MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — A tendency to irritation prevails to handle customers, business associates and employees with courtesy, tact, understanding. Artistic and professional pursuits rank high.

APRIL 21 to MAY 20 (Taurus) — Venus in beneficent aspect today avers you Taurus in all directions. You can nicely blend the idealistic with the practical and give your work that finesse that nobles also favored.

MAY 21 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) — Turn your attention to essentials and try to improve in quality rather than half do a number of things. Gains to be made through earnest and consistent endeavor. Patience especially important for you born before June 5.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer) — Not altogether friendly but you double your efforts and strive to make it so. Harmony and cooperation are the necessary aids born after July 7? Be considerate of others.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 22 (Leo) — Not as enervating as yesterday but favorable for finishing work already started, giving close attention to details and checking old errors. Much can be gained by cooperating with those in your own line of endeavor.

AUGUST 23 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — If you are clever at converting advantages to your column you'll get along today. Venus, ruler of the artistic and beautiful, is beneficent. Keep this in mind for all activities that come under his heading.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Splendid vibrations for your regular affairs, ideals and cherished dreams. Whether on vacation or hard at work, your day should be fruitful and pleasant. Don't miss opportunities.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio) — Care advised in all problems and projects necessitating patience and forbearance. This obtains in personal associations too. Persuasion not aggressiveness for happy results!

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 31 (Sagittarius) — Dealing in household utilities, farm and gardening products, wearing apparel and accessories under friendly rays. Not particularly auspicious for big gains.

DECEMBER 23 to JANUARY 21 (Capricorn) — Your stars caution against unprofitable buys, risky investments, gambling and unnecessary spending on frivolities. But do not deprive yourself and family of those useful things you can afford.

JANUARY 22 to FEBRUARY 20 (Aquarius) — Stimulating! You should be filled with enthusiasm. Make the most of your talents and capability. Remember, a day wasted is a day lost forever. Good Luck!

FEBRUARY 21 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — Delightful indications for realizing profit with your creative genius, intuitive powers and splendid understanding of human nature. Get into action, don't be indecisive!

A CHILD BORN ON THIS DAY will be inspirational, sympathetic and benevolent. It will be fortunate in achievement if it conquers a tendency to the too headstrong and over-sensitive. Literary ability and a talent for law outstanding. Will travel and make friends easily with its compelling personality. Self-mastery important.

Should Girls Have a Dowry? Dorothy Dix Marriage Would Be More Stable

If Some of the Money Spent by Fathers on Their Daughters Were Put Into a Marriage Fund There Would Be Far Less Home Dissensions and Fewer Divorces

The national consultant of the Parents and Teachers Association advocates the revival of the old-fashioned dowry for girls as a solution for our domestic troubles and as the only way to stop the increase in divorce.

Wise woman! A Daniel in petticoats come to judgment! Let us hope and pray that she is starting a Dollars for Daughters campaign that will sweep the country and give every bride a financial plank to stand on that is strong enough to bear the weight when she gets married. And surely such a movement would have the ardent support of all women, for there is not a wife with money of her own who does not know how much it does to sweeten marriage. Nor is there a wife who does not know what a sour taste the lack of money of her own leaves in her mouth.

Certainly it would do a lot to stabilize the home for every girl to come to her husband with a dowry. For one thing she would be putting money in the bank. That would give her a standing as a real partner in it and make her husband feel that she had some right to his profits and perquisites, and that he wasn't being noble and generous if he gave her a new pair of stockings. And it would make the wife feel a lot more responsible for the prosperity of the home if her own money was tied up in it.

Furthermore for the wife to possess some money of her own changes the attitude of the husband and wife to each other. It isn't human for any of us not to be a little condescending and arrogant towards those who are dependent on us. This spirit creeps even into marriage and makes the most liberal husband treat a penniless wife with a little less consideration than he would show one who had her own money.

Also if the husband is lacking in the finer qualities of manhood a wife's only protection is her pocketbook. I once heard some one ask a well-off old man why he still continued working so hard after he had already accumulated a comfortable fortune, to which he replied: "I am trying to leave my daughters enough to secure their husbands treating them well after I am dead."

As for women, the possession of even a small income of their own does more than anything else to make marriage happy. It takes away from them the sense of inferiority that comes from being financially dependent. It saves them from the insults that are only too often showered on them when the bills come in when they are treated as fools, and worse, for having bought a $5 hat instead of a $20 one, and it gives them the blessed privilege of being able to spend a few dollars without having to give an account for it.

All the other peoples and among whom, it may be noted divorce is a rarity, have long seen the wisdom and justice of giving a girl a dowry when she marries. But we have scorned it our men boasting that they were not fortune hunters and our parents crying out that they didn't want to give prizes with their daughters for being treated as fools. In reality, the most blessed privilege in the world is the dowry system so needed as it is with us.

Because we raise our girls with extravagant tastes and habits that very few young men are able to meet when they marry. We do not lay up anything for our daughters' futures. We put it all on their backs as they go along, and so when Mary and Sally marry they have a lot of tattered merrily instead of a little nest egg in the bank.

There are thousands of girls who, from their infancy up, have been indulged in every luxury. They have had expensive clothes. They have gone to schools that cost small fortunes. They have had trips abroad. They have had their own cars. And when they get married they have very few dollars. But all of these extravagances had cost their fathers every cent they could rake and scrape and they had absolutely nothing to show for it. It is a common thing for parents to take out a mortgage when their children are born that will insure them an education. Why not extend the same system to providing dowries for girls? It would save a lot of unhappiness and divorce.

Dear Miss Dix—My trouble is trying to save money. I don't seem to be able to do it though I try to be so economical. My husband earns $32 a week, but sometimes he is laid off for two or three weeks at a time and I feel that we should have something saved up to tide us over, but we never have. We owe a lot of bills and we need clothes and everything. I used to take part in church work but I have given up that now. Can you suggest any way to help us?

A WORRIED WIFE. Answer: Any bank will give you a budget and show you how to run it, but I would advise you going to some woman who is at the head of the social security movement in your city and talking over your problem with her. You will find some woman who is wise and experienced and sympathetic who will show you how to manage your finances better.

There is a book called "If I Had Four Apples" that is not only a rattling good story, but that deals with a problem like yours and that is full of good common sense and practical suggestions. You can get it from the library and I think you will not only enjoy reading it, but it gives you a lot of new ideas.

I urge you by all means to go back to your church work. You need to meet new people, make new friends and have new interests, otherwise you will grow staid and dull and hard to live with. Your husband gets his outside contacts in his work, but you will have to hunt up yours, and you will best find them in your church work.

How Can I?? (By ANNE ASHLEY)

Q. How can I remedy perspiring feet? A. One of the best remedies is to powder the stockings with one part of chlorinated lime, one part prepared chalk, and one part of powdered starch. Also bathe the feet daily in cold water.

Q. How can I remove screws that are obstinate or rusty? A. Apply a heated poker to the heads of the screws and when the screws have become hot, they can be removed very easily.

Q. How can I clean soiled eggs? A. Soiled eggs can be cleaned by washing them in a solution of baking soda and water.
