CALGARY (CP)—Alberta's coal industry may get a shot in the arm with the Dutch state mines on re-visions of existing sampling specifications. Dr. Visman's proposal involves incremental samples, with lower gross weights, instead of only one large, and often unwieldy sample. "It's well known that most of the arguments about quality start with a bad sample," Dr. Visman said. "The difficulty is that current specifications do not allow collection of small samples."

Dr. Visman's cyclonic atomizer now is being used in an Alberta briquetting plant. He said production has been improved by more than 10 per cent. The more accurate they are, the smaller will be the marketing prob-

HOLY REDEEMER C.W.L.

The regular monthly meeting of Holy Redeemer sub-division C.W.L. was held Wednesday Nov. 2nd at Community Center with good attendance. The president, Mrs. Fred Steele, presided and the Rev. Director, Father Murphy presided over the meeting with the league prayer.

The minutes of the previous monthly and executive meetings were read by the secretary, Mrs. John MacDonald and approved, was read by Mrs. Stephen Connolly re: Letter of thanks for support at Hospital Bazaar from Board of Management per Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan. Invitations to Regional Conference from R.C.A.F. sub-division from the president Mrs. Gleason. Thank you letter for aprons donated to Hospital bazaar from Dorothy Coyle; Letter from F.A.S. Jones re Red Cross blood donors. Cards of thanks from Mrs. Josie Costello and Ethel Curley.

The corresponding secretary also read the highlights of the Regional Conference to be held at Community center on Sunday Dec. 4th. In the absence of the treasurer the financial report was given by Mrs. Fred Steele, and showed a good bank balance.

The president thanked the members for their help in the activities of the sub-division during the past month after which the following convenors gave their reports. Spiritual, Mrs. Allan MacDonald reported that members were faithful to their periods of adoration on First Fridays and that a mass would be offered on Remembrance day for the deceased of the two world wars. Press, Mrs. Ivan Berigan reported all activities in local papers. Social action Mrs. James Coyle reported having made contacts concerning purchasing new carpet for the church, Membership, Mrs. Robert Gallant, reported four new members, Finance, Mrs. Charles Smith, reported the financial success of activities during the past month, Program, Mrs. James Coyle reported, in the absence of the convenor, that films were being procured for the next meeting. Magazines, Mrs. Thomas MacAvinn reported all subscriptions paid, and Institutions Mrs. Ray Dunn reported having visited sick members and sent reading material.

A discussion followed on Sewing and Study groups and it was decided that these would be formed in the near future. The president asked for volunteers for collecting for the orphanage for which she had a good response. Plans were made for the Hot Turkey Dinner to be held at Community Center on Nov. 9 and 10th, and plans were also made for catering to C.N.R. Lodge banquet on Nov. 14th. The president Mrs. Fred Steele

HAMPTON

The sympathy of a wide circle of friends is being extended to the surviving relatives of the late Mrs. Alexander Wood, whose death occurred at Mount Tryon on October 30. Funeral services at Tryon United Church and at the Cemetery were conducted by the Church Pastor, on November 1. Interment in the Peoples' Cemetery.

Mr. Gordon Villett has returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cameron have returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Toronto, visiting relatives and friends there and adjacent Ontario towns.

Mrs. Homer Provencher was a visitor at Churchill, on November 1.

Hallowe'en passed quietly here. Groups of various costumed characters at the various homes were cordially received and presented with treats. Humorous witticisms interspersed the periods of time of visitation at each home.

The second steamer load of potatoes has cleared from the dock at Victoria, the work of the Government Dredge having made the channel leading thereto safer and more accessible for navigation.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sawlor and Mrs. Russell Clark were present, in large numbers, to participate in a farewell party, in their honor, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Irving presentation of gifts by the W.I. and Community friends accompanied by complimentary remarks were made for the church, Membership, Mrs. Robert Gallant, reported four new members, Finance, Mrs. Charles Smith, reported the financial success of activities during the past month, Program, Mrs. James Coyle reported, in the absence of the convenor, that films were being procured for the next meeting. Magazines, Mrs. Thomas MacAvinn reported all subscriptions paid, and Institutions Mrs. Ray Dunn reported having visited sick members and sent reading material.

