Hampton

Following the electrical wiring of her dwelling house at Victoria, Mrs. G. R. Cannon is transforming the entire frontage thereof, facing on Main Street, into a restaurant, and will soon be in readiness to cater to tourists as that season rapidly approaches.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. C. C. Ince are having the pleasure of welcoming her home from the P.E.I. Hospital, to which the sudden transition from her duties as teacher at Argyle Shore School became necessary, for the purpose of undergoing a successful major operation. Best wishes are extended for a complete and early recovery.

It is with pleasure that friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cannon have learned that they will soon join tourists again visiting their former Island home, and will be the guests of Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Cannon of Hampton.

It is with much pleasure that friends of Mr. J. Warren Villett are welcoming him home from the P.E.I. Hospital, where he recently underwent two successful operations, and is reported to be rapidly recovering.

Profound sympathy is extended to the many relatives and friends of the late James Dawson, of Rochester, N.Y., whose mother, widow of the late Mr. Charlie Dawson, resides at Tryon, two sisters at North Tryon and Saranac Lake, respectively, two brothers, Russell and Lewis, in California. The news of the death of James, the youngest brother, came on April 13, making the first break in the family chain of love and friendship, bringing to all with startling reality the evidence of the sudden coming of the reaper respectively to young and old. These boys were frequent visitors to their former Island home since leaving to become citizens of the U.S.A. a number of years ago.

Sympathy of a wide circle of friends is being extended to the surviving relatives of the late Mrs. Frank McQuaid, formerly of Emyvale, Lot 65, whose death suddenly occurred at her late home at Southport, on April 16. High Mass was celebrated at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, interment in the church cemetery.

Widely known, highly respected, steadfastly devoted to every good cause associated with church, home and community, death, at removing the five stone years, has tentively hearing.

Tignish Shore
—A social evening was held in the school on April 21st, in aid of the school.

The fishermen are busy preparing for the Lobster season which will open on May 1st.

Little Miss Eileen Murphy is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John LeClair.

Mr. P. A. Arsenault was a recent visitor in O'Leary.

Mr. F. E. Doiron, Supervisor, made his official visit at Tignish Shore School recently.

At the last Home and School meeting, Mr. Leo Arsenault of Tignish was the guest speaker. There was a large attendance of Sympathy to Island relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Hollis L. Watts, formerly Miss Janice R. Bell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bell of Albany, P.E.I., whose death occurred at Laconia Hospital, Center Harbor, N.H., on March 31, is being extended, including the three brothers and three sisters residing at Searltown, Borden, Freetown, Bedeque and Albany, respectively.

Weekend visitors at Hampton included: Misses Saddle MacFadyen, Ada Campbell, Mrs. Malcolm MacFadyen and sons of Canoe Cove, also P.W.C. students visiting their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Rogerson, accompanied by Mrs. Everett Rogerson, have returned to their respective homes following an enjoyable visit among relatives and friends residing in Toronto and the U.S.A. They give a very realistic report of the extensive damages caused by Hurricane Edna while passing through that section of the Province of Ontario.

The great commission given to his followers previous to His departure, as He sent them forth both to teach and to be held, was the subject of an inspiring address at the services of public worship conducted by the pastor in this pastoral charge on April
