

A Remarkable Offer.

For several years a Boston business house has made persons on farms, in towns and the suburbs of cities who keep poultry, few or many, remarkable offers of premiums payable in gold, some as high as fifty dollars to the first and not less than five dollars to any winner of a premium.

The best thing about these annual offers, is that the firm making them is strictly reliable and the premiums have always been promptly paid as agreed in gold coin. Fifty dollar premiums do not "grow on every bush" as the old saying is, and we have no doubt that many who competed for them, the amount received came in handy to help pay the necessary bills of a hard winter, or if not, buy some luxury that the family absolutely needed, but otherwise could not afford.

Another valuable feature of the offers this year is that no one who competes need fail to get something out of the several offers; either in premiums or commissions. Johnson & Co., will send full particulars free to any person who sends them their address on a postal card.

The Slipshod Workman

Character expresses itself in work. As a man does with his brain or his hand, so he is in his heart, and there is nothing which reveals him so unmistakably as his work.

Teacher (in Chinese mission)—"I wonder how many of you know the meaning of mercy. (All heads up.) Very good. Now you, Chang, may give us an illustration of its meaning."

Accuracy.—Teacher (to new pupil)—"What is your last name, my little man,?" New pupil—"Tommy." Teacher—"What is your full name?" New pupil—"Tommy Jones." Teacher—"Then Jones is your last name?" Tommy—"No, it isn't. When I was born my name was Jones, and they didn't give me the other for a month afterward."

One Profession Safe.—First worker (dismally)—"Women are crowding into every department of industry and lowering our wages." Second worker—"I ain't afraid of 'em." First worker—"You're not? What are you?" Second Worker—"A cook."
