

PRINCE EDWARD TODAY

WILL JAMES SAND in TECHNICOLOR. MATINEE 2:30 EVENING 7 and 9.

EXTRA Sports "RACING THRILLS—Cartoon... TRAP HAPPY PORKY" and Special Canada Carries On Featurette In Color... "LIFE UNDER A LEAF" — Shows 2:30-7:00-9:00.

CAPITOL NOTICE TO-DAY

Robert TAYLOR Elizabeth TAYLOR in 'CONSPIRATOR' M-G-M Picture

Plus: NEWS CARTOON

SHOWS 2:30 7 - 8:45

All pupils planning to attend Grade XI at Montague High School will register with the Secretary without delay.

Pupils for other grades from outside the district will also register with the Secretary.

LESTER MacLEOD Secretary

MacDonald Bros. Theatre

MT. STEWART

8:45 TONIGHT

"HASTY HEART"

One of the best shows produced in 1950.—Plus Serial.

GRENA GREEN

The notorious Gretna Green marriages in England were performed by the village blacksmith, as a rule, although the tollkeeper, ferryman or any other person could officiate.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

MAJOR HOOPLE

Cartoon by J. R. Williams. A man in a suit asks a man in a uniform about a boat from Saudi Arabia. The uniformed man says it's a steamboat named 'SAM'.

OUT OUR WAY

BY J. R. WILLIAMS

"PLEASURE AND WORK" THE COVERED WAGONS STILL ROLL BY AND SILVER GALLEONS RIDE THE SKY. THE VELVET GRASS IS GREEN AND COOL, AND BANISHES ALL THOUGHTS OF SCHOOL. I NEVER CAN GET BACK TO "WHEN" — I'VE TRIED IT MANY TIMES SINCE THEN — THE THING THAT WRECKS MY HOURS OF BLISS IS GETTING UP SUCH STUFF AS THIS.

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Albert Aitken, Mrs. Byron Stewart, Miss Harriet Clair. AGENT GEORGETOWN: Walden Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following places in Montague: Miss S. A. Jewell; Mrs. Clay, in Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar and 'E. Richards & Son.

"FITTED FOOTWEAR at the Montague Shoe Store.

"SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE. —Dresses, Blouses, Hats, etc. Bargain prices. At the Jo-Anna Dress Shop, Montague.

Mr. Norman Nicholson, employee of the Pioneer Publishing Co., Montague, spent the weekend at his home in Montague.

Her many friends are glad to see Miss Laura Higginbotham about again following her recent operation at the King's County Hospital.

Mrs. A. H. Duvar, who spent the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives in Quincy and Cambridge, Mass., returned to her home in Montague on Sunday.

Mr. Murray Jackson, Charlotte, Ont., spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jackson, Peters Road.

Mr. Calvin Hildey, employee of the Sackville Tribune, is spending a few days in Montague, guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hildey.

Mr. James MacIntyre of Toronto, Ont., is spending a few days in Montague at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sullivan.

Mr. Carl Currie, who has been spending the past two weeks visiting his mother, Mrs. James Currie, has left to resume his charge at the Presbyterian Church at Blue Mountain, Pictou, N. S.

"J. E. RICE, Veterinary Dentist on week beginning August 14th; will start through following districts: Cardigan Road to St. Peter's Bay, Greenwick, Cable Jead and North Side to St. Margaret's. Other notices will appear later. Take this opportunity to have your horses mouth's (examined free.)

"RETURN TO ONTARIO—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Llewellyn left Friday morning by car for their home in Hamilton, Ont., after spending two weeks vacation at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lunnigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellie Llewellyn, Montague. They were accompanied on their trip by Mr. Larry Johnston of Brantford, and Miss Mildred Blacketts, who visited her parents in Annandale.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sinnott, Emerald, were Sunday visitors here guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sinnott.

Quite a few are employed at the Cox packing plant at present packing cod fish and mackerel.

