Trinidad Expert Sets Trade Best Method To Provide Aid

HALIFAX (CP)—A Trinidad government economist said Thursday trade—not aid—is the best area in which developed countries can assist underdeveloped ones to stand on their own economic feet.

William Demas of the office of the prime minister of the West Indian island told a West Indies—Atlantic provinces conference here that the commercial policies of developed nations do not permit the industrial growth of nations less well off.

He told delegates on the second day of the three-day conference that tariff restrictions are imposed by wealthy nations against processed goods from underdeveloped countries and the higher the production rate, the higher the tariff.

But Canada has a "rather liberal stance vis-a-vis the problems of less developed countries," Mr. Demas added.

The conference has been organized by the Canadian national committee of the United Nations Economic, Social, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and the Institute of Public Affairs of Dalhousie University where the meetings are being held.

McKILLOP—in loving memory of a dear husband and father Charles David McKillop, drowned on Magdalen Islands, May 20th, 1955.

We miss you so much as the years pass by
Than we did on the day of your going,
For absence can never close the door
Of our hearts
And the lamp of our love is still glowing Your heart was the truest in all the wide world
Your love the best to recall
For no one on earth could take your place
You are still the dearest of all
Lovingly remembered by wife Lena, sons Kenneth and Gregory.
