SINCE Tupper spoke in Charlottetown, we hear nothing of the oratory of McKenzie or Cartwright. Tupper threw them into the shade.

IN THE ABSTRACT, SIR JOHN MACDONALD IS AS MUCH A FREE TRADER AS I AM.—Hon. Alexander McKenzie.

REMEMBER the Moonlight Excursion on board the steamer Heather Belle this evening at 8.30. Galbraith's Brass Band will be in attendance.

THE united and enthusiastic way in which the Liberal-Conservatives are working in the campaign is very gratifying. Union, work and straight voting are just what is wanted.

A SCRATCH MATCH of Base-ball was played on Saturday last, on Victoria Park, between two nines of the St. Lawrence Club. The playing was the best experienced since the Club was organized, a score of 11 to 13 having been made.

SOME REMEDY MUST BE FOUND TO RESTORE, AT ALL EVENTS, THE EQUILIBRIUM BETWEEN THE EXPENDITURE AND REVENUE.—Senator Howland, see speech in Senate, 1878.

VANDALISM.—On Saturday night the door of Mr. Thomas Burris' residence, on Great George Street, was bearned with tar from top to bottom. The perpetrator of this vandalic act is well known and a warrant will be issued for his arrest.

ABOUT one o'clock on Sunday morning a large stone was fired through the large window of the Apothecaries Hall. The watchmen and police heard the crash and hurried to the place, but could see no trace of the perpetrator.

SO I SAY WITH REGARD TO THIS DOMINION, IT IS NECESSARY THAT THE FLAGGING INDUSTRIES OF THIS COUNTRY SHOULD BE PROTECTED IN TIMES OF DEPRESSION, LIKE THIS, BY THE GOVERNMENT, WHICH ALL LOOK UPON AS PATERNAL.—Hon. G. W. Howland's Speech in Senate, 1878.

AN individual (Ring) who has been lurking about the city for some time past, entered the store of Mr. Ewen McDougall, Great George Street, on Saturday evening, and asked for a bottle of gin. The clerk, a boy about seventeen years of age, filled a bottle. He perceived that Ring was minus cash, and refused to give him the bottle. He seized the bottle, and by word and action frightened the boy to let go the bottle. So doing Ring left the store. A warrant is issued for his arrest.

MR. McLEOD, owner of the yacht Agate, protested against the result of the race between his boat and the "Surprise" on Saturday evening. He contends that after rounding the buoy at the New Asylum, the "Surprise" instead of coming back to Pownal Wharf, shortened her course by immediately proceeding to Brickmaker's Point. The stakes, which are still in the hands of the referee will, we understand, be doubled, and the race will be sailed over again on the first suitable day.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, Joseph Bell, for stealing fruit from the garden of Dr. Young, was sentenced to 20 days' imprisonment; Michael Egan, for allowing a nuisance to exist on his premises, was lectured and discharged; Alfred A. McKenzie appeared on summons for assaulting Arthur Clark, a pupil of Miss Fennessey; assault not proven; case dismissed. Theophilus Chappell, for stealing a tin pan from the store of Wm. B. Allin, Esq., was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labor.

MYSTERIOUS LIGHTS are now brilliant in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. It is said they are sure precursors of tempestuous weather and grievous shipwrecks. They have been unusually brilliant, and are seen blazing at various points almost every night, since the 15th of May. However, we think the mariner proper need not be molested. Since the lights have appeared, none have experienced tempestuous weather save the Grit Ship of State, which is now surrounded by rocks on every side. Her escape is deserved, and she will doubtless go to pieces in the storm which will visit the Provinces of this Dominion on Tuesday, the seventeenth.

IT (THE CRY OF PROTECTION vs. FREE TRADE) HAS BEEN USED AS A BUGBEAR TO FRIGHTEN PEOPLE. Senator Howland's Speech in Senate, 1878.

We have received from the publishers a copy of the "Ladies Friend" Home Cook Book. It is elegantly printed, and bound in substantial oil cloth covers, suitable for the kitchen. George Stewart, jr., says: "It is not only an admirable receipt book, but it is a perfect companion of the housewife." In it we find a contribution suitable for the present season from the wife of our Local Premier, as follows: "Squash Pie—Two teaspoons of boiled squash, three-fourths tea-cup of brown sugar, three eggs, two tablespoons of molasses, one tablespoon melted butter, one tablespoon ginger, one teaspoon cinnamon, two cupfuls milk, a little salt, make two plate pies." There are also valuable receipts by Mrs. W. C. Harris, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Pickard, and several other ladies of this city.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Who Lowered the tariff to 15 per cent? The Liberal-Conservatives! Vote for them.