Mrs. Justin McCarthy, R. N. has gone to the city to attend to some private cases in the Charlottetown Hospital.

Mr. Alex Hayden has returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital after undergoing a serious operation on his two legs.

The forty hours devotion opens here at the church of the Little Flower on Friday morning and will close on Sunday evening. Father Sullivan from the city will assist the pastor for one evening.

Miss Shirley McKenzie has returned to her duties in Boston, Mass. after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Peters and family who came here to reside a few years ago are selling out owing to Mr. Peters being in failing health for more than a year. They will return to their old home in St. Andrews, Mr. Peters is a veteran of the last war.

Mr. P. R. Sinnott, and son have taken the contract for the building of the new school at St. Peter's Lake. They will supply all the material. The foundation work has been done and they expect to have the school ready in time for the fall term or shortly after. The old school is being moved down to the new site and will form a part of the new two room modern building.

It is reported here that a man from this vicinity will shortly seek some French money reported buried here during the French occupation. Efforts to find the hidden treasure have failed different times but once more someone claims they have high hopes that the place where the fortune is buried their summer holidays at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mills and family.

Miss Betty Underhay is spending an enjoyable vacation visiting with friends in Marshfield.

The members of Ellington Women's Institute held an enjoyable dance in the school, on Friday evening. Music for the occasion was furnished by Messrs. Claude MacKenzie and Percy Dingwell, and the Misses Kay and Virginia Coffin.

led is near the old Stookley farm where many old coins and arrow heads have been found.

Work on the road has got underway and will give employment to a crew of men for quite some time. They will work in turns as the road will be widened nearly twice its present width and will be made much straighter, crossing the railway at a different place. This is a project long needed for the busy shore where the packing plants are located.

Little Pond and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Francis, Boston, are vacationing at their summer home in Annandale.

Mrs. Raymond Gauthier, Charlottetown, is spending a few days at her home in Little Pond.

Miss Mary R. MacDonald, Brackley, spent a few days at her home in Little Pond.

Miss Kathleen MacDonald is at present spending her holidays at her home in Little Pond.

Mr. R. Ronald MacDonald and Mr. Joseph MacKenzie were recent business visitors to Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Malo MacDonald, Milton, Mass., are among the summer visitors in Little Pond.

The many friends of Mrs. M. D. MacDonald are expressing pleasure at her recovery from her recent indisposition.

On Monday night, July 31st, a chicken and ham supper was held in Little Pond Hall, sponsored by the Little Pond C. W. L. A nice sum was realized.

Mr. John J. MacDonald has returned to Ottawa after spending his holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. MacDonald.

Congratulations are extended to Miss Eileen MacDonald in winning the Bell Scholarship in the P. W. C. Entrance Examinations.

Mr. Norbert MacDonald and Eugene MacDonald returned to Hamilton Saturday by car, following their holidays at their respective homes in Little Pond.

Miss Mildred Blackett, Hamilton, Ont., is being welcomed in Little Pond after an absence of nearly two years.

Mr. Lloyd MacDonald is recovering at his home following his recent appendicitis operation in the Souris Hospital.

ANNOUNCE... W. K. ROGERS AGENCIES LIMITED wish to announce the appointment of MR. ALEX P. MacDONALD, MAIN ST., SOURIS, as their Agent for all branches of Insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ahlberg, Rosseneath, were recent visitors to Little Pond, guests of Mrs. Matilda Dingwell.

Mr. Edwin Jenkins has returned to his home following treatment in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Mrs. A. J. Hurley left Friday morning for her home in Montreal following a two week visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacDonald, Cape Spry.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murdoch of Newton, Mass., left Friday on return to their home after vacationing at the Fairchild home in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Wight left a few days ago for their home in Boston, Mass., after a vacation spent with Mr. Wight's mother in Burnt Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Aeneas MacDonald and family have taken up residence in their new home, which they purchased recently from Mr. Richard Dougan.

