Southport School And St. Teresa Convent Win Trophies

The Drama Festival Trophy for the best play in Class B, schools of three or more rooms located outside the cities or towns of the Province, was presented to Southport School Saturday afternoon following the conclusion of the Junior Drama section of Prince Edward Island's 1958 Festival.

The Rogers Hardware trophy awarded annually to the winner of Class C open to all other Island schools was won by St. Teresa's Convent.

Both awards were presented by Mrs. L. C. Ramsay, C. D. A., president of the P. E. I. Drama Festival Association. Mrs. Neil A. Matheson presided.

Children from both St. Vincent's and Mt. Herbert Orphanages were guests during the afternoon performance.

THOUGHT MACHINE
In Class B, Southport presented the "Thought Machine" directed by Mary S. Curran, while in Class C, the pupils of St. Teresa's Convent presented "Doctor Manners" directed by Sister Mary Rosarie.

Players taking part in these two winning productions were: "The Thought Machine"—Zelda MacLean, Ethel Aylward, Betty Carol Matheson, Lorne MacLean, Peggy McQuaid, Billy Perry, Dennis Bingly and Richard Gaudet. "Doctors Manners"—Leo McCarthy, Mabel Anne Smith, Kevin Bradley, Joanne Curran, Teresa Lawlor, Gloria McCarthy, and Kelvin Bradley.

FOUR OTHER ENTRIES
In class C, there were four other competing productions—"An Unexpected Caller", produced by the pupils of York Point School, directed by Miss Joan Vall; "The Anti-Gossip Club" produced by the pupils of Hampshire School, and directed by Miss Kay MacEachern; "The Good Impression", produced by the pupils of Elliotvale School, directed by Miss Kelly, and "Heck Says it" produced by the pupils of Goose River School, and directed by J.A. MacDonald.

Mr. Barry Budgen, the adjudicator advised the directors not to underestimate the talent of the children under their care, adding that they could do much more difficult work. He advised those thinking to enter in the Junior competitions next year to choose one of the many beautiful fairy tales, a bit of Tom Sawyer, or even an excerpt from one of Shakespeare's Plays.

NIMIC ELDERS
In playacting children should attempt to mimic the actions and impressions of their elders, he said.

He cautioned the young actors to "face the audience at all times." "Remember," he said, "the audience comes to see you as well as hear you."

ISLAND PEAK
Mount Victoria, with an altitude of 7,485 feet, is the highest point on Vancouver Island.
