Smith-Baker Wedding

—Baskets of gladioli and snapdragons against a background of ferns formed the floral setting for an August wedding in the Presbyterian Church, Summerside. Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, at which Janet Isabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Baker, exchanged vows with Norman John Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cecil Smith of Vancouver, B.C.

The minister, Rev. J. Donald MacKay, performed the ceremony and the organist, Mrs. Cleve Whalen, was in charge of the wedding music. During the signing of the register the choir rendered "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her train length wedding gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin and a Juliet cap headdress held in place her finger tip veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white 'mums'.

The attendants were the bride's sister, Mrs. Vernon Bricker, as matron of honor; the Misses Mary Palmer and Virginia Webster as bridesmaids and her niece, Miss Katherine Bricker, as flower girl. F/L H.D. Thomas was the groomsmen and F/L R.H. Green and F/L R.J. Clark were the ushers.

The matron of honor was gowned in yellow net over taffeta with matching picture hat and she carried a bouquet of lavender 'mums'. The bridesmaids were attired in orchid net over taffeta and carried nosegays of sweet peas. The window flower girl wore a gown of turquoise nylon marquisette over taffeta and carried a basket of flower petals.

Mrs. Baker chose for her daughter's wedding a floor length gown of soft grey silk crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of lavender 'mums'. The groom's mother was gowned in crushed strawberry crepe with matching accessories and corsage of blue and white sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Linden Lodge, Bedouge, after which the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, B.C., the bride travelling in a suit of beige with matching hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses.

The groom is a Flight Lieutenant in the R.C.A.F. and now stationed at Greenwood, N.S. and the bride is a graduate of the University of Toronto. — S.

Poirier - Martin Wedding

—St. John the Baptist Church, Miscouche, was the scene of an exceptionally pretty wedding when Marie Therese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P.C. Martin, exchanged vows with Mr. Jules Poirier, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Poirier of Miscouche. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N.J. Poirier, uncle of the groom, before an altar banked with baskets of gladioli and ferns. Mr. John DesRoches was in charge of the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mrs. Charles Cahill sang effectively "Ave Maria". The church choir sang appropriate hymns during the nuptial mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in her wedding gown of white satin featuring a high neckline with pearl trim, lily point sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a matching coronet and she carried a shower bouquet of Better Time roses.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Edna Martin, as maid of honor, in lime green taffeta with matching halo with mauve trim, carrying a bouquet of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses; her sister Miss Lucille, in pastel blue taffeta and her cousin, Miss Mildred McEachern in floral pink taffeta, as bridesmaid with matching head-dresses and carrying nosegays of snapdragons and carnations; her niece, winsome Patricia Weightman of Vancouver, B.C., as flower girl, in yellow taffeta with floral headdress and carrying a nosegay of mixed flowers.

The groom was attended by his brother, F.O. Nazaire Poirier, D.F.C. The ushers were Messrs. Allison Arseneault and Gerald DesRoches.

Mrs. Martin chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of silver grey silk crepe with white accessories and a corsage of gladioli and the groom's mother was attired in a gown of floral blue crepe with white accessories and a corsage of gladioli.

Following the ceremony a reception of fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride's table, with its artistic arrangement of snapdragons and gladioli, was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Rev. J.E. Kelly proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded.

For a honeymoon trip throughout the Maritimes the bride donned a suit of navy gabardine with white accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses. On return they will reside in Miscouche. — S.
