Canadian Club Speaker Hits Upon Many Topics

By RALPH CAMERON
Hitting on a wide range of parliamentary topics from divorce to Quebec separatism and from committee work to the Munsinger report, William Arnold Peters, M.P., Temiskaming, last night had a Canadian Club audience pay him the great compliment of rapt attention from start to finish.

Guest speaker for the first of the club's six meetings, Mr. Peters was introduced by Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell, club president, who also called attention to the floral decorations which were donated by Mr. Justice George Tweedy and arranged by Mrs. Tweedy.

Mr. Peters said a Member of Parliament might be parochial about such things as a new post office for his constituency but not on matters of real importance to Canada as a whole. For this reason he believed all members should give some extra thought to the oath they take on assuming their seats. Relating this to the recent actions of a Member from Quebec he said he questioned the right of a man to be elected to Parliament as a member of one party and then go to another which was not just republican but definitely separatist.

NO QUESTION
The speaker said there was no question of divorce reform coming in Canada—"it is both needed and inevitable"—but he insisted Canadians wanted no part of a "Nevada divorce mill".

Pointing out various things a private member could do in Parliament he said he was now working on a four-year life term for Parliament to do away with the constant threat of elections being called. Noting how many such there had been in recent years he said it was a mistake to have too many because it meant there was always a running fight between parties for electioneering advantage. Their moves and votes were not dictated by whether the move was good for Canada but by "will it get us any votes?"

He said if individual members were given a voice in the matter there would not be many votes for calling an election knowing they would be out of a job. He added a four-year term would mean the government could spend three uninterrupted years making good on the promises for the good of the country.

HAD GOOD POINT
Regarding the long awaited Munsinger report Mr. Peters smilingly said Prime Minister Pearson had spent last night

City League Is Concluded

The City Commercial Softball League held its second annual banquet at the Basilica Recreation Centre on Wednesday evening, with an excellent turnout of players, league officials, and guests.

Edgar Ellis, Secretary-Treasurer of the League, was master of ceremonies, and introduced the head table guests, the league executive, and expressed a vote of thanks to the League President, Tom Monaghan, to Jack Chipman, Umpire-in-chief, and Gene Ward, base judge during the play-offs.

The presentations of the league and individual trophies were made, with the following trophies being presented:

Trophy to Bob Rice of the Pistons for the home run championship, during the regular schedule.

Trophy to Bernard "Fish" MacKinnon of the Pistons for the best win-loss pitching record during the regular schedule.

Trophy to Wayne Horrocks of the R.C.M.P. for the best batting average during the regular schedule.

Trophy to Bob Rice of the Pistons as the most valuable player during the final play-offs.

The C.C.S.L. Executive's Trophy to the Pistons for finishing in first place during the regular schedule. The trophy was accepted by Lorne Doiron, captain of the winning team.

Trophy to the Pistons, the 1966 League Champions. The trophy was presented by the League President, Tom Monaghan, to Ralph "Duke" Larter, Coach of the Pistons.

The banquet marked the end of another very successful season for the league.

reading it "as a bedtime story". But that affair had its good side, he said, since "Parliament never worked harder than in the last six months since the scandal. It scared the daylight out of everyone."

He resented spending so much time in committee work, studying a subject in depth and filing a complete report—only to have it bound "and placed to rest in that morgue at Ottawa they call the library".

Mr. Peters also remarked on the growing power of civil servants and the dependence on them especially by new Cabinet Ministers.

In thanking the speaker Chief Justice Campbell remarked that regardless of what Islanders might think of third parties in Parliament that House would be a much poorer place without such a man as Mr. Peters.

Seated at the head table in the main dining room of the Charlottetown Hotel were Lieutenant-Governor W.J. MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald, Mayor Walter J. Cox and Mrs. Cox, Dr. G. D. Steel and Mrs. Steel, Senator Elsie Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Avard and Mrs. Peters.
