and trouble which it must have cost them to bring their animals into such a splendid condition. Owing to the bad state of the roads and of the weather, the attendance from the country was not so large as usual.

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week the House of Assembly was occupied in discussing the new School Bill. This has, for various reasons, been the most interesting debate of the session. We reserve whatever remarks we may have to make upon it for a further occasion.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. Joseph Arseneaux, of Fortune Cove, Cascumpec, left his home on Thursday morning last to go to Malpeque, for a load of hay. But on his return on Friday evening, it being snowing at the time, it is supposed he lost his way, and drove his team into an opening in Goose Harbor, where, sad to relate, both himself and his horse were drowned. This discovery was made by a gentleman, who went out for the purpose of goose-shooting, and whose attention was attracted to the place where the accident occurred, by seeing a quantity of hay in the water. He there made the melancholy discovery which we record.

As there was only about four feet of water in the place where the team got in, it would seem that neither the man nor the horse were drowned by getting in at first; but it is thought that there being a strong probability of saving the horse, Mr. Arseneaux, after his team got in, had proceeded to unyoke the animal and endeavored to get him out, and in the endeavor got entangled, and thus both man and horse perished.

The deceased leaves a wife and four children and a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely fate. He was a man of upright character, and highly esteemed by all who knew him.—S. Prog
