Jersey Cattle.

Jersey cattle-breeding seems to have received quite an impetus of late in England. A writer in one of the London journals prefaces an article on the subject by the following statement...

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., July 8.—On Sunday morning fire broke out in N. E. Kelsey's house and spread to the adjoining buildings...

MONTREAL, July 8.—A Frenchman came here not long since attired in the garb of a Trappist Monk and obtained admittance to the Montreal Seminary...

WEST STEWARTTOWN, N. Y. July 8.—George Johnson, of Hereford, P. Q., aged 21, unmarried, was 'drowned' in the Connecticut River yesterday while bathing.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"Our Best Pumps."

SIR.—In yesterday's Patriot I observe that the Chairman of the Water Commissioners and ex-officio member of the Board of Health, so-called, favors the views of Councillor Horne as to the advisability of keeping open a certain number of our "best pumps," such as Heartz's, Quirk's, and a few more...

I am convinced their dictum as to the relative merits of the pumps will not be received as authority by any well informed citizen. These matters have long ago been thoroughly discussed and the whole city unanimously condemned the pumps when they undertook to tax themselves so largely for a pure supply of water...

Personal.

Mr. J. Rogers, the well-known Montreal drug man, is at the Davies. Rev. J. G. Cameron, of Souris, was amongst the guests registered at the Osborne yesterday.
