

THE CHILD'S DREAM.

"Mother, who are the angels calling,
Sweeping down the sapphire sky;
With the shimmering starlight falling
On their white robes trailing by?
See their shining hands outstretching
Far across the Jasper sea,
With a tender mute beseeching—
Mother, are they calling me?"
"Hush, my child! 'tis but the shifting
Of soft opal clouds in flight,
Through a sea of silver, drifting
'Tween thy sick eyes and the light."

"Mother, what are the angels saying,
Bending in a murmuring throng,
Like a band of weak nuns praying,
'Round my bed the whole day long?
With their cool wings softly fanning,
Pain and fever from my brow,
And an arch of blue eyes spanning
Shadows creeping round me now?"
"Hush my child! 'tis but the whisper
Of the quivering aspens, stirred,
By the upland breeze, whose vesper
'Mid the sighing pines is heard."

"Mother, what are the angels singing?
List! their tones rise high and calm
Through the twilight silence ringing
Like a grand cathedral psalm!
Distant harp-chorus sweetly thrilling,
Float out with their voices clear,
All the air with rapture filling—
Mother is not heaven near?"
"Hush, my child! 'tis but the river
Murmuring songs thy childhood knew;
Mingling with bird notes that quiver
Out upon its sparkling blue."

Softly waned the sunset glowing,
Softly dropping the starlight down;
And the west wind faintly blowing,
Kissed to sleep those eyes of brown!
Still the silvery clouds were drifting
Downward through the blue of June,
Still the singing waves went drifting
Out, in sudden, tidal tune,
And all night the aspen's whisper
Seemed to mourn that young life fled,
And breathed its mournful morning vesper,
O'er a mother's darling, dead!

Humorous.

Do editors ever do wrong? No; they do write.

"I've just dropped in," the fly said to the coffee.

LOST AT SEA.—The boy who doesn't know his alphabet past B.

In summer time you may sometimes have a whole week of sun-days.

Sombody advertises for a machine-girl. Is she better than a handmaid?

If a man is in the habit of giving his word to people, how can he be expected to keep it.

SOLLICQUY OF A TIPPLER.—The public always notices when you have been drinking, and never when you are thirsty.

"I find your recommendations very good, Bridget." "Yes, ma'am; and now I'll see yours, ma'am, if you please."

On railroads red is used for danger signals, and means stop. Red on a man's nose should give the same warning.

A philosopher who went to church where the people came in late, said it was "fashion there for nobody to go till everybody got there."

A paisley publican was complaining of his servant-maid that she could never be found when required. "She'll gang out of the house," said he, "twenty times for an'ce she'll come in."

Young lady on horseback (doubtful about the road); "Will there be a bridge by-and-by across a little brook?"—Small rustic: "Wall, I dunno 'bout by-an'-by, but there's one there now."

"I told her I'd never smoke another cigar," he said, softly, "and I won't. A pipe's plenty good enough for me," and he gracefully drew a match over the leg of his trousers.

"Would I were a man!" exclaimed a strong minded woman in the presence of her husband. "Would you were," was his remark, "for then I would never have been united to you."

A man who fell into a hole was congratulated on the fact that he didn't fall against anything," he petulantly responded.—"What was it?" asked a friend.—"I fell against my own inclination," he replied.

Madame asked her husband for a new outfit. "My darling," he replied, that would make the third in two months, and times are so hard that—"You kill me!" exclaimed the lady, bursting into tears; "and my funeral expenses will cost you more than a new dress." "Ah, but I should have to bury you only once," was the comforting rejoinder.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtues as BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, as your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
