REMEMBER St. James' Church Tea to-morrow night. A good time is always had at St. James' Church Teas.

SMALL DEBT COURT.—The City Small Debt Court was in session this forenoon. POLICE COURT.—This morning one drunk was fined $4 and an assault case was adjourned.

GOOD WORK.—The Moncton Times says: Pastor Hinson baptized 3 converts in the Moncton First Baptist church yesterday for noon, and in the evening extended the right hand of fellowship to 23 persons.

UP WEST.—The Rev. Father Lynch is bringing his collecting tour to a close in the western parishes of the diocese. He preached the Easter sermon at Alberton, and is now doing that parish. He has so far met with great success.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The regular quarterly meeting of the Charlottetown Board of Trade will be held this evening in the new Board Room, Cameron Block, at 8 o'clock, sharp.

MATRIMONIAL.—The residence of Robert Galbreith, Esq., Weymouth Street, was yesterday the scene of a very interesting event, the marriage of Mr. Galbreith's daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. W. H. Ringer, of Lockport, N. S.

TEMPERANCE CRUSADE.—Two scores of determined women, armed with axes and hatchets, intercepted two wagon-loads of beer on their way to Farmington, Mo., one day last week, and ordered the drivers down from their seats and smashed in the heads of the large. The saloons of the place are highly excited and threaten to prosecute.

NEW FISHING ROD.—A most useful invention for anglers is a fishing rod made entirely of steel, which we were shown today. This rod is both light and strong, is very flexible, and superior in every way to wooden rods.

FOR FISHING.—The fishermen all around the coast are actively preparing for lobster fishing. The great failure of this branch of industry during the past few years does not seem to deter those engaged in it from making a further trial, and hoping to "gain a fortune where they've lost a fortune."

LIVERY STABLE SALE.—Watch for the advertisement of the sale of Mr. P. P. Gillis' Livery Stable outfit. His horses are all specially selected for their good qualities, and gentlemen wanting horses for private driving can depend on getting animals at once dependable and excellent drivers.

LACROSSE TROPHY.—Mr. Chas. Leigh, jr., has shown THE EXAMINER a photograph of the trophy which Messrs. Nelson & Sons, of Montreal, have presented for competition by the lacrosse clubs of the Maritime Provinces the coming season.

"H. S. S. PINAFORÉ."—The rehearsals for this very enjoyable opera are progressing finely, and promise an unusually choice treat for the evening of the Oddfellows' Natal Day (24th April). The scenery, costumes and music, together with the eccentricities of the comic characters will form a galaxy of attractions that is seldom seen in Charlottetown.

LOTTERY PRIZES.—The drawing of prizes in the lottery in aid of the Altar Fund of Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, took place on Monday last and resulted as follows:—No. 1137—Joseph Peters, Building Lot at Bloomfield.

"208—Fred Mizault, Lowell, Mass., iron plough. "253—Hugh McCarroll, Kinkora, picture (framed). "801—Joseph Axworthy, Bloomfield, sheep. "287—Peter Curran, Summersville, book. "30—Mary J. Finnes, Nova Scotia, stove. "247—Miss A. Shea, Indian River, book. "188—Moyse Foley, Kildare, book.
