Just in Time

FOR THE SPRING TRADE!!

The Subscriber has opened a Tailoring Establishment!

In Mr. H. J. Richardson's Old Shop, which he trusts will be the real fashionable one of Summerside. If an accurate fit, a stylish cut, and superior workmanship can ensure custom, he flatters himself he shall be without patronage from the taste and discerning. Every trade requires brains, and none more so than the art of cutting and making up a garment to fit every variety of the human form; but some people seem to imagine that it requires no more judgment to cut a coat than to hew a log—an erroneous idea, the effects of which are seen in the tasteless and ill-fitting garments we every day behold in the streets. There is no earthly reason to prevent us Provincialists from being as elegantly and fashionably dressed as the Americans, and the subscriber will use his best endeavors to reach a "consummation so devoutly to be wished."

JAMES GAFFNEY, late Cutter at Mr. H. J. Richardson's Clothing Store. Summerside, May 23, 1867.
