Retiring M.H.A. President Reports Increase In Funds

Over $110,000 was raised by the Maritime Hospital Auxiliaries, of the Maritime Provinces, a marked increase over previous years, according to the annual report of the president, Mrs. Gordon Leitch, Charlottetown, presented at the annual convention of Maritime Hospital Auxiliaries concluded this week at the Algonquin Hotel, St. Andrews, N.B. The report also showed that the membership in hospital auxiliaries through the Maritimes has had increased greatly. Mrs. J.P. Connolly, of Sydney, N.S. succeeds Mrs. Leitch as President of the Association. Papers were read on the planning of programs and the relation of the auxiliaries to the hospital. Great enthusiasm is reported among the ladies who carry on this work of promoting health and hospital equipment of all kinds. Included also in their efforts are such services as reception work entertaining and caring for the patients other than their actual treatment.

BY: P. R. McCORMAC As you've probably noticed, I don't mind reminding you now and again that we can do an expert job here in our shop. We're taking care of all your dry cleaning needs. But you're making out at home with the things you never send us? Or more specifically, how are you at the ironing board?

Former Pastor Is Guest Speaker

Pastor W. Mercer of North Sydney, N.S. will be guest speaker at the local seventh day Adventist Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Prior to taking up his pastoral duties in North Sydney last September, Mr. Mercer was for four years, pastor of the Adventist Church here.