Who raised the tariff to 17 and a half per cent., and took tea off the free list, and levied the tax on tea so that the farmer and the poor man pays the largest proportion of it? The Grits. Sit down Lawson.

LONDON, Sept. 6.

It was announced yesterday that three of the largest cotton mills in Blackburn would close in a fortnight. Notification was given that three others will work on short time.

The latest estimates of the number drowned by the collision on the Thames is stated to be between 600 and 700. A diver says he felt corpses packed four and five feet deep in the after cabin of the "Princess Alice."

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.

The deaths from yellow fever at New Orleans, yesterday, reached 104, and there were 288 new cases. In Memphis the interments numbered 89, and 179 new cases. The people of Vicksburg, Miss., are appalled at the great mortality, 43 interments having been made yesterday. The situation at Grenada, Canton, Holly Springs and other places in the State is hourly growing worse, and people are suffering for nurses and rations.

St. Louis, Sept. 6.

An accommodation train on the Missouri Pacific Railway, coming East, collided with the Kirkwood accommodation train going West, near Grand Avenue crossing, within the city limits, this morning. Five passengers were injured, and both locomotives and one baggage car was wrecked. Loss $10,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.

The U. S. Consul at Martinique reports quite a severe earthquake was felt on that Island on the 3rd August. In the town of Diamont, in the South part of the Island, several buildings were thrown down. Little damage occurred in other places, and no lives were lost.

LONDON, Sept. 7.

A Vienna despatch to the "Standard" says Austria has informed the Porte that it is desirable that the occupation shall extend to Mitrovitz. This has for the time increased the difficulty of negotiations, but the Porte is expected to yield at the last moment.

DUBLIN, Sept. 6.

There is great rejoicing at Mitchelstown, County Cork, on receipt of the news of the intended release of Condon. Shops closed early, and there is a general illumination, and the streets are thronged with a jubilant crowd.

The Nation says: England has released nearly the last of the Fenian prisoners without having entitled herself to the slightest gratitude.

The "Irishman" says Condon will be released because he is an American citizen; had he been an Irishman only without a claim on the great Republic, he would have been hanged like other martyrs.

ELECTORS OF PRINCE, IF YOU WANT THE PRIVILEGE OF SELLING YOUR PRODUCE IN THE UNITED STATES MARKET—VOTE FOR HOWATT AND HACKETT.

The Tax on Flour in Charlotte.

"This tax, to which the Conservatives are as much committed as they are to their chief, must work like a charm in Grand Manan, Campobello, Deer Island, etc., whose relations are so intimate with the United States. The same will prove true of the whole of Charlotte, and, indeed, the whole Canadian frontier."—St. John Telegraph.

Yes, and what of it? Hon. Mr. McKenzie, the Telegraph's master, says that "the tax would not increase the tax ONE-KINTH OF A CENT on a barrel of flour." Our fishermen on the Islands are not to be coaxed into the Telegraph's trap by such kind of bait as that; his master has spoiled his "trick" this time.—Bay Pilot (N. B.)

"Going—Going—Gone!"

The political Auctioneer has his hammer lifted—he stands on the highest turret of the Parliament Building at Ottawa—he sees all the Members of the McKenzie Government before and below him.

The Premier weeps! The Minister of Finance groans! The Postmaster General sighs heavily! The "Speaker's" three-cornered Hat falls from his trembling hand—and the Auctioneer in dolorous tone, rings out—"Going—Going—Gone!"

Yes—the McKenzie Government is "gone." It goes down to a dishonored political grave—"unwept, unhonored, and unused." Departed this political life on the 17th of September, 1878. Requiescat in peace! Bay Pilot (N. B.)

Reciprocity is not regarded with such marked disapproval in the United States at present as it was before the Fisheries Award was made known. There is evidently a spirit abroad amongst our cousins tending, as Mathew Arnold would say, towards the righteousness of free communication among the people, on this continent at least. Whatever may be the merits of the abstract questions of Political Economy, there can be no doubt of the benefits that would arise from open markets between Canada and the United States.—Ottawa Herald.

ALL we have to do is to follow up the advantage which—thanks, primarily, to Sir John MacDonald—we have gained!