Cullen DeLory continues to keep Georgetown in the sports limelight by his good showing as a member of the Abegweit track and field team in the Maritime junior track and field meet at Halifax early last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. MacDonald of Richmond Street had as their recent guests, Mrs. L. J. Raberbacker of Boston, Mass., who is a cousin of Mrs. MacDonald's and Mrs. Otto Irving of Murray Harbour North. Later Mrs. MacDonald and her guests visited friends and relatives in New Glasgow, N. S.

This column extends congratulations to Miss Ann MacDonald of Georgetown for her outstanding academic performance, as announced by the Maritime Common Examining Board, for examinations taken by the students of Montague High School. Miss MacDonald, a class leader, was listed as meriting special attention for her marks in Algebra, Geometry and History.

CLYDE RIVER L. O. B. A.

The regular meeting of Clyde L. O. B. A. was held on Tuesday evening in the lodge room with Mrs. J. A. MacKinnon in the chair. The business for the evening was discussed and agreed to. Mrs. Downe the R. W. Mistress of P.E.I. gave a very instructive report on the Grand Lodge of British America which was held in St. John's Nfld. Other speakers were Mrs. Alley and Mrs. Durrach. The Clyde Lodge is looking forward to celebrating their 20th anniversary on October 8. Mrs. Collin Murray in a few chosen words thanked one and all for the small gift which she received. It was decided to send invitations to seven lodges for the next night of meeting. A bounteous lunch was served by the members.

OIL PRODUCTION

Alberta oil production averaged 64,487 barrels daily during the first five months of 1950 compared with 50,190 barrels daily during the same period in 1949.

BUYING

LIVE AND DRESSED POULTRY DAILY EASTERN PACKING CO., LTD. Souris, P. E. I.

EVERYWHERE YOU GO IT'S GENUINE MASONITE PRESWOOD WITH ADVANTAGES NO OTHER BUILDING MATERIAL CAN EQUAL. IN THE HOME: 1. Interior walls and ceilings... ON THE FARM: 1. Interiors of milk houses... IN THE FACTORY: 1. Aisle runners and floor mats... WHAT'S YOUR BUILDING PROBLEM? INTERNATIONAL FIBRE BOARD & PLYWOOD SALES LIMITED

Bay Fortune Notes

Mr. Frank MacKie, Charlottetown is visiting in Fortune the guest of Mr. Alden MacKie.

Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Summerside, is visiting at her old home in Fortune.

Mr. Leigh Dingwell, Charlottetown, is visiting with his mother Mrs. Howard Dingwell, Fortune Bridge.

Master Barry Diamond, Charlottetown is visiting in Fortune, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Stead and family.

Miss Thelma Coffin, Montague, was a week-end visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffin and family.

Miss Amy MacLaughlan, Boston, Mass. is spending her holiday vacation the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mills and family.

Miss Olive Johnstone, Summerside, Mass. is spending her holidays visiting with her mother, Mrs. E. S. Johnstone, and family, Fortune Bridge.

Mrs. Brenton Stead, and two daughters, Isabel and Brenda, were recent visitors to Charlottetown, being the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Poole and family of Souris were visitors at the home of Mrs. Poole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dingwell, on Sunday.

Mrs. John James McDonald entertained the members of Ellington and Howe Bay Women's Institute at her home on Wednesday evening, for the August meeting.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. George Dingwell, in the loss of their infant daughter, Rita Ruth, at the early age of five months.

Mr. Stanley Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Lavers and two children, Jackie and Corinne, and Mrs. Bill Fitzgerald, and two children, Gertie and Charles, of Georgetown were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Stead, on Sunday.

The Misses Rena Mills, Ottawa, and Miss Hazel Mills, R.N. of Brockville, Ontario, are enjoy-

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE L. S. STEVENSON Branch Manager 140 RICHMOND ST. All Profits for Policyholders