Mrs. Lloyd Gorrill reported that the Christmas Cards had arrived and would be distributed at the next meeting which will be held at her home on October 21. Delicious refreshments were served by the homtess. —S

—ENTERTAINS CHOIR — On Wednesday, October 8th, Mrs. S.R. Burke, Alberton, entertained twenty members of the Sacred Heart Choir. The evening was spent in music songs and dancing. Mr. George O'Connor and Mr. Howard Foley and Mr. Jack Barrett were violinists accompanied by Mrs. Larter and Miss Thelma Ahearn. All members of the choir sang in harmony. Solos by Jack Barrett, Miss Evelyn Kinch and Miss Maud O'Connor were enjoyed. Lunch was served at eleven o'clock by the hostess assisted by Mrs. S. M. Burke and Mrs. Allan McAleer after which short addresses were made by Mrs. Larter, Mr. John Wallace, Mr. Raymond Ahearn and others thanking the hostess for the evening's entertainment which concluded with a square dance, the singing of "Sweet Adeline" and "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow" followed by "God Save The Queen." —S.

—TRINITY AUXILIARY MEETS —The Thankoffering meeting of the Trinity Afternoon Auxiliary of the Summerside United church was held in Epworth Hall on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. George Sheen presided and Mrs. L. M. Callbeck was pianist. The opening hymn "Sing to the Lord of Harvest" was followed by prayer by Mrs. Albert Linkletter. It was decided to invite the Presbyterial to meet in Summerside for next year. It was reported that nine cartons had been packed and shipped since the last meeting to Dr. Florence Murray in Korea, also one box to the port worker at Halifax, N. S. The new leaders for the C. G. I. T. will be Mrs. James Peach and Mrs. R. Armstrong. Psalm 100 was read in unison and followed by the singing of "O Lord of Heaven and earth and sea" and prayer by Mrs. John Stirling. The Scripture lesson in Ephesians 4 and Romans 12 was read by Mrs. Hugh Smith. A vocal solo by Mrs. W. Stevenson was much enjoyed. Miss Louis Callbeck was guest speaker and gave a most interesting and inspiring address based on the words "I live for those who love me." The offering was received by Mrs. Silas MacFarlane and Mrs. J. E. Campbell and dedicated by the singing of "We give Thee but Thine own." Following the benediction a social period followed when tea was served. —S —INJURED AT TRACK — Mr. Kenneth Smith of Alberton received numerous cuts and bruises and a severe leg injury when run into by one of the race horses at the Maple Leaf Speedway at McNeill's Mills on Wednesday. Apparently the horses were scoring when the accident occurred and Mr. Smith was standing too close to the track and was struck by the wheel of a sulky driven by Roy Murphy. He was taken by car to his home in Alberton and is expected to be confined to bed for a week or so.

—CHILDREN ARE GUESTS — Children of all ages from three up, were the special guests of the Summerside Y's Men at their regular supper meeting at Robson's Restaurant last evening. The occasion was a father-son or daughter banquet, and the children of the members were given a delicious supper followed by entertainment which took the place of the regular meeting. Mr. John Taylor performed many weird and mysterious magical acts which brought rounds of applause from the children present as well as from the members, and a movie in color brought the entertainment to a close. Master David Mercer very capably said the blessing and Y's Clarence Mercer was chairman. Y's Jock Hopkirk and Allison MacLean were the movie projectionists.—S.

—TRINITY EVENING AUXILIARY — The Trinity Evening Auxiliary held its October meeting in the Church Parlor, Summerside, on Tuesday. The president, Mrs. William Roach, was in the chair and Mrs. Allen Jenkins was pianist. The worship service which opened with the singing of "Thy boundless unexhausted love" was conducted by Mrs. John Hopkirk, assisted by Mrs. Neil MacFarlane. Mrs. J. F. Scott introduced the Study Book "Along African Trails" by Rev. David Gallagher. Mrs. Scott assisted by Mrs. Hopkirk, and Mrs. MacFarlane, brought to the meeting a vivid picture of the missionary work that is being done in Africa and the wonderful opportunity for Christian service. The Literary Secretary gave brief summaries of this year's Book Shelf. The Autumn Thankoffering was received and prayer followed the singing of "God of Mercy, God of Grace." A social hour followed when delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Alison MacLean, Mrs. Lorne Campbell, Mrs. A. L. Harlow and Mrs. Alan Holman.—S

—W. M. S. MEETING — The October meeting of Alberton Presbyterian W. M. S. was held at Point Brilliant Farm, home of the president, Mrs. Norman Oliver. Opening worship was led by Mrs. David Hodgson, assisted by Mrs. James Gard, who offered prayer. Fifteen members answered to the roll call and two visitors were welcomed by the president. A thanksgiving poem by John Lamont Campbell was read by Mrs. Howard Clark and a true story "Thanksgiving In A Pioneer Home", was read by Mrs. G. B. Cunningham. A duet, "Ivory Palaces", was pleasingly rendered by Mrs. G. W. Campbell and Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie. Mrs. H. J. Larkin invited the members to her home for the November meeting at which Mrs. G. B. Cunningham will conduct the devotional period and Mrs. Helen Kerr will have charge of the study period. A special offering for the famine fund for Jabat was received, and a donation was made to the Maritime Home for Girls in Truro. An interesting chapter of the study book was read by Mrs. F. J. Carpenter after which the meeting was brought to a close with the Mizpah benediction. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.
