The institution of a Dolt of the Week award has been inaugurated at this University. This week's winners are the outgoing Student Union. The reason, obvious$20.

For those of you who don't know yet , your going to be paying $20.00 extra next year to register. This won't be going to help the university academically but is what has been referred to as athletic or "Jock fee". You'll all be paying $20.00 next year so you can watch our import players play football and basketball.

The Student Union has said that this is not an increase in their fees but one imposed by the Board of Governors. I'll grant this point to the S.U. but the fact that it ever was passed was their fault.

In their infinite wisdom they decided to leave the Student body uninformed as to what was going on. This was passed over two months ago and yet the majority of people on campus still don't know, or just recently found out about it. Ha? That enters my mind is the reasoning behind this. This is a delicate question indeed. Either the S.U. is comprised completely of the laziest bunch of morons on this campus or they didn't want to rock the boat. They might have realized that the students are fed up with the ever spiralling cost of this University (residence fees, tuition, S.U. f fees). They might have realized that maybe this time, coupled with a rumor(?) raise in residence fees that the students would say screw and the members of the Board of Governors just might close the cheeks on the S.U. reps' faces .

The University wil make close to $40,00.0 off this little deal next year to be given to the athletic dept. This in all likely hood will be used for equipment for football and basketball teams and for bursuries for those "athletes". Yet we all know of whom those teams are comprised.

The money should not be taken from the students for any reason unless a detailed list of where it is going is presented and a student referendum held on the issue.

Myself, along with a number of others are fed up with the university administration's flipant attitude towards the student body. I'ts time the students of this university got off their fucking asses and at least attempted to make a stand against this group of demi-gods.

The excuse that will propably be used by most of you is that its too mear finals (one month). This is not the first time that issues which could unite the student body have been raised at t this inopportune time. (liquor license, Bill 55) (beaucrats will be beaucrat's)

Well people its time we told them that their full of shit. That we do care about what we're getting soaked for at this university. The majority of the people maybe in total opposition to me in this point, and I will accept, but it should be up to us to decide, not the S.U., Board of Governors or Senate. This university was established for the students. Attempt to have a say in how your university is run. If you decide to sit back and accept, then I hope you have fun watching our friends from the south playing basketball and football at your Canadian University, supported by the $20.00 you were ordered to pay to them.

DO YOU LIKE SWIMMING

I am interested in finding out if there are any students who go swimming any time. Free passes are available frome the university to get into the YMCA but I never go because I would not enjoy going alone.

If anyone is interested in getting a party together, if one is not already formed, could call me at 2-2171 and ask for Francis.