A discussion followed on Sewing and Study groups and it was decided that these would be formed in the near future. The president asked for volunteers for collecting for the orphanage for which she had a good response. Plans were made for the Hot Turkey Dinner to be held at Community Center on Nov. 9 and 10th, and plans were also made for catering to C.N.R. Lodge banquet on Nov. 14th. The president Mrs. Fred Steele gave an interesting report on the thirty-fifth annual National Convention held recently at Moncton to which she was a delegate. Father Murphy then addressed the meeting after which the motion to adjourn was made by Mrs. Stephen Trainer. The meeting closed with the usual prayer followed by refreshments.

The W.M.S. Service of Public Worship in the Tryon Baptist Church, was addressed by the Church Pastor on Nov. 6, the Com-groom is a progressive farmer. Mrs. Holm was formerly Miss Mary Crossman, daughter of the late Mr. Fred Crossman and Mrs. Crossman of Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd MacQuarrie have returned from an extended visit among relatives and friends at Toronto.

Mrs. Windsor Bell was hostess at a large gathering of Hampton W.M.S. and visitors at their meeting held at her home on November 1. The President, assisted by several members, conducted a thoughtful and inspiring period of worship and study. Officers were re-reported to have their respective reports of the year's work ready for the Annual Meeting, to be held at the Manse on December 6.

Hampton W.A. met with their President, Mrs. John Rogerson, at her home, on November 4. Following the period of worship, consideration of ways and means of augmenting the funds of the Society was given, and mutual conclusion reached, following the disposal of other business on the agenda, and participation in a lunch served by the hostess and committee, meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Clayton Morrison in December.

At the largely attended service of public worship at Bonshaw Church on Nov. 6, sponsored by the W.M.S. of this Church, the guest preacher, Rev. Mr. Christie, of Trinity Church, Charlottetown, whose message of inspiration on the progress of the Christian Church from the time of Luther, received an attentive hearing. The Community Choir, composed to lead the singing, was under the direction of Dr. Peter MacDonald.

At the evening service of public worship at Hampton, on Nov. 6, the message taken from John 3:17 received an attentive hearing, all uniting with the choir in singing the old familiar hymns applicable to this service.

Mr. G. R. Ferguson, received leave of absence from the Navy to spend the week-end among relatives and friends.

Week-end visitors here for the week ending Nov. 6, included: Mr. Keith Dixon and sons George and Gage; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacCready; Misses Sarah MacQuarrie, Roma Sherrin, Sadie MacFadyen, Ada Campbell, Barbara Dunsford.

ROYAL BANK VICE-PRESIDENT

Appointment of M. M. Waller as a Director of The Royal Bank of Canada and his election as a Vice-President is announced today. In his new capacity Mr. Waller will continue active in the day-to-day affairs of the bank, assuming more general responsibilities. Mr. Waller began his career as a junior in Oshawa in 1912 and rose through the ranks to the post of Assistant General Manager, which he held since 1928. He will assume his new duties on December 6th.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of James Oliver Rafuse, who was killed Nov. 11, 1941. This day brings back sad memories of a loved one gone to rest. But he will never be forgotten. By the ones who loved him best. Inserted by his father, mother, sisters and brothers.

Cards of Thanks

We wish to thank Dr. L. Genchiff, Dr. Laidlaw, nurses and staff of P. E. I. Hospital, kind friends who sent cards and fruit, etc., during Heather's recent operation. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Campbell.

I.O.D.E. CHAPTER MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Lucy Maud Montgomery Chapter of the I.O.D.E. was held on November 7th at the home of Mrs. R. W. MacLean with 22 members in attendance.

The Regent and Educational Secretary reported on a visit to the Chapters adopted school "Village Green". Funds were voted to help this school.

During the week a box was packed for "British Save the Children Fund". The Ways and Means Committee reported a successful rummage sale.

Our members were in agreement to hold the National Annual meeting in Charlottetown within the next five years.

It was decided to have a representative from this chapter meet with the Red Cross Blood Donors Committee on November 10th.

Childrens Scrap Books are being made by members to be sent to "The Canadian Nationalization of Immigration" at Halifax.

A wreath is to be placed at the monument on Armistice Day by members of the Chapter.

After the business meeting refreshments were served. The lunch committee consisted of Grace Crosby, Mrs. H. E. Miller, Jr. Mrs. Clive Stewart and Mrs. Gordon Hughes.

Community Choir leading this Service in singing, under the direction of Dr. Peter MacDonald, organist.
