

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

WEEKLY ENLARGED. ON the 1st of the month of January, 1858, the TRIBUNE, having completed its twelfth year, was enlarged more than four fold, or to the size of one of our other daily publications in this country or in any other country.

The change in price was made in consequence of this Enlargement, and was not intended to afford to Mail Subscribers at $3 per annum and ad- vertisers at 10 cents per line.

The NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, published on the 1st of September, was enlarged to the size of the TRIBUNE, Daily, adding more than four-fourths to its former size.

The TRIBUNE has not now its character to make or to proclaim. It has not been and never can be a party organ.

Though never acting with any Abolition or other party, THE TRIBUNE is and must be a non-partisan paper.

The Markets for Grain, Cattle, Cotton and other products of the country, will receive proper attention, and our correspondence with the most important points throughout the world will be preserved.

For Temperance in all things, but especially the drinking of the Liquor Traffic, we shall struggle, and we have struggled, unflinchingly and untiringly.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published on the 1st of September, or at any time thereafter, at the same rate as the daily.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Single copy, 1 year, 25 cents. . . . $2 00
Six copies, 1 year, 25 cents. . . . 8 00
Ten copies, one year, 25 cents. . . . 12 00

By order of the Directors, H. B. COOPER, Secretary.
